Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Official Weather Report.
Minimum temperature, 42.
Maximum temperature, 56.
Rainfall, .04 inches.

Marriage License.
A marriage license was issued today to George E. Shoemaker and Ellen Cornfield. Both are residents of this county.

One Drunk Forfeits Bail.
One drunk failed to appear in police court this morning at the appointed time and therefore forfeited his bail of $5 which had been deposited to insure his appearing in court.

New Editor for Tribune.
Ernest Ruppe has resigned his position as editor of the Semi-Weekly Tribune and hereafter will devote his time and attention to the Ruppe farm, near Fulton. His place on the paper is to be filled by Carl Engdahl.

Chief Inspector Here.
A. B. Cade, superintendent of inspection for the northwest in the transcontinental freight bureau is now in the city upon duties connected with his position. While here he is the guest of William Dedman, local transcontinental freight inspector.

Local Farmers in Session.
The local union of the farmers educational and co-operative union is holding its regular meeting this afternoon in the Eagle-Woodman building. Only routine business is being transacted. Next Saturday the big county meeting will be held in this city.

Woman's League Meeting.
Members and applicants for membership in the American Woman's League will meet Thursday, April 7, at 7:30 p. m., in the rest room in the city hall for the purpose of organizing a local chapter. Those contemplating joining the league will be afforded an opportunity at this time to sign applications and will not be too late to be in the Founders' Chapter.

Rock Made Hard Ball.
While playing on the ground of the Washington school this morning Everett Daubner, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Daubner, was struck above the right eye with a rock and painfully injured. The injured lad is 14 years of age and at the time was playing ball with some friends and was using a rock for the ball. The injury is above the eye and does not affect the vision.

Separate After 30 Years.
After having been married for 30 years and raised a family, Charles J. Jenkins of Pilot Rock, is bringing suit for divorce against Charlotte Jenkins. The parties to this suit were married a little more than 30 years ago in Kansas and have resided in Oregon for the past 25 years. For 12 years they have lived on their farm near Pilot Rock. Mr. Jenkins accuses his wife of abusing him cruelly, of telling the neighbors that he was crazy and had threatened to kill him and in his complaint he says she has compelled him to sleep in the granary.

Attended Laymen's Meeting.
The Rev. Charles Quinney, who spent the week in Portland attending the Laymen's Missionary movement meeting, has returned and reports the great gathering a grand success. He was at the banquet on Tuesday night which was attended by more than a thousand delegates. Most of the churches have doubled their pledges to the support of foreign missions, says Mr. Quinney, so determined and united are the different denominations to do their part in the great scheme of evangelization of the world in the present generation.

Car Off the Track.
Pendleton people who happened to be at the depot this morning were given a practical illustration of the work done by the big wrecking cranes in cases of emergency. A box car, loaded with coal had been run clear off the end of its spur and under ordinary circumstances it would have been necessary to unload the car before it could have been placed back on the rails. Fortunately one of the wrecking cranes which has been used in "picking up" the Cayuse wreck was in the yards and the work of putting the derailed car back into position was soon accomplished.

VASSAR COLLEGE PREFERS PRESTIGE TO NUMBERS
Poughkeepsie, N. Y.—Vassar college has outgrown its accommodations, and the trustees at their next meeting will be called upon to decide whether facilities should be provided for taking care of a larger number of students or whether, on the other hand, the size of the classes shall be limited. Many of the trustees favor a larger school, but others fear if Vassar becomes larger it will lose its cherished reputation for culture and refinement. Mrs. J. B. Kendrick, the college principal, is quoted as follows: "I feel that with a larger school Vassar is likely to lose some of its prestige. There is a fixed stamp to the Vassar graduate, and we want to keep it."

AUTOMATIC TELEPHONES FOR COTTAGE GROVE
Cottage Grove, Ore.—The automatic system of the Pacific Telephone company will be in service in Cottage Grove on May 1, according to a statement made by Manager Griggs. Outside construction work is well under way, a force of 12 men under the supervision of E. F. Hocking, being employed in that department. Over 60 miles of wires now in use will be removed, and be replaced by cables, the total weight of which is something over eight tons, while new poles will be set on Main street and elsewhere where needed. During the recent elections in England one of the candidates in a seaside constituency decided to visit the fishermen. He came upon one busily engaged mending nets outside a hut on the shore. "Have you a vote?" asked the candidate. "A vote?" queried the man, looking nonplussed. "Have you the franchise, then?" demanded the politician. "The franchise?" exclaimed the fisherman. "Oh, no! I'm as sound as a bell; but (pointing to the hut) I think my mate must have it. He's been as ratty as blazes the last few days, and it's either that or rheumatism."—London Labor Leader.

AT THE PICTURE SHOWS

Orpheum—Today's Program.
1. Mystery of Temple Court. A Vitagraph drama.
2. The Plucky Sutor. Dramatic.
3. The Value of Ande. Scenic.
4. The Egg Trust. An Essanay comedy.
5. Rags, Old Iron. An Essanay comedy.
6. Song—Taffy.
Three thousand feet of new motion pictures at each performance. Show open from 1:30 to 10:30 daily. Program changes three times each week. Admission, 10c.
New pictures at the Orpheum tomorrow as follows:
The Victim of a Flat. A Vitagraph drama, 1000 feet long and full of life from start to finish.
A Maid of the Mountains. A drama of interest with a setting of romantic scenery, well acted and beautifully photographed.
Over the Appenines of Italy. A travelogue of beautiful scenery.
The Interrupted Honeymoon. An Essanay comedy played in the liveliest way by the company's capable actors, certain to amuse any audience.
The Pastime.
For Sunday, something unusual, three big feature films at one show, each 1000 feet long.
"Frankenstein," drama. The most absorbing "silent drama" ever produced. The formation of the monster in a cauldron of blazing chemicals is a photographic marvel.
"The Enchanted Castle," drama. A wonderful romantic comedy drama with many a laugh and many a thrill.
"The Irish Boy," dramatic. Here is a realistic picture that tells a real heart story. A story that holds the attention unbroken from first to last.
"Trip Around the World."
For the sum of 75 cents the people of Pendleton will be given an unusual treat in the "Trip Around the World." You may visit Japan where the emperor and empress will greet you with their attendants all in native costume, with native songs and music, and dainty Japanese girls will serve refreshments in the true Japanese style. In Holland the Dutch girls with their wooden shoes and picturesque attire, will easily convince you that a fairy has in a moment's time transported you from the green hills of Oregon to the picture land of Holland in the mother country.
Then Scotland with her beautiful highland lads and lassies and the piper with his pipes, will lead you to believe that you are really in the land of sweet heather, romance and history.
And Ireland with her dear Colleen, with their interesting wit and wisdom who will conduct you to Blarney Castle, with its gallery of masterpieces, famous the world over.
Italy, the home of music, art and flowers, where beautiful Italian girls will greet you, conduct you to the places of interest and serve refreshing Italian viands.
Egypt, the land where history began, with her mysterious people, the charm which draws so many tourists to her shores, and once going, always long to return to this delightful, happy, mysterious home of Cleopatra.

While Scratching Around

these fine days don't let your enthusiasm or the climate make you forget your hands and fingers and let you spoil in a moment that soft velvety texture which you have spent months in perfecting and preserving, but come in and let us clothe them with a pair of our work is completed there will be left scarcely a single wire in the city, being supplanted by more than four miles of cables, each carrying from 25 to 200 pairs of wires.

WILL SHIP 25,000 CEDAR POLES TO UTAH POINT

Cottage Grove, Ore.—Shipments of cedar poles for the Postal Telegraph & Cable company, a contract for 25,000 of which is being filled by John Wicks, are being made at the rate of about 14 carloads per week. Mr. Wicks has subcontracted for a considerable number of the poles, and the work is being rushed as rapidly as possible.
The weather of the past winter has been unfavorable for operations in the woods. With settled weather it is expected that the daily shipments will be more than doubled. These poles go principally to Utah.

WHEAT RAISER PAYS $50,000 FOR FARM

Medford, Ore.—Sam Stine of Walla Walla has purchased the Welch farm of 480 acres in Antelope valley, adjoining the Von der Hellen tract at Wellen, for $50,000.
The entire tract will be planted to orchard. One hundred and fifty acres are being set out and the balance will be planted next winter to apples and pears with peach fillers.
The land is similar to that of the famous Bradshaw orchard near by, and lies under the Fish Lake ditch. It is excellent fruit land and it is planned to make it one of the finest commercial orchards in the valley.

Go, vs. Come.

A traveler in Arkansas came to a cabin and heard a terrifying series of groans and yells. It sounded as if murder was being committed, says the Saturday Evening Post.
He rushed in and found a gigantic negro woman beating a wizened little old man with a club, while he cried for mercy.
"Here, woman!" shouted the traveler, "what do you mean by beating that man?"
"He's mah husband an' I'll beat him all I likes," she replied, giving the man a few more cracks by way of emphasis.
"No matter if he is your husband, you have no right to murder him."
"Go 'long, white man, and luf me alone. 'Il suah beat him some moah."
"What has he done?"
"What's he done? Why, this triflin' no-count nigger done lef' de door of my chicken house open and all mah chickens done gone out."
"Pshaw, that's nothing. They will come back."
"Come back! No, suh, they'll go back."

Different Uses of a Word.

The teacher asked the members of the class to write a sentence on the board containing the word "weak."
Thomas arose and wrote: "He was a weak old man."
Johnny looked at Thomas' work and considered gravely. Then he strode to the wall and wrote:
"She was a week-old baby."

Reporter Cautioed.

City Editor—One minute, Jones.
Reporter—All right.
City Editor—I don't know whether it is absentmindedness on your part, or an expression of your views on matrimony, but I'd rather, when you have occasion to write about a wedding, not have you say that Miss Smith and Mr. Brown "underwent" a marriage ceremony.

—Papa—(gesticulating wildly): "Here ve vos, Ikey, lost, lost! and you stands dere looking like a silly fool, and don't say a word."
Ikey (loaded with parcels): "How can I say anyting; doq't you see dat both mein hands vos full?"—Bystander.

The Mystery.

Newsboy—Great Mystery: Fifty victims! Paper, Mister?
"Here, boy, I'll take one."
"Say, boy, there's nothing of the kind in this paper."
"That's the mystery, gov'nor, you're the fifty-first victim."—Life.

WANT WHOLESALE TO ADOPT CODE FOR RETAILERS

Spokane, Wash.—When the National Credit Men's association meets in Spokane next July, its delegates, representing various lines of trade in all parts of the United States, will be urged to adopt a code of ethics to govern wholesale houses and jobbers in their dealings with retail stores. W. E. Sanders of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, president of the Inland Empire Retail Grocers' association, and A. W. Bower, president of the Spokane Grocers' association, will present a code, in effect as follows:
That wholesale merchants and jobbers exercise the utmost loyalty to the retail dealers in selling only to those who are entitled to buy at wholesale.
That they do not encourage any person to embark in business in communities already supplied with stores to handle the trade.
That they refuse financial support to any dealer who has not the training or ability to succeed, and who, through ignorance of the cost of doing business, sells goods at a loss, thus causing annoyance to competitors and loss of legitimate profit.
The foregoing has been adopted by the Spokane Wholesale Merchants' association, effective at once, and it is believed it will greatly simplify matters and protect dealers in the Spokane country.
Philip Carbery, secretary of the Inland Empire Retail Grocers' association, says the enforcement of the provisions of the code will eliminate boxcar peddling, a traffic that is harmful to wholesalers and communities in general, as it results in throwing shopworn and cheap goods upon the market at demoralizing prices. He believes it a means of protecting the trade and the honest customer.

WASHINGTON ORCHARDIST CLAIMS WORLD'S RECORD

Spokane, Wash.—Levi G. Monroe, secretary of the Washington State Horticultural association, claims a world's record for O. G. France, a fruit grower in the Wenatchee valley, who received $3,923 for a crop of Winesap apples taken from a single acre in his orchard. E. A. Farris, an orchardist at Orondo, Wash., picked 50 boxes or 2500 pounds of apples from one tree, selling them in the orchard for $62.50, at which rate an acre of his tract would yield $5400 worth of fruit. Mr. France won numerous prizes in box contests at the second National Apple show in Spokane last November, also carrying off some of the best trophies at the Denver show. As evidence that the growers have faith in the various districts in Washington and that they believe such a thing as over production is out of question, it is announced that between 3,500,000 and 4,000,000 apple trees will be planted in various districts east of the Cascade mountains this season. Of these more than 1,000,000 will be set in orchards along the Columbia river, between the international boundary and the mouth of the Spokane river.

"Tommy, how dare you beat your little sister?"

Tommy (aged ten): "Oh, if you mayn't beat your own sister I'll chuck up my family life altogether."—Chicago Socialist.

"Great heavens!" cried the drug clerk. "What's wrong?" asked the druggist. "I gave that boy hair tonic instead of cough syrup!" "Never mind. We make a profit of 90 per cent on each."—Chicago Record-Herald.
