

BALLINGER WILL SUE "COLLIER'S"

SECRETARY OF INTERIOR WAXES EXCEEDING WROTH

Declares Attack Made in "Collier's Weekly" Is Malicious Effort to Traumatize Him—Proposes to Bring Them to Justice—Is Charged With Professional Dishonor.

Washington.—"If they think they can attack me with impunity, they are mistaken," said Richard A. Ballinger, secretary of the interior, referring to the publications concerning him which are appearing in Collier's Weekly.

He announced emphatically that he proposed to "bring them to justice in due time."

While Mr. Ballinger would not indicate when or in what form proceedings in law would be instituted against the periodical, he said that if he lived long enough it would "suffer all the penalties the law will warrant."

Justice Will be Demanded.

The statement that he intends seeking redress through the courts was made in discussing the article in the current issue of Collier's headed "Ballinger, Shyster," in which the secretary of the interior is accused of an "unpardonable breach of professional honor," in connection with a bankruptcy case in the United States district court in Seattle.

"For the malicious, villainous and untruthful attacks of which this is simply another chapter," he said, "I propose to bring them to justice."

"Every suggestion they make," he added, "has been thoroughly covered by testimony and orders of the United States district court for the district of Washington, northern division, exonerating me from the slightest suspicion of any irregularity or impropriety. They have deliberately sent their agents and emissaries throughout the country to traduce me by a campaign of vilification that is not warranted by any facts whatever. If they think they can attack me with impunity, they are mistaken."

Magazine Makes Charge.

The article in Saturday's issue of Collier's presents charges against Mr. Ballinger in connection with his action as attorney general years ago for Heckmann & Hansen, shipbuilders at Seattle. It charges him with "an unpardonable breach of professional honor."

After the shipbuilding firm's affairs had been wound up, it is alleged that an effort was made by Heckmann to have his estate reopened, believing that his firm had not been fairly dealt with.

It is charged that the referee of the federal court appointed by Judge C. H. Hanford, who is described as a close friend of Mr. Ballinger, "whitewashed" the secretary of the interior and the other attorneys concerned.

Later, it was said, Jerold L. Finch, attorney for Heckmann & Hansen in the latter proceedings, filed a petition in Judge Hanford's court, asking for the disbarment of Mr. Ballinger and the other attorneys. It was referred to the Bar association, which it was charged, "whitewashed" Mr. Ballinger, but refused to take any action against Finch.

Exonerated Is Complete.

In refutation of these charges, Mr. Ballinger exhibited certified copies of the proceedings in the federal court in Seattle, in which he was exonerated by Judge Hanford, the master in chancery and a committee of the federal Bar association of the charges preferred by Finch.

In denying the petition to reopen the case, Judge Hanford said that the accusation against Mr. Ballinger was "not supported by a scintilla of evidence."

The committee of the Bar association which exonerated Mr. Ballinger stated that the charges were made without sufficient investigation of the facts.

The committee said that Finch had not been actuated by malice in making the allegations and for that reason he should not be debarred, but stated that he "justly deserved the censure of the bar of the federal court."

WHO IS CHAMPION IN MIDDLEWEIGHT CLASS?

New York.—It is about time we were deciding the interesting question: Who is the middleweight champion? Stanley Ketchel used to hold this honor but for a long time the laurels have been fluctuating between Billy Papke and Ketchel. Langford stands a fair show now of getting a crack at the title himself.

Ever since Papke knocked Willie Lewis cold in three rounds in Paris there has been talk of a catch between him and Ketchel. Stanley asserts that he is back in the game for keeps now and that he has put out the foolish business.

A fight between Papke and Ketchel would make a beautiful fistie battle and if Ketchel and Langford do not settle their differences before hand, it is only fair that the winner give the Boston tar baby a chance.

Langford must always be reckoned with as a middleweight champion. He is a queer fighter, showing up poorly when his backers think him strongest and winning in grand style when he is supposed to be out of form.

But it is high time that we settled this middleweight championship question.

al reputation who will be present are Professor E. C. Pickering of Harvard university, Professor Campbell of Lick observatory and Professors Michelson and Chamberlain of Chicago. Professor Bioco of the Royal Italian station at Mount Etna has accepted an invitation and every European nation, according to Director Hale of the Carnegie observatory, will send its most noted savants.

The gathering will in a measure, be to celebrate the installation of the 150 foot tower telescope that has been ordered. This will be the largest instrument in the world for the study of the sun's rays.

DOUBLE YOLKED EGGS PROVED HATCHABLE

New York.—The mooted question as to whether double yolked eggs are hatchable seems set by Robert T. Buckland, an electrical contractor of College Point, Long Island. The hen sat upon 14 eggs and hatched 15 chicks.

"Looky here, Biddy," said Buckland, after counting the hatched brood and figuring a bit upon a piece of paper, "you have exceeded 100 per cent. I set you upon 14 eggs and you have produced 15 chicks, a record of 107 1-7 per cent."

Now, figuring is not in Biddy's line, but she clucked proudly to her brood and began giving them their first lesson in earning a living, showing them how advisable it was to stand upon other's necks to get what was coming to them.

POOR SEAMSTRESSES REMEMBERED IN WILL

New York.—Poor seamstresses in the city of New York are $240,000 richer as the result of a decision rendered in the supreme court by Justice Blanchard.

The money will come from the estate of Henry Howard Paul, an English actor and playwright, who died in 1905, at the age of 80, leaving an American and an English will. Harrison Grey Fiske and Henry Tyrrell, his two executors here, were directed to distribute $40,000 in the Union Trust company among charities "that assist poor needlewomen."

Under the English will $250,000 was distributed, but Mrs. Isabella M. Manley of Brooklyn, a sister of the actor, sued to have the American will declared invalid as too indefinite.

COLORED MAN TO TRY FOR A LEGATION POST

Washington.—Benjamin Bundy, a negro of Cincinnati, who passed the state department examination for the consular service, has signified his willingness to accept the secretaryship of a diplomatic post, and will receive an appointment in case he passes the examination for that service. The fact that Bundy is willing to accept an appointment as a secretary of legation solves a problem which would have caused the state department some embarrassment, as there are very few places in the consular service to which a man of his race could properly be appointed.

WALLA WALLA WOMEN WANT RIGHT TO VOTE

Walla Walla.—Representatives of the Walla Walla Woman's Suffrage society appeared before the Farmers' Union at the regular monthly meeting and asked their support in securing their right to vote. The attendance this afternoon was light, owing to the fact that spring seeding is being rushed and the farmers decided not to take action in the matter until a larger number are present. Prom-

To OREGON and the Great Northwest

The management of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Co. (Oregon Lines) takes great pleasure in announcing that the low rates from eastern cities, which have done so much in past seasons to stimulate travel to and settlement in Oregon, will prevail again this spring DAILY from March 1 to April 15, inclusive.

People of Oregon

The railroads have done their part; now it's up to you. The colonist rate is the greatest of all homebuilders. Do all you can to let eastern people know about it, and encourage them to come here, where land is cheap and homebuilding easy and attractive.

FARES CAN BE PREPAID at home if desired. Any agent of the O. R. & N. Co. is authorized to receive the required deposit and telegraph ticket to any point in the east.

REMEMBER THE RATES—From Chicago $33, from St. Louis $32, from Omaha and Kansas City $25. This reduction is proportionate from all other cities.

WM. McMURRAY, Gen. Pass. Agent, Portland, Ore.      C. J. JACKSON, Agent, Pendleton, Ore.
