THEO. ROOSEVELT JR.'S FIANCEE GOING TO PARIS
New York.—Miss Eleanor Alexander, the rich and pretty fiancee of Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., may be in Paris in time to greet her future father-in-law, Colonel Roosevelt, when he arrives there on April 21st. It is reported, but not confirmed, that she has booked a passage for Europe, planning to make a hurried visit to her father in Paris before her wedding in June.

Miss Alexander's trousseau is being made in this country. She loves finery, but is the kind of an American girl who is contented with beautiful things even if they do not come from Paris. But there are a few purchases she wants to make, and she may make a hurried trip abroad before her wedding.

Word comes from Paris that her father, Henry Addison Alexander, who is divorced from her mother, is to be married in June to Miss Adelaide Dent of Boston. Miss Dent is now said to be in Paris with her mother.

Treat for Theater Goers.
Local Manager Mitchell of the Oregon has a treat in store for his patrons on Friday, April 15.

The new, revised Chicago edition of "The Alaskan," lately re-written into a full-fledged musical comedy and by those clever producing comedians, Richard F. Carroll, and Gus Weinburg, and which was accorded "the best yet" by the entire Chicago press, where it had a five months' run, is announced "piece de resistance." Wonderful things have been done in the present "New Alaskan," and many novel, unique and spectacular features predominate in an unusually attractive and otherwise daintily different musical comedy.

Kidney ills come quietly—mysteriously.

Kidney ills come quietly—mysteriously. But nature always warns you. Notice the kidney secretions. See if the color is unhealthy—If there are settlements and sediment. Passages frequent, scanty, painful. It's time then to use Doan's Kidney Pills.

To ward off Bright's disease or diabetes.

Doan's have done great work in Pendleton.

C. Beale, 306 Aura street, Pendleton, Ore., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills gave me freedom some six years ago from kidney trouble and lameness in my back from which I suffered for a long while. I was also greatly annoyed by the too frequent passages of the kidney secretions, especially during the night when I was forced to arise several times. A short use of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at The Pendleton Drug Co., relieved me of all these difficulties and at that time I gave a statement recommending them. Many persons have since called upon me, wishing to know if the endorsement were true, and I have always advised other kidney sufferers to use Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

"THE ALASKAN" IS A SHOW OF REAL WORTH

Pretty girls, good scenery, catchy songs and comedy that really is funny characterize the production of "The Alaskan" which was played to a crowded house at the Olympia theater last night, says the Morning Olympian of Olympia, Wash. Those who saw the original production of the piece a season or two ago hardly recognized it for except for a few of the best songs, "The Alaskan" has been entirely rewritten and is practically a new play.

Richard F. Carroll and Gus Weinberg, who take the principal comedy roles, are as funny as ever and all of the time they were on the stage they managed to keep the house in laughter. The snowballing scene introduced in the second act proved a great hit, and the genuine Alaskan dog train brought in during the action of the piece was a decided novelty which took well.

As in the old piece, "The Totem Pole" sung by Detmar Poppen, Totem Pole Pete, was a big hit. The dance and chorus by eight large totem poles proved a diversion and the song was well handled. Another piece which took well was "The Moth and the Bumble Bee," sung by John R. Phillip and Jessie Stoner. In the second act "Snowball," sung by Etta Lockhart, in which number the snowball scene was put on, took five encores and gray haired old men entered into the spirit of the thing as though they were youngsters. Weinberg's punch bowl scene in this act was pronounced the funniest thing ever seen here.

"Mother Did," by Jessie Stoner and a male quartet of comedians composed of Al Rauth, John Lawton, Harry B. Hoffman and H. J. Siegfried, caught the popular fancy and was recalled several times, as was Carroll's song, "Hi, Hi, Hi." In this act other good numbers were "The Face of the Girl I Love" and "For I Dream of You."

As a whole, the production was good and the crowded house which greeted it proves once more that when given a show worthy of the name Olympia will produce the house.

WORTH MOUNTAINS OF GOLD

During Change of Life, says Mrs. Chas. Barclay

Graniteville, Vt.—"I was passing through the Change of Life and suffered from nervousness and other annoying symptoms, and I can truly say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me during this trying period. Complete restoration to health means so much to me that for the sake of other suffering women I am willing to make my trouble public so you may publish this letter."—MRS. CHAS. BARCLAY, R.F.D., Graniteville, Vt.

No other medicine for woman's ills has received such wide-spread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine we know of has such a record of cures of female ills as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For more than 30 years it has been curing female complaints such as inflammation, ulceration, local weaknesses, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration, and it is unequalled for carrying women safely through the period of change of life. It costs but little to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and, as Mrs. Barclay says, it is "worth mountains of gold" to suffering women.
