The music for the Inland Empire Teachers' association is of a high order. Whitman College will send Mr. Odessa Sterling, teacher of piano, Mr. Elias Blum, teacher of voice, Miss Neva Green, piano student, Miss Florence Bohannon and Miss Florence Wills, vocal students. Mr. Sterling, Mr. Blum and Miss Bohannon have recently been heard in Pendleton and their appearance will be heartily welcomed next Thursday evening and Friday. Miss Greene and Miss Wills are also reputed to be fine. Mr. J. E. Keefe, Jr., of Weston, who appeared in the Sunny South Minstrels here and was so popular, is on the program Thursday morning. Pendleton musicians who contribute to the program are Mrs. J. R. Dickson, Mrs. J. S. Landers, Miss Edna Gates, Miss Edna Zimmerman, vocalists; Miss Faye Bartholomew, Miss Harriet Young, Mrs. W. A. Slusher, Miss Lora Perry, pianists; and Mr. Frank D. Carruth, cellist. The Pendleton orchestra under the direction of Mr. Carruth will play at the reception on Tuesday evening.

Miss Lotta Livermore was tendered a surprise party by a company of her friends Tuesday evening, the occasion being the 23rd anniversary of her birth. The affair therefore developed into a "Skiddoo" party and the great number of "23" stunts which were arranged served to keep all present in a continuous roar of laughter. The refreshments ranged from cookies made with the figure "23" to a beautiful frosted birthday cake with the scheduled 23 candles, but which upon being cut by Miss Livermore, turned out to be a shoe box containing a huge lemon. There were others which furnished just as much merriment.

When St. Patrick's day comes during the Lenten season, all good Catholics are permitted to indulge in festivities that are not considered permissible on any other one of the 40 days. Taking advantage of this opportunity the members of St. Mary's congregation met at the rectory Thursday evening for a St. Patrick's station celebration. The Indian boys' band was in from St. Andrew's mission and the evening was one of the most pleasant spent at the rectory in many months. The music by the band was greatly appreciated.

Taking advantage of the Irish holiday which comes like an oasis in the desert of the Lenten season, many devotees of the terpsichorean muse were present at the St. Patrick's ball Thursday night in the Eagle-Woodman hall. There, with the shamrock and the green everywhere proclaiming the occasion and to the strain of popular Irish melodies the gay throng paid its tribute to the great saint of Erin for several hours.

The annual students' banquet of the Pendleton academy was held at that institution last evening. Covers were laid for 75 and in addition to the students and the members of the faculty and their wives, the trustees of the school and their wives were also present. The event was one of the most successful ever given by the students of the school.

Ralph Temple was the guest of honor at a birthday party given for him by his mother at their home on Lewis street, this afternoon. The fourteenth anniversary of the young man's birth was the occasion for the festivities.

Plans are now being worked out for a "Trip around the world" in this city immediately after Lent. The tour will be given for the benefit of the Presbyterian church and prom-

Women as Well as Men are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root. Home of Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers who found Swamp-Root to be just the remedy needed. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

ises to furnish a very novel evening's entertainment. Various homes in the city will represent the different countries and they will be visited consecutively.

One of the most elaborate entertainments of this season was the splendid presentation of Shakespeare's comedy "Twelfth Night," or "As You Will," at the home of Mrs. E. P. Marshall, Thursday of this week, for and by the members of the Thursday Afternoon club.

The cast was exceptionally well chosen and the afternoon was a charming success.

Before the play, Mrs. T. C. Taylor gave an excellent synopsis of "Twelfth Night," which was greatly appreciated. Following is the dramatic personae:

- Orsino, Duke of Ilyria... Mrs. Slusher
- Sebastian, brother to Viola... Mrs. Slusher
- Olivia, a rich countess... Mrs. Crayne
- A Sea Captain... Miss Sheridan
- Sir Toby Belch, uncle to Olivia... Mrs. Henderson
- Sir Andrew Ague-cheek... Mrs. Lane
- Malvolio, steward to Olivia... Mrs. Lane
- ... Mrs. Hampton
- ... Mrs. Landers
- Olivia, in love with the duke... Mrs. Dickson
- ... Mrs. Dickson
- Maria, Olivia's woman... Mrs. Dickson
- ... Mrs. Livengood

It would be impossible to give a detailed account of the realistic acting and the many excellent parts given for the characters were remarkably well sustained throughout and the performance would have done credit to professionals.

The singing by Mrs. Landers was very good and she was especially pleasing in the clown's epilogue, the philosophic song, "The Rain it Raineth Every Day."

The costumes were beautiful and accurate and every detail was in keeping with high class art.

After this very creditable performance light refreshments were served to the many guests bidden who enjoyed Mrs. Marshall's hospitality.

Mrs. R. E. Ringo entertained the members of the Current Literature club on Friday of this week with an afternoon on "Shelley and Keats" and the following splendid program was given in an excellent manner, each number being both pleasing and entertaining.

- Life of Percy Bysshe Shelley... Mrs. Wade
- "Odes to a Skylark" ... Mrs. Smith
- "The Clouds" ... Mrs. Fee
- Songs—(a) "A Spring Song" (b) "Four Leaf Clover" ... Mrs. Dickson
- Life of John Keats ... Mrs. Bonney
- Selections from "Hyperion" ... Mrs. Hampton
- "Ode on a Grecian Urn" ... Mrs. Johns
- Selections from "Eve of St. Agnes" ... Mrs. Winter
- Piano—(a) "Spring Song" (Mendelssohn) (b) "Andante Celebre" ... Mrs. Slusher.

St. Patrick ... Miss Boyd

On account of the nearness of "St. Patrick's Day" Mrs. Ringo had requested each member to respond at roll call with an Irish story and much merriment was provoked by the anecdotes which showed the cleverness and ever-ready wit of the Irish people.

The color scheme, green and white, was in evidence in the dainty souvenir programs and refreshments served.

During the social hour Mrs. E. J. Sommerville presided in the dining room and was assisted by Miss Gwendoline Smith and Miss Evelyn Sommerville, both daintily gowned in green and white.

Mrs. Elliott and Miss Jennie Elliott who have been visiting Mrs. Thomas Thompson, left Thursday for Portland where they will be the guests of friends for a short time.

Mr. Roy T. Bishop has returned from an extended business trip through the east and left Friday evening for Mexico to be absent six weeks or more.

Miss Bertha Alexander left this morning for Hermiston, where she will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Elmer P. Dodd for a week.

Mr. Joseph Knapp of Portland, a fraternity brother of Clarence Bishop and Fred Steiner, was in Pendleton Thursday night.

Horace Walker, county commissioner, and his family have moved to their farm near Stanfield, where they will spend the summer.

The Rt. Rev. Bishop Paddock, D. D., will hold a confirmation service at Echo on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mr. Max Baumelster left this morning for Walls Walla, where he will spend the week end with friends.

The Rt. Rev. Bishop R. L. Paddock, D. D., is the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Quinney at the rectory.

Mrs. C. P. Bishop has returned from a visit of a few weeks with relatives in Portland and Salem.

Miss Vie Hart of Hilgard, was the guest of Mrs. G. W. Phelps on Wednesday.

Mr. John P. Rusk, an attorney of Joseph, Ore., was in Pendleton Friday.

Miss Tucker of Seattle, is in Pendleton, the guest of Miss Viva Warren.

Miss Edith Slusher is in Portland for a few days, the guest of Miss Alice Whlung.

Dear friend:

They put so many things in cans now. I do not see how they can, but they do. And things that come in cans are always fresh because the cans keep the air out. The grocer man told me I could get Peaches for 15c per can, Finnen Haddies, Schrimps, Kippered Herring, Lambs Tongue, Pigs Feet, and everything in the fish line.

Your friend,
JACOB.

P. S. Can you go where you can get things in cans, I can, to
