Oswald West, Railroad Commissioner. Who Will Not Be Candidate for Re-election.

OSWALD WEST WILL STEP FROM OFFICE

RAILROAD COMMISSIONER DOES NOT WANT RE-ELECTION

Doesn't Desire the Job and Doesn't Think he Could Secure it if He Did—Will Return to Raising Acorns in Brush Pasture—Lowell or Somewhere Might Succeed Him.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)
Salem, Ore.—Railroad Commissioner Oswald West has announced that he will not be a candidate for re-election at the forthcoming election. His reason is that he does not want the job and that if he did want it the fact that he is a democrat would probably preclude him from obtaining it.

Mr. West's statement follows: "I am not going to be a candidate because I don't want the job. Being a democrat, I don't suppose I could be elected if I wanted it and should stand as a candidate. Officeholding is all right as long as it lasts, but you must always think of the day when it will end, for that time is sure to come and when it does come and you are thrown overboard upon the sea of life, unless you have provided yourself well with life preservers you are not in the swimming. I want to get overboard before I forget how to swim.

"A razorback about can live the year around in a brush pasture and pull through in pretty good shape, for he is used to it and knows how to root and rustle for acorns, but if you pen him up for a time and give him plenty of feed and shelter he will grow fat and lazy. When that happens you must either kill him or keep on feeding him, for if you turn him back into the brush pasture you will find he is either too lazy or has forgotten how to root, and will starve to death.

Raised in Brush Pasture.
"I was raised in a brush pasture, and while I have been at the public crib for some time, I haven't quite reached the stage where I have forgotten how to rustle for a living, and I want to get back to the pasture before that time comes. I will always feel interested, however, in the work of the railroad commission, and I earnestly hope I may be succeeded by someone well fitted for the place and who will be of material assistance to the other members of the commission in bringing to completion the work of ascertaining the physical value of the railroads of the state and other matters which the commission has under way."

Some Who Want Job.
Among those who are known to be casting covetous eyes on West's job are A. T. Buxton, Forest Grove, master of the State Grange; Stephen A. Lowell and Dan P. Smythe, Pendleton; Sam White, Baker City; State Senator Frank Miller, Albany; C. A. Malbeouf, Portland; ex-State Senator John H. Smith, Astoria; Jay Dobbin, Joseph; ex-State Senator O. P. ### A GOOD COUGH MIXTURE.

Simple Home-Made Remedy That is Free From Opiates and Harmful Drugs.
An effective remedy, that will usually break up a cold in twenty-four hours is easily made by mixing together in a large bottle two ounces of Glycerine, a half ounce of Virgin Oil of Pine compound pure and eight ounces of pure Whisky. This mixture will cure any cough that is curable, and is not expensive, as it makes enough to last the average family an entire year. Virgin Oil of Pine compound pure is prepared only in the laboratories of the Leach Chemical Co., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Dear Friend:
Every morning before I go to school I sweep out the dining room and kitchen for mamma. Yesterday she told me I might have a new broom. I went down town and bought a new broom for 40 cents. While I was down at that grocery store I saw lots of good things to eat. Full cream cheese for 25 cents a pound.
Canned Peaches, 15 cents per can.

and alfalfa land 2 1/2 miles from Nyssa. One hundred and twenty acres of this tract is 8-year-old apple trees and the balance is in alfalfa. The company had already owned 160 acres of land near Ontario, Ore., and was attracted to the Nyssa section by the assurance of the success of the Boise-Owyhee Ditch company, which has just signed contracts to put in an irrigation system which will irrigate about 200,000 acres of fine sage-brush land.

PLUCKY WIDOW TRYING TO SAVE MINING CLAIM

North Yakima, Wash.—In order to get the necessary amount of assessment work done on a mining claim, Mrs. Anna Price, besides caring for a bedridden husband, has been throughout the winter drilling, blasting and mucking out a mine on a quartz ledge in the Swauk district in the Cascades.
Mrs. Price was formerly a dressmaker in North Yakima and went to the hills with her husband on account of his health. Mr. Price died last week, but before leaving the claim Mrs. Price will finish the necessary

ROBINSON CRUSOE WANTS NAME CHANGED

Boston.—A man who was born in Norway and who was naturalized in Boston under the name of Robinson Crusoe, in September, 1908, has applied to Judge Lowell, in the United States circuit court for leave to resume his own name. The man explained that his right name was Andrew Robert Krause, and that he had been a sailor 20 years.
"How did you come to use the name Robinson Crusoe?" was asked.
"Well," replied Krause, "my shipmates called me that and I used it when I was naturalized. Now I would like to use my own name."
Judge Lowell thought awhile. Then he said: "I sympathize deeply with this man. He asked a privilege which might be granted if the federal court had jurisdiction. His remedy is an appeal to the state probate court it seems to me."
His appeal was dismissed.

D. C. HENNY, RECLAMATION ENGINEER, HAS RESIGNED

Dr. D. C. Henny, consulting engineer of the United States reclamation service, at Portland, Oregon, and formerly of California, has tendered his resignation in order to accept a more lucrative practice on general consulting work.

At the director's recommendation he has, however, consulted to continue his formal connection with the service on a per diem basis as consulting engineer, to be available occasionally for consultation by the reclamation service with which he is familiar.
Mr. Henny graduated from State Polytechnic at Delft, Holland, in 1881. Engaged on drainage and railroad work in Holland until 1884. Engaged on railroad and water works construction in the United States until 1890. Opened private office in Denver, Colorado, in 1890-1891. Private practice covering water and irrigation works mostly in Colorado, Wyoming and Utah. From 1892 to 1903 general manager of Excelsior Wooden Pipe company, a contracting firm of San Francisco engaged in constructing pipe lines, reservoirs, etc., throughout the United States, Alaska and Hawaiian islands. Acted as consulting engineer for West Los Angeles Water company and expert on valuation of Oakland water works system for the city of Oakland, Cal. The Excelsior Wooden Pipe company in 1903 was merged into the Redwood Manufacturers company, of which he became general manager, and for whom he built electric power plant, mills, wharves, railroad and water and sewer system at Black Diamond. During the above period he served two terms as president of the Technical Society of the Pacific Coast. Resigned February 1, 1905, and joined the U. S. reclamation service. Was placed in charge of Northern Oregon and Washington as supervising engineer. Umatilla, Tieton, Sunnyside projects designed and largely constructed under his supervision. Supervisory territory enlarged in 1906 to include all of Oregon and northern California and in 1907 to include Nevada. Besides canal systems numerous earth, crib and masonry dams were designed and built under his supervision.
