Wanted to Be Sure. A coyote hunter who has evidently had some trouble in claiming bounties heretofore because he did not bring enough of the hide, wanted to make sure of his money this time when he appeared at the office of the clerk with the carcasses of seven coyote pups. Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Official Weather Report. Minimum temperature, 38. Maximum temperature, 54. Mean temperature, 46.

Good Game Promised Sunday. A good game of baseball is scheduled for next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 when the Weston and Pendleton teams are to meet on the local diamond. These teams are now the leaders in the Blue Mountain league and it will be the first time they come together.

Breaks Arm Wrestling. While engaged in a wrestling match at the Lincoln school this morning, Gilbert Struve, the eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Struve of North Pendleton, had the misfortune to break his arm. It was the left arm and was broken just below the elbow.

Eight More Converts. That the interest aroused by the recent evangelistic services at the Christian church has not subsided with the resumption of the regular routine, was evinced Wednesday night at the prayer meeting when eight new names were presented for membership.

Fishman Sells Property. Charles Fishman of Walla Walla, who formerly conducted the Pendleton Laundry which is now the Troy Laundry in this city, has just disposed of his house and lot on South Conby street to James Himes, who is in the employ of the Murphy Paint store. The consideration involved was $1300.

High School Debate Postponed. The Pendleton-La Grande high school debate which is to determine the championship of eastern Oregon, has been postponed a week at the request of the Union county school. The contest was scheduled for tonight in La Grande, but according to the new arrangements will occur on Friday, April 8.

Found Office in Good Shape. H. C. Snyder, assistant traveling auditor for the Western Union Telegraph company, called last evening at the local office of the company to check up the office. Though this is the first visit made to the local office since it has been under the management of George Gillette, everything was found in first class condition.

Steel for Bridge Arrives. A telephone message from Major Swartzlander of the Umatilla Indian agency yesterday evening stated that all the steel for the government bridge across the Umatilla river at Cayuse has arrived and that a force of men will start the work of finishing the structure today. It is estimated that the government's part of the structure will be completed in four weeks, and if the farmers and county authorities are equally prompt in constructing the approaches and secondary structure it will be but a short time before the long awaited bridge is ready for traffic.

Knight Goes to Idaho. A. L. Knight who recently disposed of his interests in the Peoples Warehouse, has returned from a tour of southern Idaho. While in that state he made arrangements to go into business with Charles Sampson, at Twin Falls. Sampson was formerly advertising manager for the East Oregonian but for the past few years has been engaged in the music store business in Boise. The new firm, the Sampson-Knight Music company, will open up and conduct an up-to-date music store in Twin Falls. Sampson will remain in Boise while Knight will be in charge of the new store. Mr. Knight expects to remain in Pendleton until Tuesday when he will leave for his new home.

Engine Removed from River. Engine No. 385 which took a plunge into the Umatilla river two weeks ago, as a result of colliding with the derailed engine No. 215, has been removed from the river and is now standing on the tracks in the local yards. While apparently not nearly so badly wrecked as No. 215, this one is far from being in running order. It will probably be taken to the Portland shops on its own wheels, however, whereas 215 has been completely dismantled and taken apart here. The remains will be taken to Portland on flat cars. With the removal of the engine from the river the last bit of wreckage has been cleared away.

More Fines Are Collected. Another $100 in fines is now due the county and will probably be collected within the next few hours. Oscar Rust and Charles Estes entered pleas of guilty to the charge of gambling yesterday afternoon and were fined $50 each. Both men were told to pay the money to the county clerk but so far have neglected to do so. Rust left this morning for Shaniko and will probably be arrested when he alights from the train at that place this afternoon. There have been no

ACADEMY LAYS PLANS FOR COMMENCEMENT

GRADUATION EXERCISES WILL COMMENCE MAY 22

Six Young Ladies Will Complete Course—Class Play Will Be Given.—Program for Commencement Exercises Will Be Devoted to Eastern Oregon.

Arrangements are nearly completed for the annual commencement of the Pendleton academy. The exercises will commence Sunday morning, May 22 with the baccalaureate sermon which will be delivered jointly to the graduating classes of the high school and academy and will continue until Wednesday evening when the six "sweet girl" graduates will be given their diplomas.

May 22 will be baccalaureate Sunday, Monday will occur the annual meeting of the board of trustees, Tuesday will be class day and Wednesday, May 23, will be the day on which the commencement exercises proper will be held.

The six members of the graduating class are the Misses Maud McReynolds of Pilot Rock, Lella Norvell of Helix, Edith Riley of Pendleton, Edna Rogers of Pine, Anna Tullis of Pendleton, and Sadie Young of La Grande.

Several changes from the usual order of events are being planned for this occasion. For one thing, it is proposed by the class to substitute a play for the regular class day exercises and for another the program for the graduation exercises will be an eastern Oregon program. Some phase of this part of the state will be covered in a paper to be prepared by each of the graduates. One will discuss the scenery of eastern Oregon, another the history of Pendleton, another will have Chief Joseph for her subject, while the "Future of Eastern Oregon," "Indian Myths" and Education in Eastern Oregon" will be the subjects to be covered by the others.

With the exception that a man has not yet been secured to preach the baccalaureate sermon, the arrangements for the entire week are practically completed. The sermon will probably be preached in the Methodist church, while the other exercises will probably be held in the Presbyterian church.

PRESTO, CHANGE! RUBBISH VANISHES

CITIZENS JOIN IN BIG CLEANUP MOVEMENT

Rain Does Not Dampen Arbor to Rid City of Unightly Filth and Litter—Smoke Arises from Many Fires.

Pendleton's cleaning up campaign is now on in earnest despite the apparent attempt of Jupiter Pluvius to dampen the ardor of the citizens. The rake is being worked overtime and the smoke from a hundred heaps of burning rubbish is curling up into the heavens in an attempt to assist the rain clouds in entirely blotting out the sky.

Hundreds of citizens, women as well as men; children as well as adults, have been using the garden rake today as it has not been used before in months. Tin cans, old bottles, discarded cooking implements and broken dishes now adorn nearly every street in the city. Some are in boxes, others in sacks, while in the absence of either sacks or boxes, the debris in other places is piled in heaps beside the walks, which will appear Monday morning. Everything that can be burned is being destroyed in that manner, while the indestructible articles will be hauled to the dump pile, west of town.

One of the places where the greatest activity is being manifested is at the Pendleton academy. School was dismissed there this morning and all day the students and members of the faculty have been joining heartily in the crusade against filth and litter. But the efforts of the workers at the academy will not cease with the mere cleaning up of the grounds about the buildings. An effort is being made to further beautify the campus. Horses and plows have been pressed into service, two terraces will be made between the academy and the mill race and the start will be made toward opening up the driveway or boulevard from the academy past the new Christian church to the Main street bridge.

While the public schools were not dismissed, each teacher delivered a lecture to the pupils on the importance of each seeing that the grounds about his or her home are cleaned up and tomorrow the pupils will all be expected to join in the crusade for a cleaner and more healthful city.

So far there have been no reports of anyone refusing to observe the occasion and it is believed that the women and the officers of the city will meet with nothing but co-operation on every hand.

"Do you like my new hat?" asked Mrs. Brooke.
"Yes, indeed," replied Mrs. Lynn.
"I had one just like it when they were in style."—Lippencott's.
