Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Son Is Born.

A son has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen Patiwa, well-known Umatilla Indians, at their home on the reservation.

False Fire Alarm.

The ringing of the firebell for several minutes at 5:45 this morning brought several residents of the city from their beds in their night robes. It proved to be a false alarm, however, for no fire could be discovered nor could the man be located who rung the bell.

Hazel Howland Very Low.

Miss Hazel Howland who has been ill at Ellensburg, Washington, where she was attending the state normal school is not expected to live and relatives leave this afternoon for her bedside. It is erroneously stated in another part of this paper that she had been brought to Pendleton for treatment. Such is not the case.

May Have Money Back.

According to Superintendent J. S. Landers parties having seats for the Laurant lecture, which was not given, may have their choice of receiving their money back or securing a seat for the College singing girls' entertainment to be given here March 28. He fears the announcement made under his name yesterday was slightly ambiguous.

Funeral Services Tomorrow.

The funeral services for Munra Reid, the deceased daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Reid of Umatilla, formerly of Pendleton, will be held at the M. E. church, south, on West Webb street, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. N. H. Brooks, pastor of the Christian church, will conduct the services. Mrs. Reid will be better remembered as Miss Jessie McLellan.

Farmers Dittate Many.

One of the most enthusiastic meetings ever held by the local union of farmers is in progress in the Eagles-Woodmen building this afternoon. In addition to the transaction of their usual routine business the members of the union are engaged in initiating into membership one of the largest classes ever taken in. The local union is growing by leaps and bounds and is rapidly outstripping all the others in the state in the matter of membership. Arrangements are also being made for the reception to National President Barrett who will be here this spring from his home in Georgia.

Law Blocks North Coast.

Kennelwick, Wash.—The tables were turned Wednesday in the fight which the North Coast is waging to build its tracks along Front street in this city when Superior Judge O. R. Holcomb supplemented his temporary restraining order by a permanent injunction. As soon as the news of the judge's decision reached here the North Coast assembled 100 men along Front street to prevent property owners from tearing up the track already built.

The force was kept on guard until a late hour that night, but no attempt was made by property owners to molest the track. The North Coast will now begin condemnation proceedings, and to strengthen its case it will ask residents to sign a petition setting forth that the railroad down front street will be of great benefit to the city in general. Meanwhile all construction work in the city has been temporarily suspended.

Wants Depot Nearer Town.

Washougal, Wash.—A petition was circulated here last week praying the S. P. & S. Railway company to move its depot from its present site which is three-quarters of a mile from town to a point near the center of town. It received the signatures of 99 per cent of the business men and taxpayers of the town and will be taken to the headquarters of the railway company at Portland by a committee appointed for that purpose.

It is a conservative estimate that the business transacted by the railroad company would be increased at least 50 per cent if the depot was placed in a more accessible location. Its location has retarded the growth of the town and as it is the policy of the North Bank to help upbuild the towns on its line, it is thought the petition will be granted.

Lost Diamonds Restored.

Astoria, Ore.—The $1700 worth of diamonds belonging to Mrs. W. F. McGregor, wife of Collector of Customs McGregor, that were lost last Sunday night, were recovered Saturday through the assistance of the chief of police of Astoria, the sheriff and chief of Detectives Hayden of the North Bank road, who have been working on the case since the time jewels were lost.

An officer of the police force received the jewels but because of a promise of immunity from prosecution the guilty party was not punished. The jewels were left in the depot and were picked up by Ticket Agent M. E. Manley, a young married man with two children, who has been entrusted with much money since working for the railroad. Manley's conscience would not let him rest, and he confessed. He was discharged.

Kills Many Wildcats.

Salem, Ore.—John Lomker of Mill City Wednesday deposited the hides of 14 wildcats and two cougars with County Clerk R. D. Allen and will receive $48 bounty from the state as a reward for his ability as a nimrod. All the animals were killed by Lomker in Marion county since November 27.

Large quantities of stale bread may be bought from a baker at 75 cents to $1 per barrel. Soaked sufficiently to soften, it makes splendid chick feed.

HAS UNEARTHED FRAUDS, SAYS FRISCO LAWYER

Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.—Public interest in the cases of the Marble creek settlers on public lands is likely to be aroused anew, according to the statements of H. W. Rich, an attorney from San Francisco, who has been retained by the settlers to continue their fight for title to their lands.

Rich has been gathering evidence in these cases, and claims to have in his possession affidavits of a startling character, which is presented to a federal investigation, will he claims, eclipse in interest even the famous land fraud cases of Oregon.

"There are numerous fraudulent acts which have been committed in this district for the purpose of obtaining lands for lumber companies," said Rich. "I can prove that a paid agent of the timber interests induced men to swear that the claims of certain settlers were unimproved, whereas he had in his possession at the time photographs of the improvements which were in full requirement of the law."

Rich claims that the matter will be thoroughly threshed out, and that the general government will be called upon to investigate, and that indictments of parties who have aided in this alleged attempt to defraud these settlers of the lands will likely result.

MILLIONAIRE'S SON TOILS IN COAL MINE

Boston.—Actually working in a Rhode Island mine and acquiring a practical knowledge of how coal is handled both above and below ground, James Scollay Whitney, son of Henry W. Whitney, of this city, and nephew of the late William C. Whitney, of New York, has caused much comment among his wide circle of friends. He is a graduate of Harvard, class of 1908. He will inherit part of his father's big estate, not less than $3,000,000. When questioned about coal mining, he simply says: "I am here to learn all about it and know it for myself, from one end to the other."

The young man is an office employe of the Rhode Island Coal company of Portsmouth, R. I., of which his father is the president and financial head. Attired in blue flannel shirt, knitted working suit, thick shoes and a knitted round woolen cap with tassel, the young millionaire appears like any other young fellow, and is well liked among Portsmouth people.

"He's just like one of us," said the man at the country store. "If you ask him for a pipeful of tobacco you'll get it and welcome. He's all right."

Cruel.

"You are going to get married and you don't know a thing about house-keeping?"
"But can't I learn?"
"Do you love your intended husband?"
"Of course I do?"
"And you are going to practice on him!"

No matter how busy we all are, we shall have to spare a little time this year to elect another state legislature—Los Angeles Times. It is scarcely worth while, if regular republicans are to be elected; it would be as well to elect Boss Herrin at large for the whole legislature.—Journal.

AT THE PICTURE SHOWS

The Pastime.
The program for Sunday's change promises to be a good one.

"The Wayside Shrine." Vitagraph. 1000 feet. A scenic and dramatic triumph. A love story of strong heart interest.

"A Honeymoon Through Snow to Sunshine." A subject of unusual interest. Lubid. 1000 feet.

"The Miniature." Edison. 725 feet. An incident in the life of Adrew Jackson, resenting an insult offered to his wife. The duel scene is especially vivid.

Dear Friend:
Do you like cheese? I like cheese when it is good cheese. I will tell you how I like cheese. I like a piece of cheese with a piece of pie when I get nearly through. Papa says cheese makes his coffee taste better, and his cigar when he smokes. Until I went to the grocery store I didn't know how many kinds of cheese they had. Cream cheese for 25 cents a pound. Swiss cheese for 35 cents a pound. Kipperd Herring, 30 cents. Finnan Haddies, 30 cents.
Your friend,
JACOB.
