POLICE MAKE RAID ON GAMBLING JOINT

SAMUEL MILLER IS ON TRIAL THIS AFTERNOON

Well-Known Knight of Green Cloth Said to Have Been Operating in Pendleton for Several Months—Police Say Nothing Concerning the Case.

Samuel Miller, the well-known knight of the green cloth, is again to appear before the police court on a charge of gambling. He was arrested Saturday evening following a couple of surprises sprung on him in his rooms in the Hendricks building, over the Taylor Hardware store, by Chief of Police Gurdane and the night officers.

Other than that William Roesch, the well-known brewer, was one of the men with whom Miller was playing, little is known of the case to be presented in the court late this afternoon. There are other players who will be summoned as witnesses, but their names have not been given out. Neither the police nor City Attorney Raley will make any statement concerning the case.

Miller formerly operated in Pendleton, having had rooms over the old State hotel. About three years ago he left the city, following an arrest on the charge of gambling and for some time he confined his operations to the city of Baker. Several months ago he and other knights of the green cloth returned to Pendleton and it has been general knowledge that they were gambling. Their games were conducted on the quiet, however, and this is the first arrest that has been made.

OHIO PRINTERS MAY ASK FOR HIGHER PAY

Cincinnati, Ohio, Mar. 7.—Representatives of the allied printing trades art gathered here today for a conference. Many persons interested are inclined to believe it portends a demand by printers for advanced wages. Trade agreements with employers soon expires and it is believed a general walk-out in printing shops will follow a refusal of employers to meet demands.

GREAT PHONE COMPANIES MAY HAVE RATE WAR

Cleveland, Ohio, Mar. 7.—Following the decision of the directors of the United States long distance telephone company to cut rates, it is believed today the company is preparing to wage a rate war against the American Telephone and Telegraph company. The Morgan interests recently gained control of the American. Both companies are backed by millions. The rate war is likely to affect every part of the country.

RAILROAD BILL IS PRUNED BY HOUSE COMMITTEE

Washington, D. C., Mar. 7.—The house committee on interstate commerce today eliminated from the administration railroad bill, the provision relative to the control of competing lines.

One of the provisions stricken out would have allowed a railroad owning over fifty per cent of the stock of a competing line to purchase all the remaining stock of that line. It would also have legalized all past purchases of stock by railroads.

WOLGAST SAYS HE CAN WHIP NELSON AGAIN

Kansas City, Mar. 7.—Ad Wolgast while on his way to Chicago said today he would fight Nelson again. "I beat him before and can do it easier next time, he said, "but I am not going to give him another chance to name the terms. I intend to make him 'jump through' this time."

RAILROADS WIN VICTORY OVER COMMERCE COMMISSION

Washington, D. C., Mar. 7.—The supreme court today upheld the contention of the Oregon Short Line, Union Pacific, and Northern Pacific railroads that the interstate commerce commission had no right to force them to make joint through passenger rates to the west.

CONGREGATIONAL PREACHER BECOMES BASEBALL UMPIRE

Peoria, Ill., Mar. 7.—Rev. George Scheder, pastor of the first Congregational church of Elmwood today resigned to accept a salary position as umpire in the Illinois-Missouri baseball league for this season.

WANTED—TWO GIANTS.

Man and Woman Needed as Gog and Magog for Festival.

London.—The master of the Pageant of London, the central feature of the Festival of the Empire to be held at the Crystal Palace this summer, is in need of two giants, male and female.

The scene in which the giants are to appear is "The Triumph of Conquest," which will depict the entry into London of Henry V after his defeat of the French in 1415. At the Bridge Gate they found a gigantic figure with an ax in his right hand as the champion of the city. In his left hand he held the keys as porter of the city. Beside him was another gigantic figure representing his wife.

The parts which the giants are to play are those of Gog and Magog.

HORSE MEAT AS A DIET.

Sale of Substitute for Beef Recognized Trade in Switzerland.

Geneva.—Owing to the continuous rise in price of meat in recent years the demand for horseflesh has increased in proportion among the working and poorer classes. Ten years ago in Swiss towns there were one or two horseflesh butcher shops, but now the sale of horseflesh is a recognized business.

It is not bought solely to feed dogs and cats, but also poor families. In Geneva, Zurich, Basel and St. Gall there are at present between six and a dozen horseflesh butchers, who are doing a good business, meat having risen in price 40 per cent during the last twelve years.

WANTS ENSIGN'S TITLE FOR ANNAPOLIS GRADUATES

New York.—Frank B. Anderson of the Bank of California, is in this city on his way to San Francisco after a month's absence in the east.

As an appointee of the president on the board of visitors to the naval academy at Annapolis he is taking considerable interest in naval affairs and during his trip he visited Washington for the purpose of helping along the bill to confer the rank of ensign upon Annapolis men immediately upon their graduation instead of as under the present system, compelling them to serve two years as midshipmen. He expressed the opinion that the measure stands an excellent chance of becoming a law.

The present system makes the possibilities of a recent graduate of Annapolis an anomalous one," states Anderson. "He is neither an officer nor a private."

Banker Anderson also has been inquiring into the central bank problem, which the Bankers' associations of California, Oregon and Washington have favored. He does not think, however, that there is any show for legislation along these lines during the present session of congress.

"The people must be educated up to it before they can grasp the full idea of a central bank system, with its manifold usefulness in the way of dealing with currency, regulating credit, etc.," he stated. "In my judgment the damage to private banks through the loss of business would be infinitesimal compared with the immense advantages to be derived from such a system."

ZANGWILL'S FIRST DAY IN JEWS' FREE SCHOOL

London.—Israel Zangwill, who was a pupil and subsequently a teacher at the Jews' free school, Bell Lane, Spitalfields, the largest elementary school in the kingdom, gives an account of his first day there in the Jews' Free School Magazine, which has just been issued.

"My first day at the Free School," says Mr. Zangwill, "is mingled inextricably with the flavor of monkey nuts. I remember also an irregular queue of frightened, frowsy, foreign parents, leading awe-struck little boys before a burly Recording Angel in broadcloth, whom I afterwards learned to respect as the Bismarck of Bell Lane. The munching of the marvelous monkey nuts, which I owed to the magnanimity of the boy in front of me, served to soften the tedium and terror of waiting. But at last my turn drew nigh. There was nobody now between me and the Recording Angel, and my heart beat violently. 'What is your name?' 'Israel Zangwill,' I murmured. 'Ah, Israel Samuel.' (And Samuel it was till some months later, when I had summoned up the courage to protest.)

I had an unusual knowledge of English, having been something of an infant prodigy of the Bristol 'School for the Sons of Tradesmen.'

PROFITS ON CORN 5c ON HUNDRED POUNDS

New York.—The management of the Corn Producing Refining company has announced that the distribution under the company's profit-sharing plan for the first year ending February 28, 1910, will be at the rate of five cents a hundred pounds. The distribution for the year 1909, when the profit-sharing plan was adopted, was at the rate of ten cents a hundred pounds, and for the two succeeding years it was fifteen cents a hundred pounds.

It has been reported that the company will abandon the plan after this year, but according to the management, no decision has yet been reached in the matter. For the three years up to February 27, 1910, that the profit-sharing plan has been in operation, the Corn Products Refining company and its subsidiaries have reserved $1,750,000 to be distributed among their customers who have bought from them exclusively. The disbursement on account of the 1909 business, it is said, will amount to about $300,000.

CAUGHT IN TRAP HE SET.

Bachelors' Club President Must Pay $1000 Fine for Failing in Love.

Philadelphia, Pa.—There may be young men who scoff at the idea that it is expensive to fall in love, but Harry Marrits, a wealthy merchant of 1300 S. Fifth street, this city, isn't one of them. It will cost him $1000 over and above the expenses usually incidental to courtship, because he succumbed to the charms of a beautiful New York girl, Miss Estelle Crane.

Mr. Marrits, until he made an announcement to the members that gave them the shock of their club life, was president of the Bismarck Bachelors club. The Bismarckers organized to exact cellophane. Mr. Marrits was the most earnest of them all in serving warning on Cupid that "he needn't come around."

He suggested that a penalty of $1000 be attached to the defection of any member of the club ranks. The suggestion was adopted.

SEASICKNESS IS BAFFLED.

Breslau Woman Doctor Invents an Effective Remedy.

Kiel.—Torpedo boat "G169" arrived here after several days' buffeting in the North sea and after several bad storms, reporting that everybody on board, among others, several officers from Berlin, who had never ventured out to sea before, suffered not in the least from seasickness, owing to a certain remedy with which they had provided themselves.

The inventor is a young woman from Breslau, a doctor of medicine.

She says her remedy is made up from Acorus calamus, Juglans regia and Saturja montana.

$2,000,000 SAVED IN NEW YORK PAYROLL

New York.—With two months of Mayor Gaynor's administration completed political stocktaking at Tammany Hall is not a pleasant business for the followers of that historic organization. There has been a saving at the rate of $2,000,000 a year effected by Mayor Gaynor since January 1 in the discharge of men and the reorganization of departments. The mayor apparently finds that this sort of exercise agrees with him, for he ended his second month by ordering a reorganization of the force employed on the municipal ferries and directing that an entirely new system be arranged for paying lawyers retained in land condemnation proceedings. These two moves, it is estimated, mean the cutting off of $750,000 of Tammany patronage.

Mayor Gaynor has three years and 10 months more to serve. Already what has been regarded as the most perfect political machine in the country is face to face with a situation that it has not known before. No Tammany man cares to predict what the conditions of the organization will be at the expiration of the Gaynor administration. Payroll savings made by the mayor during the last two months include the following:

Highway department, $100,000; fire department, $100,000; Bronx Park department, $110,000; bureau reorganization in Bronx, $130,000; water department, $185,000; aqueduct board, $200,000; dismissals by borough officials, $300,000; land condemnation department, $400,000; municipal ferry reorganization, $30,000; dismissals in various small offices, $750,000; total, $2,000,000.
