

Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Chalk Talk for Children.
Miss Ethel Hutchins, art and music instructor in the city public schools, will be in charge of the story hour at the public library tomorrow morning. She will vary the usual program somewhat by giving a "chalk talk."

Sues on Account.
An action to collect a balance due on a doctor bill was filed in the circuit court today by Flossa Bartlett against James Foglesong and wife. All are residents of the Freewater country.

W. F. Matlock Improving.
Wesley Matlock arrived from Portland this morning and states that his father, W. F. Matlock is now considerably improved in health. He is still at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Fred Laatz, in Portland.

Improving South Main Street.
A force of men and horses with scrapers are at work on the South Main street hill today. The street is being so graded that the water will be drained off without tearing furrows in the street or covering the sidewalks with mud.

To Discuss Civic Needs.
The ladies' civic league will meet at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon in the city hall and all ladies are invited to attend the session. Following the reading of the reports the league will take up the discussion of "Civic Needs of Pendleton."

Baby Girl Dies.
The two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Reid, formerly of Umatilla, but now of Portland, died this morning at the home of Mrs. Reed's mother, Mrs. H. W. Carpenter, in this city. Death was due to typhoid-pneumonia, contracted while the child and her mother were visiting in the city. The funeral services will be held Sunday.

River is Falling.
The water in the Umatilla river is still falling slowly, being about a foot lower this afternoon than it was at the highest stage Wednesday. It is believed that the water will remain high for many days but that it will not be much if any higher than at present, any time this spring.

Bulletin Publisher Here.
J. G. Kelley, new owner of the Evening Bulletin of Walla Walla, has been in the city today. He came over from Walla Walla to meet his wife and two sons who are just arriving from Omaha, where Mr. Kelley was formerly located. Mr. Kelley succeeded Eugene Lorton as owner and publisher of the Bulletin and the paper is succeeding well under his management.

Hanford Is Coming.
E. Lawrence Walker, veteran manager for Charles B. Hanford, is now in the city, having arrived this morning from Spokane. He has arranged for the appearance of Hanford at the Oregon March 15. This year Hanford plays in "The American Lord" and henceforth his appearance here will be in the nature of a diversion. According to his manager, this is the second time that the famous actor has ever appeared in modern plays.

Ptomaine Poisoning.
The Misses Mary and Viola Shea are recovering from the effects of ptomaine poisoning as the result of eating shrimp salad. They were very ill for a time yesterday morning but are now out of all danger, though they are still suffering. There have been other local cases of ptomaine poisoning recently. Mrs. A. C. Hampton has not yet fairly recovered from the case which resulted from eating canned tomatoes, while her husband was also slightly ill.

Colored Lady is Fined.
Found guilty of assault and battery and fined $10 was the fate meted out to Mrs. Margaret Ray as the result of the police court trial yesterday afternoon. The colored woman had been arrested at the instance of Ah Look, Chinese cook in a Cottonwood street resort. The Chinaman charged his assailant with attempting to stab him with a butcher knife and exhibited a shirt with knife cuts in it and bespattered with blood which he alleged came from a cut in his forehead.

On Trip to the East.
Mrs. H. S. Shangie of Milton, wife of the presiding elder of this district of the M. E. church, south, passed through Pendleton last evening on her way to Nashville, Tennessee as a delegate to the annual convention of the Woman's Home Missionary society. She was accompanied by her two daughters, Lois and Ruth and they will visit in Arkansas with relatives en route to Tennessee. Next month they will be joined by Mr. Shangie and they will then proceed to Asheville, North Carolina, to attend the general conference of the church. Later they will go to Washington city to attend the world's Sunday school convention.

Would Catch Satan.
Washougal, Wash.—John Doherty, a young man who lives at Skye, a few miles from here, has gone violently insane, believing it to be his mission to catch the devil and punish him. One night last week he escaped from his home and ran some distance in the snow and when found was covered with blood. Grief over the recent death of his father is supposed to be the cause.

Quality Show at Grand.
Music, plenty of it, novel instrumental music and sweet productions of the voice, mingles with a light touch of clean comedy to make this week's bill at the Grand vaudeville theatre what is declared by many to be far superior in its entertaining worth to anything yet offered at this popular playhouse. The bill that opened last night to two packed houses is one that pleases all.

The Van Kaathoven quartet were undoubtedly the hit of the bill last night. Their popularity was responsible for a loss to the management. The crowd at the first show liked them so well that most of them stayed for the two performances and as a result a large number of persons were turned away, while many stood during the entire second show. The Van Kaathovens get far away from the ordinary with one of the most pleasing musical acts ever seen here, and properly staged, showing a scene in Holland. They are German folk and sing German songs as they are seldom heard. All four are accomplished musicians, also and the music they produce on mandolin, violin, cello and guitar is a treat. Their quartet work is extremely well done. Gretchen Van Kaathoven, contralto comes with one of those deep sympathetic voices seldom heard in vaudeville both in part singing solo work and reaches low C in her song "Wacht Am Rhein." Lena Van Kaathoven gives a very sweet rendition of "The Rosary." It is an act of real merit. Little Olga, late of Barnum & Bailey's circus, was also a clever performer. Jack Berlington in comedy cartoon work is the best yet. Motion pictures that are up to date.

Overstocked on furniture—must reduce the stock. If you want to buy furniture, come in and see me. Pendleton Furniture Co., W. R. Graham, mtr., at the old Ingram grocery stand.

Silver Threads Among the Gold.
"Darling, I am growing old, silver threads amongst the gold shine upon my brow today, life is fading 'fast away.'" Thus runs one of the old, old songs. There is always a note of sadness and regret attached to the coming of gray hair prematurely, as if the hand of time were ruthlessly checking off the pleasant hours of youth and laughter. Remedy after remedy has been exploited for the restoring of gray hair to its natural color but the one that has stood the test of years and proved the most pleasant and reliable, is HAY'S HAIR HEALTH. This time-tried preparation succeeds where others fail. It is one of these safe and dependable remedies that it is a pleasure to recommend. HAY'S HAIR HEALTH restores gray hair by furnishing to the hair roots, the exact nourishment that revives and gives them new life and vigor. It is not a dye. It works pleasantly and effectively. All reliable druggists sell it for 50c and $1. Booklet containing further information on the "Care of the Hair" will be forwarded for 2c by the Philo Hay Specialties Co., 30 Clinton street, Newark, N. J., U. S. A.
