Two Forfeit Ball.
Two drunks arrested last evening, forfeited their ball of $5 each. Walter Bomson and Joe Doe were the inebriated ones.

Want Sewer Extended.
This afternoon a mass meeting of the residents of the west end of the city is being held at the Hawthorne school for the purpose of adopting plans looking towards the extension of the sewer system to that section.

Two Court Cases.
Testimony is being taken in two equity cases before Judge Bean today. They are the cases of Scott versus Loney & Knight in which the sand pit near Umatilla, is the issue and the case of Sloan versus Gervis which is an action brought to compel payment of a note.

Will Talk March 28.
March 28 is the date determined upon yesterday for the taking of the final testimony in the case of the Allen Ditch company versus the Henrietta Milling company and the commencement of the arrangement. The case will be finally wound up at that time with the exception that Judge Bean will probably reserve some time for the rendering of his opinion.

Want to Live in Pendleton.
The East Oregonian is in receipt of two communications from young ladies who are desirous of making their homes in this city. One is Miss Beulah Hinckley of St. Helens and the other is Miss Jessie Jacobs of St. Helens, Nebraska. It is not known what significance is to be attached to the similarity of the names of the two towns in which the young women now live.

Alleges Desertion.
A suit for divorce was filed this morning by E. J. Loland versus Amos Loland. The parties to this suit were married in Livingston, Texas, in 1903, and have three children ranging in age from two to five years. Desertion is alleged as grounds for legal separation. The two older children, a boy and a girl, are with the father in Canada, while the youngest child is with the mother.

Jury to Be Summoned.
The jurors who served during the January term of court and who are still held subject to call will be summoned to appear at the court house Wednesday morning, March 2. The purpose of their being called at that time is to try the case of A. B. Huellat of La Grande vs. George La La Fontaine. The suit grows out of the moving picture show adventures of La Fontaine in the town of La Grande.

To Organize Valley Farmers.
Charles Hill, state organizer for the Farmers' Educational & Cooperative Union of America, left this morning on a three weeks' visit to Salem, Albany, Corvallis and the county adjacent to each city. The organizers are endeavoring to increase the membership of the union in this state from 2500 at present to 5000 by the middle of summer. At present there is not a single local union in the valley, but Mr. Hill hopes to change this condition before he returns on March 10.

Orchestra Home from Heppner.
Delighted with the treatment afforded them in the town of Heppner and praising in the highest terms the successful manner in which the Elks in that town carried out their big reception and dance, the members of Pendleton's big new orchestra returned home last evening. They were also well supplied with compliments which had been given them on account of the excellence of their music. The people of Heppner were so well pleased with the performance of the Pendleton organization that it will probably be asked to make a return trip at some time in the not distant future.

Will Judge Debate.
President Will Moore of the Commercial association, Deputy District Attorney Frederick Steiwer, and Attorney James P. Neal of Freewater, leave this evening for La Grande where they will act as judges in the La Grande-Baker high school debate tomorrow night. The two schools will also contest in Baker City on the same night and Superintendent J. S. Landers will be one of the three judges. The other two will be selected from Union and Welser. The winner of these debates will meet the winner of the Pendleton-Fossil debate for the championship of eastern Oregon.

Rev. Cornelison to Portland.
Rev. J. M. Cornelison left this morning on the Pendleton-Portland local to attend a meeting of the synodical home mission committee, of which he and Rev. B. F. Harper are members from the Presbytery of Pendleton. The synod of Oregon is co-extensive with the state and the committee therefore come from different sections to the most central point at this time. There are twelve of the committeemen who will at this time discuss the apportionment of home mission aid from the board for the work in Oregon, and lay plans for the meeting of the synod in October, which will convene this year in Pendleton. On returning from Portland, Mr. Cornelison will be overnight in Hood River to confer with Rev. W. L. Van Nuy, formerly of Pendleton, but who is now at Mt. Hood. Mr. Van Nuy is a member of the Presbyterial home mission committee of the Presbytery of Pendleton, and the aid received for this presbytery will be apportioned by that committee. So he will come down from Mt. Hood for the conference.
Mr. Cornelison will then be over Sabbath at Moro, Ore., with Rev. A. Jack Adams, the pastor there, where

FLYING SLED, LATEST WRINKLE IN AVIATION
Orange, N. J.—With a flexible files sited as the basis of their experiments, members of the Orange Boys' club have constructed a model aeroplane which they believe presents solutions for some of the vexing problems of heavier-than-air flight.
Distinguishing features of the sled-aeroplane are the use of a tapering wing and the adoption of a unique centerboard device to give the machine stability.
Coasting with the sled thus equipped members have been able to make low flights. The next test will be made with the wings attached to a bicycle.

WOULD OUST ROSTAND FROM FRENCH ACADEMY
Chicago.—A demand that the French academy investigate Edmond Rostand's claim to the authorship of "Cyrano de Bergerac" has been made by Samuel Eberly Gross of Chicago, who eight years ago won a suit in which he charged that "Cyrano" was a plagiarism of his own play, "The Merchant Prince of Cornville." Mr. Gross notified the academy by cable of the fact that he would make charges and a full text of the demand for an investigation has been mailed. Mr. Gross sets forth it would be only self-protection on the part of the academy to expel Rostand in disgrace.
A prize for every child who draws a picture of the famous "Red Goose" and brings it to the Peoples Warehouse.

CHINTZ BUGS: WARNING!
Women and Children are Going to Fight You in Kansas.
Topeka, Kans.—An old statute of Kansas which empowered county officials with authority to call out all men, women and children from twelve to sixty-five years of age to fight noxious insects, may be invoked this summer when the Chintz bug, the great destroyer of growing corn, makes his appearance in Kansas. The law, known as the "Warning Out" law, was passed in 1877, soon after the grasshopper raids. It is not limited in its scope and can be made to apply to the raids of any insects in Kansas.

SNOW STALLS TRAINS IN CASCADE MOUNTAINS
Everett, Wash., Feb. 24.—Fifteen feet of snow on the tracks for ten miles in the Cascades has completely blocked the route of the Great Northern railroad today and six passenger trains, with between five and six hundred passengers aboard, are stalled in the mountains. The Northern Pacific line was cleared at midnight.
Today's trains are from five to ten hours late. The Great Northern has returned all trains, east of the mountains not blocked, to Spokane and will route them over the Northern Pacific to the coast. The Milwaukee and Puget Sound is completely blocked.

REPUBLICANS WOULD ELECT HITCHCOCK WITH PAPERS
Washington, Feb. 24.—It is reported here today that the national republican organization is planning to buy five newspapers in Arizona with a view to electing Frank Hitchcock, postmaster general, to the senate when the territory is admitted to statehood. It is said an effort will also be made to amend the constitution so that six months will constitute a legal residence.

Jury Is Disagreed.
Spokane, Wash., Feb. 24.—The jury in the industrial workers' conspiracy trial, has been locked up for fifteen hours and indications are of a disagreement. It is rumored the jury is evenly divided.
