NEW POSTOFFICE STARTED---NOT YET

CONGRESSMAN ELLIS EXPLAINS THE DELAY

In Letter Just Received Says Long Time Required in Claiming Title to Local Ground Gave Other Buildings Priority---Pendleton Must Wait Her Turn.

According to a letter just received from Congressman Ellis there is not a very cheering prospect that Pendleton's new post office and federal court building will be erected within the next few weeks. It seems that a large part of the delay was occasioned by the long time required in clearing the title to the local ground and that the Pendleton building must wait until after others which slipped in ahead of it during the wait, have been completed.

The following is from a letter received from the congressman, in answer to an inquiry concerning the post office situation:

"I will say that for the reason that title to our site was not secured at an earlier date numerous other buildings were placed in advance of ours and in cases of this kind, to use an old phrase, 'it is like going to mill,' everyone must await his turn.

"The Pendleton building" cannot be constructed until those authorized prior to it, or those that secured full title to their sites prior to securing the same for that building, have been taken care of.

"I have been before the department repeatedly in regard to the matter and have consulted with numerous others who are situated the same as I am and all of them get just the same treatment, that is, must wait their turn.

"The Baker City building was authorized two years prior to the time I came to Congress and construction was not commenced until within the last year.

"I have talked with the architect with regard to the federal court and he assured me that in the event that he could not provide for a building suitable for both postoffice and court out of the present appropriation he would advise me of that fact in ample time that I may, if possible, secure an additional appropriation.

"I might add that this time is a very poor time to increase appropriation as the great cry is economy. Of one thing I feel quite sure that is that no one takes more pride in having a federal building at Pendleton than myself, and I will not overlook any opportunity to have it erected at the earliest day possible."

Yours very truly,
W. R. Ellis.

BELGIAN KING TO GO VISITING.

Will Call on Courts of London, Paris and Berlin.

Brussels, Belgium.—The king and queen of Belgium have decided to pay official visits to Paris, Berlin and London during the summer, and in consequence of the kind attitude of the duke of Belgium towards the king of Belgium on the occasion of the latter's ascension to the throne the visit to London will take first place. In Belgium great importance is attached to the forthcoming visits as it is anticipated they will create a friendlier atmosphere between the Belgian and foreign courts.

TWO MORE DOGS ARE VICTIMS OF POISON

DASTARDLY WORK CONTINUES DESPITE REWARD OFFERED

Bull Terrier of Miss Bertha Anger and White Spitz of Dr. C. J. Smith, Both Valuable Canines, Secure Poison and Die in Short Time.

Utterly terrified by threats of vengeance, offers of rewards or the threatened employment of a detective, the North Pendleton dog poisoner is still getting in his dastardly and cowardly work. Two more highly prized dogs have just fallen victims to this unscrupulous individual. Dr. C. J. Smith and family and Miss Bertha Anger are the latest mourners.

Miss Anger's dog was a bull pit terrier while the Smith dog was the pretty white spitz. Miss Anger had recently refused an offer of $50 for her dog.

Dr. Smith rode over to the North side this morning to make a professional call and as usual the dog accompanied him in the auto. He did not think the pet had left the machine, but he evidently did or else the poison was handed to him as he sat in the car, for after making the call the doctor came back to the Tallman drug store and while sitting in the machine which was left standing in front of the store, the dog toppled over and the combined efforts of Drs. Smith and Henderson and Veterinarian McNabb failed to save its life.

RACE WAR BREAKS OUT AT BAKER CITY MINES

The explosion of a large quantity of dynamite near a cabin occupied by five Italians in the Mormon Basin last night caused the country for some distance around to feel the shock and also caused the Italians to hastily leave their house, only to be confronted by several Americans, who unknown, and in no unmistakable language they ordered the foreigners to get out of the community at once and leave no trace of themselves.

It is said the dagoes waited not for a second warning but scampered down the mountain side jabbering their native tongue and apparently very badly scared.

The identity of the Americans is not known and there is no reason assigned for the action, except that possibly the men who warned the Italians have a hatred for foreign labor. The Italians had been employed on a contract to furnish wood for the Rainbow mine and so far as known they had in no way transgressed any one's property or created any disturbance. They had been in the Basin only a few days.

The Rainbow mine is an "open shop" in its policy and the management employs any man who is a skilled miner, regardless of birth or language he speaks. There never has been any trouble whatever at the mine and no dissatisfaction has ever been mentioned.

The fact that this incident occurred in the wood camp gives no alarm for it has no connection with the mine or mill.—Baker Herald.

Virtue is not always triumphant. Take the case of the clam, for instance. It is only the very bad one that is victorious against the aggressions of hungry mankind.

TWO PRISONERS ARE ENROUTE TO PRISON

With two prisoners in their custody, Sheriff Taylor and Deputy Sheriff Joe Blakely, left on the noon train for the state penitentiary at Salem. The prisoners were Frank Raymond who was yesterday sentenced to serve a year and a half for burglarizing the Hermiston store and Frank Esparza, the Spaniard, who undertook to steal Paul Hemelgarns watch as he was wearing it. The Spaniard entered a plea of guilty, a few minutes before noon, was immediately sentenced to serve 18 months and was on his way to Salem an hour later.

The grand jury completed its deliberations for the present and the members have gone to their several homes. The only two indictments returned were those against the two men who are now on their way to the state prison. No final report was made to the court and the seven men are liable to be called back at any time to investigate anything which may need their attention.

The case of Philemon Smith against Mosgrove et al is still on trial today.

SUSTAIN COMPANY L. ADVISES GEN. FINZER

"You may state that I have informally accepted the resignation of Captain Bailey and that it is now up to company L to secure a new commanding officer. It is my advice that a capable commander be secured at once and the company recruited up to a satisfactory strength. When the men are enlisted I will come here personally to muster them in or will send an officer here for that purpose."

This statement was made today by Adjutant General W. E. Finzer, who passed through here on train No. 7, en route to Portland from Baker City. He was at Baker City last night and stated today that the Baker City company is to be continued.

At the present time the prospects for company L seem bright. Charles J. Ferguson is being talked of as captain for the reorganized company and he is being generally favored for the place. Mr. Ferguson was a member of the famous Second Oregon, which rendered good service in the Philippines during the Spanish war. He is also well known locally and so is regarded as a proper man to take command of company L and place it upon a permanent and satisfactory footing.

At a meeting of Malabon camp, Spanish war veterans, held last night a resolution endorsing the maintenance of company L was passed. The veterans also favor Mr. Ferguson for captain and will back him in his work should he be selected for the post.

OREGON SHORT LINE ADDS TO ROLLING STOCK

Salt Lake City, April 13.—In addition to forty passenger coaches arriving here for the Oregon Short Line, the road today is preparing to place an order for five million dollars worth of rolling stock. The increased order is due to the anticipation of a season of prosperity.

Hammerstein's Song Bird Hunt.

New York, April 13.—Oscar Hammerstein called for Europe today on his annual search for singers for his Manhattan opera house.

His travels will extend to Cairo, Algiers, St. Petersburg, Moscow, Vienna, Budapest, Berlin and through Italy.

He has secured the rights for Massenet's new opera "Don Quixote," now being sung in Brussels; also the rights of "Chiquita," the present success of the Opera Comique in Paris, as well as the new Richard Strauss opera.

He will conclude negotiations with artists among whom are Muratore, the first tenor of the Grand opera house in Paris, and Mme. Litvinne, the French dramatic soprano.

Will See Comet in Hawaii, Columbus, Ohio, April 12.—Emerson McMullin, New York banker, formerly of Columbus, has arranged to finance a trip by H. C. Lord, professor of astronomy and an assistant of Ohio state university, to Hawaii at the time of the transit of Halley's comet across the sun, May 18. Professor Lord will make the long journey for one hour's observation.

Walla Walla Offices Filled, Washington, April 12.—The president today nominated Jesse Miller, receiver of public moneys, John H. McDonald register of the land office and Edward T. Burton, post master at Walla Walla.

The Pastime.
"Gold Is Not All." Biograph. 1000 feet. This picture deserves the highest commendation and like all Biograph stories is full of interest from start to finish.

"The Village Inventor." Selig. 1000 feet. A romance of the old fashioned type with the country boy suddenly lifted into fame and fortune by an invention which wins him the favor of a rich man whose daughter he marries.

"Method in His Madness." Comedy. Here is a little oddity in comedy which is funny, and acted with extraordinary drollery.

"The Inventor's Model." Drama. This is an intensely dramatic subject, the acting excellent, the subject one of absorbing interest.

SAW LINCOLN SHOT.

Woman Revisits Ford Theater Site Where She Played on Fatal Night.

Washington, April 12.—Having stood as a young actress on the stage only a few feet from the spot where Lincoln was assassinated in Ford's theater on the night of April 14, 1865, Miss Jennie Gourlay, now a gray haired woman, has returned to Washington for the first time since that eventful night and visited the spot where 45 years ago the tragedy occurred. On the night of Lincoln's death Miss Gourlay played the part of "Mary Trenchard" in the drama "Our American Cousin."

Defense Being Heard. Jackson, Miss., April 12.—The prosecution in the bribery investigation in the senate rested its case today and the defense has entered upon its testimony. The day's doings were marked by two minor sensations. The first was the exclusion of the newspaper men, while Principal Thomas of the Popular Grove school told why Senator Bilbo severed his connection as a teacher in that school three years ago. Senator Bilbo's counsel demanded that if the testimony involved alleged moral shortcomings, the press be excluded.
