MILWAUKEE TO BE CLEAN

New Socialist Mayor Will Eradicate Cesspools of Vice, He Says.

CITIZENS MUST EMULATE THEIR FATHERS

In First Public Utterance Since His Election, Emil Seidel Declares People Must Cleanse City of Swamps and Marshes of Vice-- Asserts That Women and Children Are Ruined Under Present System-- City Must Be Beautiful.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 8.—"We must remove the swamp and cess pools and marshes, as our forefathers have done. We must take this city they have founded and built and beautified and must cleanse it." Mayor-elect Emil Seidel, social democratic leader of Milwaukee, said last night in his first public utterance since election.

Mayor-elect Seidel was the principal speaker at the dedication of Solomon Juneau hall in the Auditorium building. He did not outline the program of his coming administration, further than to make the reference to cleansing the city. A statement endorsed by all the social democratic elect will be issued next week.

In his talk Mr. Seidel paid a tribute to Solomon Juneau, the founder of Milwaukee, and other early settlers, telling of the various stages of the city's upbuilding from the time when the site was covered with forests, hills, swamps and marshes, until today, "we see the city as it presents itself. Juneau was the settler; we are his descendants," he said.

Mr. Seidel spoke in part as follows: "The modern city, while it has grown to large proportions and increased its population, until hundreds of thousands are huddled together in small areas, has developed swamps of a different nature than those our forefathers drained. Some of these have become cess pools, the stench of which rises to the heavens. Men and women, as well as innocent children, are wrecked and ruined in these swamps.

"We, the children of the settlers—the sons and daughters—true to the spirit of our fathers, who left their homes to look for new civilization—we must follow in their spirit.

"Our task lies clearly before us. We must remove the swamps and cess-pools and marshes as our forefathers have done. We must take this city that they have built and beautified, and we must cleanse it. We must begin to add to its architectural ideal beauty. Our task is to take this, our city, and to make of it a home—a real home—for its hundreds of thousands of men, women and children—a place where there is little room for tears and heartaches; a place where virtue is protected; a place where our boys can become men, and our daughters, women, and a place where the strong stand for the weak, holding their hands over the heads of the weak, shielding them from all harm. Our task is the task of realizing the dreams of all the great men of the past."

Would Create Naval Reserve.

Washington, April 7.—Senator Perkins today introduced a bill authorizing the secretary of the navy to create a naval reserve by enrolling citizens who are not more than 40 years of age. The reserves would serve in the navy at the call of the president, being enrolled for five years, but with the privilege of resigning at any time except in time of war. During war the reserves would not be compelled to serve more than two years.

LABOR FAMINE DELAYS WORK THROUGHOUT UMATILLA COUNTY

Umatilla county is now confronted with a labor famine, according to local employment agents and employers of labor. Sheepmen, grain growers and contractors of various sorts are all complaining of their inability to secure the needed help and it begins to look as though it would be necessary to send out a call for help to Portland, Seattle, Spokane and the other cities of the northwest.

For several weeks the woolgrowers have been unable to secure a sufficient number of experienced men to assist in herding and the other work around the sheep camp. Many of them have been compelled to put up with an insufficient supply of inexperienced men. The farmers are also complaining that they are unable to secure assistance enough to complete the spring work satisfactorily and it is expected that with the opening of the hay harvest season that the shortage will be still greater.

COMMITTEE OVERRULES BALLINGER'S PROTEST

Washington, D. C., April 8.—By a unanimous vote the committee investigating the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy today overruled Ballinger's protest against the repeated calls of Attorney Brandeis, Glavis' attorney, for the documents on file in the interior department.

Brandeis criticized the delay which attended the delivery of the requested papers.

Vereets, for Ballinger, termed the practice "fishing." "Well," said Representative James, "fishing doesn't hurt unless you catch something."

Field Agent Christensen, Glavis' successor, is on the stand today.

PICKS UP GAUNTLET THROWN BY EDITOR

Angered by Anonymous Communications and Editorials Charging Graft Among Higher Ups, District Attorney Extends General Invitation to People to Say What They Know Before Grand Jury—Invitation Directed Especially to Pittsburg Editor.

Pittsburg, April 8.—District Attorney William A. Blakeley last night issued a general invitation for any or all residents of Allegheny county to appear before the grand jury to contribute any secrets they may hold about grafting in Pittsburg.

The invitation is especially directed toward Alexander P. Moore, editor of the Pittsburg Leader, which, in an editorial yesterday, charged that a prominent man known to the writer of the editorial still was to be implicated in the graft scandals as the real "man higher up." The district attorney last night gave out the following statement:

"I have received a great many anonymous communications charging certain individuals are implicated in the graft scandals and in addition I notice in an afternoon paper a definite charge against a 'man higher up.' I desire to invite any individual of Allegheny county to come before the grand jury tomorrow morning and I will guarantee ample opportunity to testify. This invitation is directed to Mr. A. P. Moore, editor of the Pittsburg Leader, in particular. He has publicly dared me, upon more than one occasion to do certain things. I now accept his challenge without condition and challenge him to produce all his evidence before the grand jury."

"I do this in justice to the people of Allegheny county, who have the right to know the full and complete lengths to which municipal corruption has descended, and I trust Mr. Moore can find no excuse to decline this most urgent request.

District Attorney Blakeley, in discussing his trip to New York city, said while he was in that metropolis he was followed day and night by detectives.

Attorney W. B. Rogers, personal counsel for F. N. Hoffstad of New York, indicted Wednesday on charges of bribery and conspiracy, left for New York last night to take up with his client the matter of extradition. It is said he proposes the district attorney to inform him by wire today of Mr. Hoffstad's decision.

A presentment recommending the indictment of Max Leslie former delinquent tax collector, was returned today by the grand jury which is probing into Pittsburg's "boodlee" scandal. The recommendation is that Leslie be charged with bribery and charged with having paid money to former President Brand of the common council.

ACQUITTED OF CHARGES.

Count and Countess Zoltynski Freed of Being Swindlers.

Paris, April 8.—The court today acquitted the Countess Clare and Count Ladislaus Zoltynski of the charges brought by Mlle. Wilhelmina Kemper, who claimed that she was victimized out of $97,000 which was to have been used to finance the matrimonial projects of Prince Victor of Thurn and Taxis.

The court found that the countess was not responsible for the loan made to the count, and that the latter borrowed in good faith to help the prince find a wife.

On the ground that it was immaterial to the action, the court declined to rule on the question of whether the reputed English countess of Clare was identical with Blanche Leigh, formerly the proprietor of perfumery parlors on the Rue de La Paix.

RESCUED PASSENGERS STIR UP MUTINY ABOARD SHIP

Dover England, April 8.—Five hundred immigrants taken from the burning steamer Cairnrona mutilated today aboard the steamer Kanawha when they were refused permission to land. Marines and sailors from a nearby warship were sent aboard to suppress the revolt.

When refused permission to land, the passengers attacked the officers and crew and attempted to gain control of the small boats. A fierce encounter ensued and the Kanawha was compelled to signal the warship for assistance.

The rioters aboard the Kanawha were Russian Jews, Montenegrins and Swedes.

IN DESPERATE REVOLVER DUEL

San Francisco Policeman Battles With Bold Robber In Street.

BOTH GO TO HOSPITAL IN SAME AMBULANCE

Young Thug Holds Up Saloon, Rifles Till And Walks Out Into Street—Policeman Hastily Summoned, Engages in Duel in Street With Robber—Former Falls But Succeeds in Wounding Robber—Latter Will Die.

San Francisco, April 8.—In a street battle with a robber last night, Policeman J. J. Casey, entered the stomach and the robber received wounds from which he probably will die. Casey will recover.

The robber, a young man, who gave the name of H. Hall, entered the saloon of J. Madden at Post and Larkin streets just as Madden was closing up.

"Throw up your hands," commanded Hall.

Madden obeyed. The robber went through the cash drawer, and took $85. Then he walked out, paying no attention to the saloonkeeper.

Madden followed and as the robber started to run down the street, Madden blew a police whistle. Policeman Casey answered and the chase began. It led through alleys and vacant lots toward the restaurant district.

Suddenly the robber stopped and fired his revolver at the policeman. Casey fell. As he lay on the ground he brought his own revolver into action and fired two shots, both of which hit the robber.

By this time other policemen had been attracted and the chase was ended. Hall was unable to walk. Both policeman and victim were taken to the hospital in the same ambulance.

The raid caused a sensation, for among the 23 players who were hustled into the patrol wagon were a number of well known men. Nine house men were arrested on charges of conducting a gaming establishment and were held in $200 bond. The players were held in $100 bond. The pool room has been operated for 20 years and has enjoyed an enormous patronage.

When the manuscript is complete, the death sentence will be executed.

FEAR JEFFRIES WILL OVER TRAIN HIMSELF

Reewardmann Training Camp, April 8.—The talk of the camp today is that Jeffries is working too hard. Manager Berger has begged him to go easier, fearing he will become stale before the fight. Jeffries refuses to listen to the pleadings. He took another nine mile hike today, later going trout fishing.

It is probable that the sparring scheduled for this afternoon will be omitted as Jeff's shoulder is sore from his exertions in a hand ball game yesterday. The big scrapper will begin sleeping out doors tonight. His porch has been equipped for sleeping quarters and Jeff will not sleep indoors until after the fight.

After a conference with his trainer, Jeffries sent a telegram to Joe Choy-nyakki of Chicago, to come immediately to assist in the training.

REWARD IS OFFERED FOR DOG POISONER

NORTH SIDE RESIDENTS INDIGNANT AT OUTRAGES

Owners of Valuable Dogs Raise $250 for Apprehension of Culprit Who Lays Poison for Canines—Detective to be Employed—Crime is Penitentiary Offense.

Incensed at the wholesale poisoning of dogs by some unprincipled human being, dogowners of North Pendleton, held a meeting last evening and subscribed a fund of $250 which will be offered as a reward for evidence which will result in the arrest and conviction of the person guilty of the outrage. It was also decided that a detective be brought from Portland to work on the case.

As a result of the activity of the North Pendleton dog poisoner there are only five or six dogs remaining on that side of the river and all but one or two of those have been poisoned at one time or another and have been saved by the prompt action of veterinarians. As nearly every dog poisoned has been stricken in his home yard the belief is growing that the poison has been thrown to them while they were at home.

It is said that the guilty person is one of two individuals and the owners are making every effort to determine which of these two is guilty and they will then endeavor to send him to the penitentiary.

As the present law makes dogs personal property, their destruction is a penitentiary offense. Some of those killed have been valuable bird dogs and as about 25 have been poisoned within the past few months their combined value will probably be sufficient to send the guilty person to the penitentiary for a number of years.

Among those who have lost dogs within the past few days was A. W. Robinson, who lost a valuable Irish setter, Deputy County Clerk R. T. Brown and Dr. S. W. McClure chief of the bureau of animal industry in the northwest, each saved their dogs by the narrowest kind of a margin. The McClure dog is a beautiful pointer, valued at $100 and not for sale at any price.

Curiously, Roosevelt didn't pitch into the Black Hand organization while in Italy. But not because he was afraid to do so, everybody knows.

Robert E. Twohy here Today With Several Men, Says 300 or 400 Men Will be at Work Between This City and Youkum Within a Week or Ten Days—All Equipment on Road—Work Will Last Six or Eight Months—Commences at This End.

Construction machinery is being rushed to Pendleton as rapidly as possible and within a week or ten days between 300 and 400 men will be employed in rebuilding the O. R. & N. railroad between this city and Youkum.

He will not be able to remain here permanently while the work is in progress but will be here at different times to note its progress.

The reconstruction of the road will require six or eight months time, according to the contractor. Construction camps will be established at various points along the 14 miles or road, but the headquarters and the principal camp will be established in or near this city and the supplies for the entire force of 300 or 400 men will be handled out of Pendleton. It is understood also that the work is to be started from this end of the line.

According to Assistant Chief of Police Schuetzler, Willaman said he had experienced trouble with his wife's parents for four years.

"Willaman told us," said Chief Schuetzler, "that Koons attacked him first, and then he shot Koons and Mrs. Koons in self defense. He says Mrs. Koons rushed into the room and grappled with him after Koons fell to the floor. Willaman admits beating Koons and Mrs. Koons with a brick and also with a revolver."

At last public highways are to be provided across the Umatilla reservation and no longer will sheepmen and cattlemen be forced to pay toll for crossing the reservation on the way to and from the summer ranges. Thompson, president of the Commercial association.

GEORGE E. CHAMBERLAIN. As a result of the action of the interior department three public highways will be opened across the reservation and they will be maintained by the county. The county court and Superintendent Swartzlander had previously agreed upon the details of the plans for the roads and only the formal action of the interior department was needed to make the agreement effective.

The opening of the reservation roads is an improvement that the county court, commercial association, woolgrowers and others have been working for during the past six years or longer.
