HILL LINES WILL MEET O. R. & N. CUT

N. P. AND NORTH BANK TO LOWER FREIGHT RATES

Compulsory 14 Per Cent Reduction to Eastern Oregon Points by O. R. & N. Causes Washington Lines to Cut Rates—Pendleton and Athena Will Profit.

The 14 per cent reduction in freight rates to points in eastern Oregon from Portland to be made effective after March 20 on the O. R. & N. is to be met by the Northern Pacific and North Bank roads according to an announcement from Portland. The two points in this county which will profit by this arrangement are Pendleton and Athena.

The following concerning the reduction is taken from a Portland paper:

Rates equivalent to those ordered on the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Co. in accordance with the railroad commission order affecting distributive rates from Portland, will be put in effect by the Spokane, Portland & Seattle and the Northern Pacific to competitive points in Oregon and Washington.

The new O. R. & N. rates to Pendleton and Athena in Oregon will be met by the North Bank and Northern Pacific, and the North Bank will reduce the rates to Roosevelt, Wash., to correspond with those put in to Arlington, Or., by the O. R. & N. The North Bank distributive rate to Plymouth will be based on the O. R. & N. rates to Umatilla.

Aside from the points mentioned, the new tariffs on the North Bank and Northern Pacific will apply only to several small intermediate stations. Neither road is making a general reduction to points in Washington. The reductions mentioned are equivalent to about 14 per cent off the present rates to the same points.

The O. R. & N. tariff goes into effect on March 20, but it is not known yet whether the rates on the competing lines can be put in by that time or not. In order to do so it will be necessary for the Interstate Commerce Commission to waive the 30 days' notice required.

MRS. WILLIE JAMES IS COMING TO VISIT US

Favorite Hostess of the King Plans a Month's Stay in New York in April.

London.—It can no longer be said that English society women are unappreciative of New York. During recent years many prominent English women have gone back full of wonder and admiration at "the go of the relentless city" as E. P. Benson calls it.

Mrs. Willie James, a great friend of the king, has announced her intention of visiting New York with her husband and pretty daughter, Milliecent, in the middle of next April. Miss "Willie" strongly objects to her diminutive title and not long ago discreetly conveyed that fact to the society paragraphers who have since bowed their necks and called her Mrs. William James, in full. Her husband and daughter have been guests of General and Lady Maxwell in Egypt. Lady Maxw-II is a daughter of Mrs. Donying, one of the first of American heiresses to reside permanently in England. Her sister, Virginia, is the Viscountess Derhurst.

THE LETELLIERERS ARE AGAIN IN THE GOSSIP SPOTLIGHT

Paris.—Since her separation from her husband, the beautiful Mrs. Henry Letellier has been rarely seen in Parisian society. Her last public appearance was as a guest of Anthony Drexel of Philadelphia on one of his famous yachting parties on the Riviera.

For the last few weeks she has been entertaining her sister, the Countess Di San Martino of Rome at her country place near Paris. A few days ago she left for Rome with her sister and the Count Di San Martino.

Before leaving she told her friends that her legal separation would soon be made an absolute divorce. This set about the usual rumors as to her remarriage, a well known American being mentioned.

Mme. Letellier is one of the greatest beauties in Europe. Both she and her sister were dowryless girls, but their faces were more than their fortune. Henry Letellier, her almost divorced husband, is the proprietor of the leading Paris newspaper, Le Journal, and one of the wealthiest men of the younger generation in France. His matrimonial ambitions are also American. It is no secret that as soon as he is free he will marry an American girl, that wonderful little Pittsburg beauty, Peggy Gillespie. She has been living in a tent at Hyeres and the sunlight and roses have brought back her health. She is expected to return soon to Paris.

M. Letellier spent most of the winter racing in his big motor car between Paris and Hyeres.

An Awful Eruption of a volcano excites brief interest and your interest in skin eruptions will be as short if you use Bucklen's Arnica Salve, their quickest cure. Even the worst boils, ulcers, or fever sores are soon healed by it. Best for burns, cuts, bruises, sore lips, chapped hands, chilblains and piles. It gives instant relief. 25c at Tallman & Co.

Henry Walton in "Mon Yet Toy," a Chinese Tragedy, at Grand Theater.

Mr. Harry Walton, whose picture is shown above, was at one time a secret service officer in San Francisco and speaks the Chinese language fluently. He is the only man who ever succeeded in disguising as a Chinaman and gaining admittance to a Chinese gambling hell. In this act at the Grand he is portraying the strongest scene of the great Chinese tragedy, "Mon Yet Toy," which occupied seven months in its production. In this scene he speaks in Cantonese Chinese.

SCOTT AND STORIE WILL BE LOSS TO GRIDIRON

Regarding the departure of Glen Scott and Elmer Storie from the University of Oregon a dispatch from that institution says:

Two places in Oregon line will have to be filled anew next fall, for Glenn Scott and Elmer Storie, the giant tackle and guard of last fall's team, have left college permanently to take up ranching a few miles out from Pendleton.

Each of these men stand over six feet three and each weighs over 200 pounds. Each was a tower of strength in Oregon's heavy line last season and will no doubt be badly missed next fall, when the team is formed.

Scott and Storie both hail from Pendleton. Last week they had a good business proposition put to them to run a large Umatilla wheat ranch. As both of them were juniors in college, they concluded the proposition was too good to pass up and decided to exchange the moleskins for overalls. They will run the ranch together and expect to remain at it permanently. Both men were popular and excellent students, acquitting themselves splendidly in the recent midyear examinations. Storie was first tenor on the Glee club. Scott was first assistant editor on this year's "Oregon," the class publication. They were also members of the Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Saved a Soldier's Life.

Facing death from shot and shell in the civil war was more agreeable to J. A. Stone of Kemp, Tex., than facing it from what doctors said was consumption. "I contracted a stubborn cold" he writes "that developed a cough, that stuck to me in spite of all remedies for years. My weight ran down to 130 pounds. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me. I now weigh 178 pounds." For coughs, colds, la grippe, asthma, hemorrhage, hoarseness, croup, whooping cough and lung trouble, it is supreme. 50c, $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Tallman & Co.
