

ITCHING OF SCALP INTOLERABLE

Nearly Wild with Painful, Burning Eruption—Half Her Hair Fell Out and Combing It Was Torture—Feared She Would Be Bald.

IN DESPAIR UNTIL CURED BY CUTICURA

"Just about two years ago, some form of humor appeared on my scalp. The beginning was a slight itching but it grew steadily worse until, when I combed my hair, the scalp became raw and the ends of the comb-teeth would be wet with blood. Most of the time there was an intolerable itching, in a painful, burning way, very much as a bad, raw burn, if deep, with and smart when first beginning to heal. Combing my hair was positive torture. My hair was long and tangled terribly because of the blood and scabs. This continued growing worse and over the hair fell out. I was in despair, really afraid of becoming totally bald.

"Sometimes the pain was so great that, when partially awake, I would scratch the worst places so that my finger-tips would be bloody. I could not sleep well and, after being asleep a short time, that awful stinging pain would commence and then I would wake up nearly wild with the torture. A neighbor said it must be salt rheum. Having used Cuticura Soap merely as a toilet soap before, I now decided to order a set of the Cuticura Remedies—Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills. I used them according to directions for perhaps six weeks, then left off, as the disease seemed to be eradicated. But toward spring, eighteen months ago, there was a slight return of the scalp humor. I commenced the Cuticura treatment at once, so had very little trouble. On my scalp I used about one half a cake of Cuticura Soap and half a box of Cuticura Ointment in all. The first time I took six or seven bottles of Cuticura Pills and the last time three bottles—neither an expensive or tedious treatment. Since then I have had no scalp trouble of any kind. Standing up, with my hair unbound, it comes to my knees and had it not been for Cuticura I should doubtless be wholly bald.

"This is a voluntary, unsolicited testimonial and I take pleasure in writing it, hoping my experience may help someone else. Miss Lillian Brown, R. F. D. 1, Liberty, Me., Oct. 29, 1909."

CHRISTIAN CHURCH BE DEDICATED SOON

EDIFICE ALMOST COMPLETED AT THE COST OF $30,000

Will Probably Be Dedicated Last Week in This Month—Is Handsome Structure—Famous Evangelist to Be Present.

The handsome new stone edifice being erected by the local congregation of the Christian church for a house of worship is rapidly nearing completion and will be dedicated, probably the last week in this month, though the exact date has not yet been determined upon. The building is constructed of the Baker City granite, the same material as the Methodist church, and when completed will have cost approximately $30,000. The church will have no balcony, but when the two auditoriums are thrown into one, it will seat about 800 people. There are 12 or 15 Sunday school rooms and the entire basement will be used for Sunday school and social purposes. A large banquet hall and kitchen will be located in the basement also.

The first work on the edifice was started about one year ago. When completed it will be dedicated by Evangelist Scoville, one of the most famous evangelists in the country. His entire company of helpers will also be here with him and the series of meetings which are to follow will probably be the largest ever conducted in Pendleton. In speaking of Scoville, Billy Sunday, the noted evangelist, said he regarded him as the greatest evangelist of any single denomination in the country. It will be remembered that Sunday's efforts like those of some of the other leading evangelists are confined almost exclusively to union meetings.

The following concerning Scoville and his work in Anderson, Indiana, is taken from the Christian Standard: Charles Reign Scoville is in his second meeting with the Central Church at Anderson, Ind., which bids fair to be greater than his first meeting, held in 1906. It was the frater's privilege to spend the afternoon and evening of December 4 with the brethren at Anderson, and while there to incidentally gather from the minister, T. W. Grafton, some facts and figures concerning the recent marvelous growth and splendid work of the Central Church.

In Bro. Scoville's first meeting 1260 were added. At the close of the services the evening of the 4th, 275 had been added in this meeting.

Bro. Grafton began work in the Central Church in Anderson six years ago. During that time about two thousand have been added, five hundred of these coming in at regular services, and at special evangelistic meetings conducted by Bro. Grafton and home forces. The actual resident membership of the church at present is about two thousand, the loss by death and removal during the last six years having been about seven hundred. It should be remembered that Anderson is largely a manufacturing city, and a large part of the population is transient.

There is no exaggeration in saying that the Central Church in Anderson is great. But the question is, Would she be so great had it not been for the evangelistic meetings held there within the last six years? Every fair-minded person must answer, "Certainly not."

It is interesting to note that Grafton, as resident minister, and Scoville, as evangelist, both great in their sphere, are in type and temperament about as widely different as two conspicuous figures could be. Grafton is reserved, calm and deliberate in manner, speech and bearing. Scoville is, as it were, a red-hot flame, with a manifest enthusiasm before which no indifference can stand. Yet these two men constitute a combined force which God had used gloriously in building up and maintaining the great work at Anderson.

Hark! Hark! The Lark!

"Hark! hark! the lark at heaven's gate sings, And Phoebus 'gins arise His steeds to water at those springs On chaliced flowers that lies;"

From the inspiration of this little poem from Shakespeare, Shubert wrote his remarkable composition "Hark! Hark! the Lark."

In July, 1826, on returning from a Sunday stroll with some friends, he saw a friend sitting at a table in a beer-garden with a volume of Shakespeare before him. Shubert, seeing him turn to this little poem said: "Oh if I only had some music paper!"

Some one drew a few scores on the back of the bill of fare and there amid the hubbub of the garden he wrote that beautiful song so beautifully fitting the words, so gloriously happy and satisfying.

Mr. Surling who will be here with the Girls Glee Club from Whitman, had made a special study of this composition and will play it for Pendleton people Friday night, March 11th, at the Presbyterian church.
