Small, a recent arrival from Nebraska, who has been looking over Umatilla county with a view to locating, has purchased a small fruit farm near Milton, and yesterday upon the arrival of his family from the east stopped over in Pendleton and purchased an entire household outfit from the various furniture and hardware dealers for shipment to his new home.

Two Prominent Knights.

In the list of Knights Templar who were here from Baker City to take part in the Easter service, two important omissions were made. They were W. J. Patterson, eminent grand commander of the Baker City lodge, and F. W. Eppinger. They took breakfast Sunday morning at the home of their brother-in-law, R. Alexander, and for that reason their names did not appear with the others on the register at the Hotel Pendleton.

Ankeny Building Residence.

Nesmith Ankeny of the First National bank, has let the contract for the erection of his new residence in North Pendleton and the work of construction has been started. The building will be a story-and-a-half high and will be located on North Main street between the Dr. Cole residence and the Bonney cottage. This is one of the most fashionable residence sections of the city and the new building will be entirely in keeping with those near it and will be modern throughout.

Thief Takes Vacuum Cleaner.

Louis Cargill of West Jackson street is mourning the loss of his new vacuum carpet cleaner which has been his joy and pride for the past month. Never dreaming that anyone would attempt to steal a machine of this size, he left it standing on the back porch last evening and when he arose this morning, it was gone. The tracks made by the wheels of the cart on which the cleaner is mounted were easily traced out through the backyard and onto the sidewalk, but there the trail was lost.

Lived Here Years Ago.

Judge W. W. Brent of Ritzville, Washington, and G. C. Miller of Pasco, spent today in Pendleton while on their way home from a trip to Hot

Lake where the judge had been for the benefit of his health. Judge Brent was a resident of this county in 1878 during the Bannock Indian troubles and with his parents and the other members of the family was compelled to flee from their homes near Willow Springs to Pendleton, a distance of 23 miles, for protection. The Indians burned their house and barn and destroyed everything they had. The judge says the loss he felt the keenest was that of his first pair of trousers.

WENAH SPRINGS MANAGER GAVE DANCE SATURDAY

(Special Correspondence.) Gibbon, Ore., March 28.—As a forerunner under the new management, Mr. P. A. McPhee of Wenaha Hot Springs hotel, a dance was given Saturday, March 26, afternoon and evening.

The hotel stage, equipped in its old time rustiness, came to Gibbon station and picked the natives up from the station and all along the road. Several loads of joy seekers came over the hills from Athena and Weston and to say that there was a merry time is but mildly expressing it. The springs resort is to be run this season in a manner that will give every one a chance and Mr. McPhee is "the king of hosts."

OLD WINDOW GLASS CURES WINDOW ONES

Philadelphia.—A discovery of great value to those whose sight has been impaired by working under artificial light has been made in this city. It was learned that amethyst tinted lenses made from window pane glass taken from houses in Walnut street, would cure blindness caused by working on bright metal and under artificial light. This glass is simply ordinary window panes that have been in use for more than 75 years. In that time it has been turned an amethyst tint by the direct rays of the sun.

Philadelphia eye specialists are optimistic in their contentions for the glass, which is termed by the oculists "the Philadelphia glass." Some of the most widely known physicians in the city are using it in their daily practice and say that it has proved wonderfully effective, and that the eye disorders that it will relieve and cure are many.

GIRL IS FINED $25 FOR FLIRTING ON STREET

Milwaukee.—The second female masquerade to be arrested under the new city ordinance was fined $25 and costs by Judge Neelen.

Patrolman Beckman watched Anna Pritchard cast glowing glances at men as they passed a street corner Sunday night. The young woman who is 21 years of age, made a tearful plea for clemency, but it was unavailing, and she will pay the fine. The ordinance against masquers was aimed at male flirts. It was passed as a result of the Zinda murder some time ago. The first two arrests under the ordinance were women.

MARYLAND ADOPTS NEW STATE FLOWER

Annapolis.—That miniature sunflower, the black eyed Susan, has been elected as the official flower of Maryland by a vote of the school children of the state. The choice was duly recorded in the minutes of the meeting of the state board of education.

Golden rod gave black eyed Susan a close run for first choice, and following came the rose, the training arbutus and the pink carnation. Black eyed Susan was popular with the children because it combines the black and gold of the state colors.

An empty head doesn't necessarily match well with a light heart.

The Pastime.
Announces the following new program. Two big feature films included in this program:

"The Fence on the Bar Z Ranch," 1000 feet. Not a weak point appears in this drama, the acting and the development of the story is worked out so cleverly that the interest grows.

"The Girl Thief." Dramatic, 1000 feet. A tremendously strong romance.

"The Winning of Father," comedy. A story of how an athletic young man succeeded in inducing his sweetheart's father to consent to the match.

"O, So Slek," comedy.

"A Stubborn Cinderella" Tonight.
There is an atmosphere of charm in the musical play, "A Stubborn Cinderella," which comes to the Oregon theatre this evening.

Messrs. Hough, Adams and Howland have written a very long list of successes, but there is something about "A Stubborn Cinderella" which lifts it into a different and higher rank than any of its predecessors. It tells a fairy story of a young college boy and a young English noble woman who fell in love with each other at first sight. The large cast is headed by that clever exponent of hilarity, Homer B. Mason.

Chinks Would Get Back.
Manila, March 29.—Six Chinese of a party deported last October by the government at the request of the Chinese consul have returned here and are now endeavoring to secure readmission by habeas corpus. The deportations attracted wide attention and the power of the government to deport is questioned. It was explained that the deported Chinese were of bad character, had levied blackmail, and had used violence against their countrymen.

Class of '78 Banquet.
New York, Mar. 29.—Sixty-five members of the class of Yale, '78, among them the president of the United States, dined in private last night at the University club in New York. There were no set speeches and reporters were barred. Stanley W. Dexter presided. President Taft arrived in Jersey City at 6:40 o'clock, 30 minutes late. He was accompanied by Howard C. Hollister, a classmate, recently appointed to the United States district court in Ohio.
