Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Official Weather Report.

Maximum temperature, 66.
Minimum temperature, 41.
Rainfall for 24 hours, ending 1 p. m. today, .09 inches.

Washington School Won.

At the Hawthorne school another spelling contest was held yesterday afternoon. This time it was between the seventh grade of the Washington school and the seventh grade of the Hawthorne school. The victory again went to the Washington school, the score being nine to eight.

Rooms Wanted for Teachers.

John Halley and Mark Moorhouse who are soliciting rooms for the use of teachers who are to be here next week for the largest convention of the kind ever held in the state, request that all those having rooms to rent will notify one of them by 'phone as soon as possible.

Watch Snatcher Captured.

Frank Espargo, a subject of King Alfonso of Spain, has been arrested by Chief of Police Gurdane on the charge of snatching a watch from Paul Hennelgarn in the latter's near beer saloon on Main street yesterday. He was taken to the county jail by the police chief this morning and will be given a hearing before Justice of the Peace Joe H. Parkes.

Mrs. Pearl Shelly Dies.

Word has been received in this city of the death in Portland of Mrs. Pearl Shelly, formerly a well-known music teacher of this city. Death occurred Thursday morning. The deceased is a cousin of Mrs. J. W. Yandell of this city and in addition to her husband is survived by a daughter about two years of age. The cause of death is not known.

Appeal Case on Today.

County Superintendent Welles is listening this afternoon to the school election case which was appealed from District No. 67, in the northeastern part of the county. Both sides are represented by attorneys and a list of witnesses. All the afternoon will probably be consumed in the hearing and then the case will probably be taken under advisement.

Lyons Is In Charge.

W. G. Lyons, chief clerk at the O. R. & N. depot, is now serving as temporary agent while awaiting the appointment of a man to fill that position permanently. C. J. Jackson, former agent and who resigned to accept a position as traveling freight agent with the Southern Pacific at Sacramento, has left for the scene of his new duties.

Many Farmers Join Union.

The largest class of farmers ever taken into any local union in Oregon at one time, is being initiated into the Pendleton Union this afternoon. There is such a large number to be initiated that practically the entire afternoon will be consumed in the work. Before the task of installing the class was started a number of questions of interest to the farmers were discussed.

William Osborn Injured.

William Osborn, who has been employed at night in the local office of the American Express company, met with a painful accident this morning. He was loading express matter onto train No. 5, when he fell from the truck with a 100-pound box of butter on top of him. The box of butter struck him on the back of the neck, rendering him unconscious for an hour, but he is now able to be on the street though his neck is sore and he is suffering with a sprained elbow.

Tag Day is Observed.

This is national Tag Day for the W. C. T. U. and the members of that organization throughout the country have been observing it by selling white ribbon tags to increase their fund for carrying out the work of the organization. Pendleton was not missed and all susceptible citizens are wearing a picture of a little boy suspended by a bit of white ribbon. On the tag is the motto, "The saloon versus the home." Several dollars were realized from the sale of these tags in Pendleton alone and the total income throughout the United States will amount to many thousands.

Assessor Answers Questions.

All the deputy assessors of the county and a large number of the taxpayers from different sections are meeting in the circuit court room at the court house today with County Assessor Strain. The purpose of the meeting was to enable the assessors to get an accurate idea of the duties expected of them and to enable those persons and sections with grievances to make known their troubles. The assessor is making an effort to show that all sections of the county are being treated alike and that the assessment in every part and for all classes and individuals is entirely equitable. Harmony has characterized the meeting in every particular so far.

Hood River Gets Forger.

Henry S. Davis, the forger who was arrested at Tacoma yesterday on information from the office of Sheriff Taylor, will be taken to Hood River for trial before he is brought to Pendleton, despite the fact that the arrest was made at the instance of the Pendleton officers. It seems that both Pendleton and Hood River were notified of the arrest of the man, at the same time and as he was wanted in both places, Sheriff Morris of Hood River county took the first train out of his town and now has the forger in his custody. While in Pendleton last fall Davis secured $200 from Ben Hill of the Pendleton Lumber company and also duped the Baker & Folsome furniture store. He is also said to have been a worthless paper said to have been a national bank, taking at the American bank, getting good money in exchange.

1. Prevent the diving tackle and the diving interference or body checking.
2. Abolish the kick-off.
3. Abolish the five-yard restriction on the quarterback run.

Coughs That Hang On.
Coughs that start in the fall and hang on until spring are sure trouble breeders unless checked and cured. Bronchitis, pneumonia and consumption are the direct result. Foley's Honey and Tar cures the cough, stops the hard breathing and heals and soothes the inflamed air passages. Refuse substitutes. Koeppen Bros.

Now the man who has paid his taxes is glad he did it—since there is no escape from taxpaying.
