

WHO'S YOUR CLOTHIER?

A SIMPLE question, but of vital importance to you. Upon its answer falls the responsibility of your being correctly dressed in the right style, fit, fabric, pattern and workmanship. If the answer is Bond Brothers, then there is no need of explaining why,---but if the answer should be otherwise, we would kindly and cordially invite you to ask those whom you know we clothe, to tell you why they buy here. You will find there's a reason.
