Thomas E. Pruitt who was involved with Tom Lair in the fistie encounter on Main street, Saturday evening, was given a hearing before Justice of the Peace Joe H. Parkes this afternoon. The Justice will render his decision Monday morning.

Leualien Sold Wheat.
At a price a trifle lower than $1 per bushel J. T. Leualien, the well known Adams farmer and president of the farmers co-operative union, has sold his last summer's wheat yield. The yield amounted to 25,000 bushels and was sold to the Balfour-Guthrie company.

Boynton Funeral Tomorrow.
The funeral of William Boynton, who died at his home in this city Thursday afternoon, will occur tomorrow at 2 o'clock at the Folsom undertaking parlors. In giving the names of the surviving relatives yesterday, the name of the widow, Mrs. William Boynton, was inadvertently omitted.

Farmers in Session.
About 30 growers of grain are being initiated as members of the Pendleton local of the farmers union at a meeting being held in the Eagle-Woodman building this afternoon. The farmers are also signing up the sack contract. From present indications there will be about 200,000 sacks delivered to the farmers in this immediate vicinity by the union.

Another Fall of Snow.
One of the most persistent snow-storms of the season visited Pendleton last night. The fine feathery flakes began falling about 4 o'clock and while they did not pile up very rapidly they continued with great persistency until after midnight with the result that there was approximately four inches of snow on the level this morning.

Will Finish Ditch Suit.
According to present indications the famous Echo water suit in which the Allen Ditch company is the plaintiff and the Henrietta Milling company is the defendant, will be brought to an end next week after having been in the courts for several weeks. Some of the attorneys in the case will go to Echo Monday to take testimony and after that they will return to this city and bring the case to a close.

Two Indians Fight.
An Indian fight of much interest to a large crowd of spectators was pulled off at the Stewart stables on Cottonwood street at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Both the young bucks were well under the influence of near beer, or something stronger, and though they fought with the viciousness of tigers, neither was able to administer very severe punishment to the other. They did succeed in greatly amusing the crowd which gathered.

Athena School District Entarages.
The Athena school district was enlarged at a meeting of the district boundary board, held this afternoon. The new territory taken in was some lying south of the town and not heretofore included in any district. The petition for the enlargement of district No. 33, west of this city, was to have come up today, but owing to the failure of the petitioners to appear with proof of their notice the matter was carried over until next Saturday.

High School to Hermiston.
The basketball team of the Pendleton high school left this morning for Hermiston where a contest will be held tonight with the crack five of the Hermiston Athletic club. The irrigationists have a fast combination and the local boys are anticipating a hard game. The following were the players who made the trip: McDill, Devine, A. Jordan, Kimball, Rader, Cole, Bowman and Boylen. They were accompanied by E. W. Brown.

BAKER LIQUOR MEN REGULATING SALOONS
Baker City.—The Baker City Retail Dealers' Liquor association has made public an order closing all saloons at 1 o'clock every night and not opening them until 5 o'clock in the morning. Saturday nights the saloons will close at 12 and open at 5 o'clock Monday morning.
The action is taken voluntarily by the saloonmen to offset, if possible, the growing sentiment favoring prohibition.
Heretofore the saloons have been kept wide open every day in the year. The liquor dealers, it is said, realize that regulation is necessary if the saloons are to continue.

W. C. T. U. HOLDS FRANCES E. WILLARD MEMORIAL SERVICES

(Contributed.)
The Women's Christian Temperance Union of Pendleton, met in the Presbyterian church last night to commemorate the passing of that great benefactress—Miss Frances E. Willard.

Mrs. Rugg, the president of the local organization, gracefully presided over the meeting. The program was well arranged and effectively carried out. Mrs. May read, with pleasing effect, a beautiful biographical sketch of Frances E. Willard. Mrs. Ingram gave a very good vocal selection. Mrs. Bleakney contrasted the home life of the women in the days before and after the coming of this maiden knight; also she set forth the object of the meeting, and made an appeal for funds for the national memorial. Mrs. Owen paid a splendid tribute to the memory of this noble woman. This inspiring address was supplemented by Miss Gilliam, with a very appropriate recitation, rendered in good style. Rev. Evans' address was much appreciated. His personal reminiscences were enjoyed, and he struck a note of triumph when he declared that in the natural course of events he hoped to outlive every saloon in the land. The inspiring selections rendered by the choir were among the best features of the evening and added much to the success of the meeting.

The Pendleton branch of the Women's Christian Temperance Union will hold its next meeting Friday, 25th instant, at the home of Mrs. D. B. Waffle, 415 Lewis street, 2:30 p. m.

FRUIT INSPECTORS ORGANIZE S. J. CAMPBELL IS SECRETARY

The county fruit inspectors of Oregon formed themselves into an organization at Corvallis, yesterday, according to S. J. Campbell, the Umatilla county inspector who was in Pendleton this morning on his return to his home at Milton. He was elected vice president of the state organization, while J. E. Stansberry of Portland was elected president and Mrs. J. E. Stansberry, secretary.

Mr. Campbell says the organization was formed for the purpose of enabling the inspectors of the state to co-operate with each other in the war on fruit pests.

The following resolutions regarding the organization were recommended by the committee named to draft them and were adopted by the meeting which was held at Corvallis at the termination of "Farmers' Week".

Resolved, That the county fruit inspectors in attendance at Farmers' Week held at the Oregon Agricultural college, February 14 to 18, 1910, do hereby organize themselves into an organization to be known as the Association of the County Fruit Inspectors of Oregon with officers as follows: President, vice president and secretary, the officers to serve without remuneration and to be elected for a term of one year, when successors shall be elected.

Resolved, That a regular meeting be held annually at the Oregon Agricultural college during the regular Farmers' Week of each year.

Signed—S. J. Campbell, Umatilla county; J. E. Stansberry, Multnomah county; J. Hebee, Lane county, committee.

The Baptist church will begin meetings Sunday, February 27. Rev. J. S. Ledford of Los Angeles, California, will be the evangelist. Mr. Ledford is also a sweet singer of Israel and is a very agreeable man to hear both in song and sermon.

KEEP HIRED GIRLS HOME.

Swedish Manager Plans for a Series of Patriotic Plays.

Stockholm.—The stage as an educational force is going to be put to a new use in Sweden, where the continued flow of emigration, mainly to the United States, is causing misgivings. Herr Engdahl, a Gothenburg theatrical manager, has had an audience with King Gustaf, to whom he submitted a plan to give a series of performances throughout the country to plays calculated to arouse feelings of patriotism and the love of hearth and home.

The king agreed that it would be eminently desirable to check the present efflux of useful citizens of both sexes and promised his full support to the enterprise. Whether as a result the supply of Swedish hired girls in the United States will give out remains to be seen.
