will observe the twelve points outlined above much good can be accomplished. The last suggestion, "everybody boost," is especially timely. There has been too much knocking and breaking in Pendleton. It is all senseless and uncalled for. It does no good but seriously injures the town. Pendleton must squelch that whine and make the welkin ring with a song of optimism and progress.

NOT SINCERE.

People and newspapers opposing the Roosevelt-Pinchot conservation policy are loud in declaring for state conservation in preference to action by the national government. Now there are many things to be said in favor of state conservation. But most of those who are howling for it are doing so because they know it cannot be had. They know that were it left entirely to the states to adopt conservation laws little could be accomplished. To this rule Oregon is an exception because in this state the people have a close hold on legislation. But in the states where boss rule still prevails it would be easy for the big interests to block conservation legislation. Anti-conservationists know this and so they argue for state conservation. Their plea is not made in good faith.

LISTEN TO THEM.

Next week the big demonstration train will be in eastern Oregon and farmers will have an opportunity to secure some information from men who have studied agriculture from both a scientific and a practical standpoint. They suggest closer farming in eastern Oregon and it is a timely suggestion. At this time there is little intensive farming in eastern Oregon outside of the irrigated districts. This is true despite the fact that much of our land is well suited to a higher state of agriculture than that followed at present. On much of the land now devoted solely to wheatraising more profitable crops may be raised provided judicious selections are made and proper tillage methods followed. Farmers should be glad to listen to the advice of the men from the agricultural college. Go hear them and then give their suggestions a good, honest trial. It is from experimentation that progress results.

THE QUARANTINE RAISED.

It was through the initiative of eastern Oregon sheepmen that the state sheep commission was appointed and the campaign against scab undertaken. As a result of the work done by the state in co-operation with the bureau of animal industry the trouble has been eliminated to such an extent that the federal quarantine is completely raised as far as eastern Oregon is concerned. This means much to the sheepmen for they may now sell their stock anywhere they desire and the purchaser has the assurance that the sheep will be free from disease. Doubtless the benefits resulting from the eradication of scab will far more than compensate for the cost of the campaign.

Members of the Commercial association are out in earnest to bring about the advancement of this city and the county. The managers are starting out upon a definite program and they propose to do some consistent, effective work for Pendleton. Give the association your cordial support.

Spring Medicine

There is no other season when medicine is so much needed as in the spring. The blood is impure and impoverished—a condition indicated by pimples, boils and other eruptions on the face and body, by deficient vitality, loss of appetite, lack of strength. The best spring medicine, according to the experience and testimony of thousands annually, is Hood's Sarsaparilla. It purifies and enriches the blood, cures eruptions, builds up the system. Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolate tablets known as Sarsatabs.

FINE WORK.

Last year the Pendleton high school debating team won second place in the race for the state debating championship. This year the high school orators are also doing creditable work. Thus far they have won three debates and the next contest will be for the championship of eastern Oregon. The work that is being done is creditable to the high school student body, to the faculty of that institution and to Pendleton. Now go get the championship.

Another beautiful church will be dedicated here tomorrow and the new Christian church will be a valuable addition to the architecture of the city. Pendleton might well be called a "city of churches."

So great has grown the insurrection against Cannon and Cannonism that the minority has almost become the majority. The reign of the czar is almost over.

IF CHRIST CAME.

If Christ came questioning His world today, (If Christ came questioning.) "What hast thou done to glorify thy God Since last my feet this lower earth plane trod." How could I answer Him; and in what way One evidence of my allegiance bring? If Christ came questioning.

If Christ came questioning, to me alone, (If Christ came questioning.) I could not point to any church or shrine And say, "I helped build up this house of thine; Behold the altar and the corner stone;" I could not show one proof of such a thing.

If Christ came questioning, on His demand, (If Christ came questioning.) No pagan soul converted to His creed Could I produce; or say that word or deed Of mine, had spread the faith in any land; Or sent it forth to fly on stronger wing; If Christ came questioning.

If Christ came questioning the soul of me, (If Christ came questioning.) I could but answer, "Lord, my little part Has been to beat the metal of my heart Into the shape I thought most fit for Thee; And at Thy feet to cast the offering Shouldst Thou come questioning."

"From out the earth fed furnace of desire (Ere Thou cam'st questioning.) This formless and unfinished gift I brought And on life's anvil, flung it down, white hot; A glowing thing of selfishness and fire; With blow on blow, I made the anvil ring; (Ere Thou cam'st questioning.)

"The hammer, Self Control, beat hard on it; (Ere Thou cam'st questioning.) And with each blow, rose fiery sparks of pain; I bear their scars on body, soul and brain. Long long I toiled; and yet, dear Lord, unfit, And all unworthy, is the heart I bring. To meet Thy questioning." —Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

A BIBLE NAME.

The late Bishop Gallier was once asked to baptize a negro baby boy. "Name the child," he said, addressing Mrs. Jackson, the mother of the black mite. "Hallud." "That's a strange name, Mrs. Jackson," remarked the bishop, hesitatingly. "Scripture name," rejoined the happy mother, with a confident grin. "I never saw it in the Bible." "Why, bishop, how kin yuh stan' up da' kiddin' a ole ignorant niggah laik I is? Yuh says dat name when-eh yuh says de Lawd's prayer—" "Hallud be Thy name!" —From Success Magazine.

ANOTHER GOOD BUY

1640 acres all fenced, good new posts, 800 acres in grain, 250 acres of alfalfa land mostly set, will cut 750 tons of alfalfa this year, a stream of water runs through which furnishes plenty of water for irrigating, good concrete dams and ditches, good buildings, lots of fruit trees and berries. This is an ideal place for feeding stock for the market. A railroad runs right through the middle of it. You can buy this fine ranch for $46,000. E. T. WADE, Office in American Nat. Bank Bld. A FEARLESS, HONEST PREACHER GIVES HIS OPINION OF PE-RU-NA.

An Up-to-Date Clergyman Describes an Up-to-Date Household Remedy that Has Had the Test of Time and is Known the World Over.

Some preachers are afraid to give an outspoken opinion on any remedy, however highly they may esteem it. Others are not afraid.

One of those who is not afraid is quoted below. Read what he says. He means every word of it. If you doubt it write him a letter, enclosing a stamp. He will tell you what he thinks—

Rev. J. T. Peeler

Catarrh of Stomach.

REV. J. T. PEELER, Hendersontonville, S. C., writes: "I desire to make known for the benefit of suffering humanity my experience with Peruna. I was afflicted with catarrh of the stomach, and though I tried many remedies and applied to several doctors, it was all in vain. Had it not been for Peruna I believe I would have been in my grave to-day. I have every reason to believe that Peruna is the greatest remedy for catarrh known to the world. Therefore I have been, and shall continue to recommend it to those who are unwell."

REV. H. W. TATE, 929 Lincoln Ave., Walnut Hills, Cincinnati, Ohio, writes: "I have been troubled with a peculiar spasmodic affection of the throat, which interfered with my work as a preacher. The great Peruna and his throat is now clear."

REV. J. G. DUKES, Pastor of the Unitarian Church at Pinetown, N. C., writes:

"My wife has been in a very bad state of health for several years, and nothing seemed to do her any good until she began to use Peruna one month ago. Since then the color has returned to her face, and she is gaining in flesh every day, and I believe she is a well woman to-day."

"My little boy, ten years old, was pale and had but little life. He began to use Peruna the day his mother began. Today his face is rosy, and he is out in the yard running and jumping with the rest of the children."
