CITY BEAUTIFUL IDEA IS INVADING SPAIN
Seville.—During his recent visit here King Alfonso discussed with Senor de Tena the plans of the municipality for the widening of the streets of Seville. The king expressed regret that some of the ancient, winding streets of the city were to be replaced by ordinary straight thoroughfares in the common European fashion. The king added that it would undoubtedly be well to widen and straighten many of the streets, but that it would be regrettable to reconstruct all those which give to Seville its quaint and picturesque aspect. The king's remarks are very favorably commented on and there is a general hope that the Calle Sierpe in particular will not be altered.

The king explained to Senor de Tena other plans of his own, among them the construction within the Alcazar of lawn tennis, croquet and other courts.

STANFIELD LEADS WEST END LEAGUE

HAS WON BOTH GAMES OF THE EARLY SEASON

Hermiston and Echo Tied for Second Honors—Stanfield Wins from Umatilla 14 to 1—Echo Meets Umatilla Next Week.

Standing of Teams.

Stanfield	1,000
Echo	500
Hermiston	500
Umatilla	000

By winning both games played so far, the Stanfield team of the West End league, has taken its place at the head of the procession in the race for the pennant. Echo and Hermiston are tied for second place with one game each while Umatilla has not yet been able to get her feet on the first round of the ladder.

The game Sunday at Stanfield between that team and Umatilla went to the leaders by a 14 to 1 score. As the result indicates the contest was decidedly one-sided and never in doubt from the start though the visitors made several valiant attempts to pull themselves together and overcome the long lead.

The Echo-Hermiston game at Hermiston was much more interesting, the final score being 4 to 2 in favor of Echo and the result was in doubt until the last man was out in the last inning. Both sides put up good ball for a contest so early in the season between teams of such purely amateur standing.

The games next Sunday will be played at Echo and Umatilla.

Coughs That Hang On.
Coughs that start in the fall and hang on until spring are sure trouble breeders unless checked and cured. Bronchitis, pneumonia and consumption are the direct result. Foley's Honey and Tar cures the cough, stops the hard breathing and heals and soothes the inflamed air passages. Refuse substitutes. Koepfen Bros.

BLIND BABY, DISCARDED, IS GIVEN A NAME
New York.—A baby boy, about a year old, was received in the Blind Baby's Home, at Bay Ridge after having lived through several most remarkable experiences.

It was the baby boy—unnamed—who last April was flung out of a fast moving automobile, in Lyndhurst, N. J., by a party of men and women, who then fled and never again were seen thereabouts.

The barking of a dog attracted the attention of Christian Dean, a farmer, to a half smashed pasteboard box which was on top of one of his kennels. In this, with the robbers of his cap tied tightly about his neck, was the baby, then only a few days old.

Dean turned the child over to the local charity authorities, and they gave it for the time being, to Mrs. Anna Fischer. The boy thrived for awhile, but several months ago it had a severe spell of illness and became blind.

Overseer Joseph Bratt, who had official charge of the baby, could find no provision in New Jersey for a blind baby, so he communicated with Mrs. Cynthia Westover Alden, of this city, head of the International Sunshine society.

Mrs. Alden received the blind baby and took him to the home. So impressed were several passengers on the cars that they made generous donations toward his care.

For the purposes of registration the baby had to have a name, so Mrs. Alden christened him Arthur Valentine Lyndhurst—Arthur, because he will eventually be sent to the society's "Arthur Home," Valentine because it is believed he was about a year old on St. Valentine's day, and Lyndhurst after the town where he was found.

ARSENIC IN PANTRY; FOUR SERIOUSLY ILL

White Salmon, Wash.—Arsenic for baking powder came near causing the death of an entire family here. Mrs. W. W. Griffith and her sister had gone to Lyle for a few days visit and during her absence, Mrs. Griffith's little daughter decided to bake a cake. She used in it two spoonfuls of what she supposed was baking powder, which was in reality arsenic intended for spraying. The arsenic had been put into an empty baking powder can and placed on the pantry shelf.

After eating some of the cake, Mr. Griffith and three children were taken violently ill, and only by the prompt use of emetics were serious and perhaps fatal results prevented.

Every Mother
is or should be worried when the little ones have a cough or cold. It may lead to croup or pleurisy or pneumonia—then to something more serious. Ballard's Horehound Syrup will cure the trouble at once and prevent any complication. Sold by A. C. Koepfen & Bros.

TRAIN RACES FOR LIFE AND WINS BY HAIR

Geneva.—To prevent a serious collision two locomotives, with several passenger coaches, while descending the Jury Alps from Vallorbe to Lausanne on Sunday, had to put on the highest possible speed, as some heavily laden goods wagons, which had broken away from the train soon after leaving the station of Croy, descended with terrific speed on the passenger train. A race for life ensued, which was watched by a number of alarmed passengers through the windows.

The locomotives won the race, for near the station of Arnex, on a steep grade, the wagons stopped and were again coupled on the train, which in spite of delay, arrived at Lausanne several minutes earlier than the scheduled time.
