FAMOUS DOGCATCHER MAY BE SUMMONED

HARRY HART MAY RID CITY OF TRAMP CANINES

Police Committee of Council May Hire Noted "Expert" to Clear the Streets of Public Nuisance—Man Has Great Record—All Licenses Must Be Paid Promptly.

Harry Hart, the famous dog catcher, may come to Pendleton within the next few weeks to start the war on ownerless or valueless canines. The council is in receipt of a letter from this "expert" and at last night's meeting the police committee was instructed to enter into correspondence with Hart with a view to securing his services.

The annual dog license is now due and payable and after the first of next month the licenses will become delinquent. The catching of dogs on which the licenses are not paid will then be started and the city rid of all dogs without owners or upon which the owners are unwilling to pay the tax of $3 or $8 for male and female dogs, respectively.

Hart is undoubtedly the best known dog catcher in the northwest. He has been with the Humane society of Spokane for the past five years and in the last eight months has caught 2000 dogs in Spokane alone. His most notable work in his line was performed in Kalspell, Montana, that city having sent for him after every other dogcatcher had been run out of town. Hart cleaned up the town. Moscow, Idaho, was another city where the dog pest proved an unsolved problem until Hart arrived on the scene.

Other Licenses Must Be Paid. That the city council proposes to collect every dollar that is coming to it was also made evident by another decision arrived at last evening. This was the motion instructing the recorder to advertise the fact that the quarterly licenses are due, one week before the expiration of each quarter. This will be the only notice given and failure to pay at the expiration of the quarter will be followed by arrest and prosecution.

Bills Ordered Paid. Being the first meeting of the month the usual grist of accounts against the city were audited by the finance committee and ordered paid.

WOMEN IMITATE THE MALE CARLTON CLUB

London.—The latest women's clubs to be formed in London is the Ladies Carlton club, which will be purely intended to combat socialism and incidentally assist the unionists.

The club is located in the very heart of the West End, and the vice presidents include the Duchess of Beaufort, the Countess of Coventry, the Countess of Yarborough, Viscountess Iveagh, Lady Amphil, Lady Ninian Crichton-Stuart and Mrs. Austin Chamberlain.

It is a foregone conclusion that there will be considerable wirepulling at this imitation of the male Carlton club. At the latter club the sale of titles to ambitious members of parliament who contribute handsomely to the party fund has gone on for many years, and highly placed members of the club have practically lived upon the heavy commissions they have received from candidates for the peerage.

The Ladies' Carlton club will follow the same lines except that the wives of ambitious members of parliament will approach powerful peers. At present the vice presidents cannot make up their minds in regard to the suffragettes.

Let the women clean your clothes.

FASHIONABLE SOCIETY HAS CALICO BALL FOR CHARITY

New York, March 3.—"Some in rags and some in tags and some in silken gowns" aptly applies to the costumes to be seen this evening at Sherry's, where the fashionable Calico Ball will be held in aid of what might be called the outside patients of the Lying-in-Hospital. There are many families of poor patients in much distress, unable to provide for themselves. Sometimes it is the wage-earner who is the patient, or it may be one of the family who is necessary for its support. There have been a number of such cases brought to the notice of the faculty of the hospital, and there are again other families on their lists for whom aid is solicited. This branch of the work has grown greatly, but the hospital has not the funds to meet all worthy and deserving cases.

The details of the ball were arranged by Mrs. Arthur S. Burden, Mrs. Austin Gray, Mrs. Frederick M. Davies and Mrs. Arthur Iselin. It will be attended by society en masse, and the tickets are $5. Several dinners are to be given in advance of the ball, and Colonel Astor, who is to entertain for the first time in his reconstructed residence, will bring in all his guests. Nearly all the women will wear gowns of calico or chintz of gay pattern, but this will not be necessary. The men are to wear coats of similar materials, but there is no doubt that a number will appear in ordinary evening dress.

FRANCE WILL ACCEPT PLAN OF SECRETARY KNOX

Washington, March 3.—The state department today received advice that France has accepted the proposition of Secretary Knox for the establishment of an international court of arbitration. The court proposed by Knox is to have certain limitations which, it is asserted, will make the plan acceptable to all European powers.

and was carried into a small stream where it disappeared from sight.

Latest reports indicate that the avalanche swept down the mountain above Wellington at 1:40 a. m., instead of at 4:30. This is the statement of the survivors and it is born out by the finding of watches stopped at that hour.

Vivid Description Given.

Ira Clary and H. Purcell, conductors on the rotary plows, give vivid accounts of their experiences. They were asleep in one of the vacant mail cars which was swept off the ledge, but escaped without injury.

"I thought the end of the world had come," said Clary in describing his experiences. "The car in which I was asleep appeared to be picked up and tossed about like a feather. Then it began to roll over and tumbled down the mountainside. Suddenly it hit a big tree which stood in our path and the car popped open like an egg shell. When I came to my senses I found myself buried under six feet of snow. I was clear of the wreckage and was able to dig myself out."

"I heard Purcell calling and hurried to his assistance. I dug him out and then we started to get out the others. We got out several who were unhurt and did what we could to assist those pinned beneath the wreckage."

ANARCHY TRIAL IN OPEN.

No Secrecy Will Characterize Case of Accused Revolutionists.

St. Petersburg.—The belief that the trial of Nicholas Vasilievitch Tschalkovsky and Mme. Breshko-Breshkovskaya would be open is confirmed.

Mme. Breshkovskaya's lawyer, Prince Eristoff, says his client will not be present. The defense, while not denying revolutionary activity on her part, will merely point out alleged errors in the indictment when she is called to plead.

Prince Eristoff's presence will be a mere formality, as the desire of his client is to avoid anything that might prejudice Tschalkovsky's case. Eristoff today said his client had been greatly comforted by the assurances of sympathy from America.

CUMMINGS AND CLAPP SUBMIT MINORITY REPORT

Washington, D. C., March 3.—Senators Cummings and Clapp today submitted to the senate a minority report attacking the interstate commerce court. They declared the measure creates a useless court and reduces the authority of the interstate commerce commission to regulate properly the railroads or to protect the public and prevents neither over-capitalization nor combination.

TEDDY IS NOT AFRAID OF SLEEPING SICKNESS

Mongolia, Sou. March 3.—"My friends need not worry over my health," said Roosevelt today, when told of the fear of sleeping sickness. "I never felt better in my life," he continued.

The colonel interrupted his trip to Khartoum today to take a last elephant hunt. He expects to arrive at Khartoum March 17.

BLAME HIGH SCHOOLS FOR LACK OF MORALS

Chicago.—High schools were blamed for the falling off in the number of candidates for the ministry, and the tendency toward eliminating religious features from the public schools was termed a "peril" in the report of the committee of education read by Rev. Henry C. Minton of Trenton, N. J., before the session of the executive commission of the western section, Alliance of Reformed Churches of the World holding the Presbyterian System, at the Presbyterian rooms, 328 Wabash avenue.

The speaker pointed out the pupil passes through the adolescent stage without any Christian influence in school, maintaining that this resulted in a drop in moral stamina and interest in religion.

"In former times," said Rev. Mr. Minton, "we had the academy where the pastor continued in personal touch with the young men. Now we have the high school where there is a lack of personal guidance at a time when there is apt to be a slump in the moral qualities of the youth."

"No education is complete without religious training. Education without religion fails to fulfill that which the state aims to accomplish. Training the mind and developing the intellect only is not true education. It will not make for the best citizenship."

"Morality without the sanction of religion is a vain thing. No people will ever rise above their moral or their religious faith. Without ethical incentive and religious sanction, the purposes sought by a full education fail."

In the general discussion which followed Rev. Minton called it "suicidal compromise for persons of 50 to 75 per cent Christian faith to bargain with the man of 5 per cent faith regarding the Bible in the public schools."

To Perform for Brother.

New York, March 3.—Maxine Elliott will give a special matinee of "The Inferior Sex" at Daly's this afternoon in honor of her brother-in-law, Forbes-Robertson, who is appearing in "The Passing of the Third Floor Back," at Maxine Elliott's theater. Frank Stayton, the author of the comedy, will also be a special guest of honor at this matinee.

Gaynor Guest of Honor.

New York, March 3.—Mayor Gaynor will be the guest of honor at the sixteenth annual dinner of the North Side Board of Trade this evening, and a welcoming committee will be on the job to greet the city's executive upon his arrival at the scene of the festi-

LADIES' CLUB HOUSE ASSURED NOW QUESTION OF SIZE

The question is not whether The American Woman's League can secure enough members in Pendleton to build a chapter (or club) house here. That question is decided. We already have twenty-eight applicants, eleven of whom are full members, which entitles us to a $1200 house.

The question now is, shall we be satisfied with a $1200 house, when the league is willing to build us one for at least $5000? We have the prospect of the donation of a lot in a good location.

Sign the application for membership. Send your subscriptions through the league and help us to secure the very best house they will build for us. See Miss Boyd, local representative, 302 Water street. Phone, Black 2091.
