Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Marriage License.
A marriage license was issued this morning to William Edwards of Spokane and Ethel Southard of this county.

Suing to Collect Note.
The American National bank has brought suit against B. F. Chilson to collect a note for $588. The sum of $75 is asked as attorney fees.

Jap Sues Jap Friend.
Alleging that his friend has refused and neglected to repay $100 which he loaned him, K. Hoshino has brought suit against T. Akamaru. Both are subjects of Japan.

An Action for Money.
J. H. Gwinn versus John S. Estes and wife is the title of a suit filed in the circuit court through which a number of local merchants are seeking to collect bills aggregating $171. The different amounts range from $2.10 to $56.50.

"Dick" Nye Married.
"Dick" Nye, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Nye of this city, is now a married man. He was married on March 31 to Miss Emma Bahr, of Cambridge, Idaho. Mr. Nye is now farming in Idaho and with his wife will make his home on his place near Cambridge.

Baby Girl Dies.
The five-week-old daughter of Conductor and Mrs. Frank Mytenger, died last evening about 7:35 at the home of its parents, 493 College street. Death was due to an attack of whooping cough with which it had been suffering for four or five days. The funeral services will be conducted tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 and the interment will be in Olney cemetery.

Meeting for Ezra Meeker.
For the purpose of meeting with Ezra Meeker, the old pioneer, a mass meeting will be held at the Commercial association rooms at 7:30 tomorrow night. The meeting has been called at the instance of Mr. Meeker and some of his local friends. All pioneer residents and others interested in the work Mr. Meeker is doing are invited to attend.

Newlyweds Get Shower of Rice.
When Justice of the Peace Joe H. Parkes this afternoon had completed tying the hymeneal knot which united William Edwards of Spokane and Miss Ethel Southard of this county, and the newly made man and wife were making their exit after the sacred ordeal, they were suddenly beset by a number of friends and for several minutes a shower of rice deluged the happy and blushing couple.

Homestead Case on Trial.
The case of T. McGrath versus W. Brown, is on trial today in the circuit court. This is the case in which McGrath is seeking to collect a sum of money he alleges is due him in payment for his relinquishment on a homestead. The land in question is on the government project at Hermiston and a large number of witnesses are here from that part of the county.

J. W. Fox Released on Bonds.
J. W. Fox, the Walla Walla real estate man who was arrested recently on the charge of obtaining money under false pretense by giving a check when he had no funds in the bank and who was brought to this city last week by Deputy Sheriff Joe Blakely, has been released on bonds. His brother put up $350 in cash to guarantee his appearance before the grand jury.

Warm Weather Has Arrived.
With a maximum temperature of 87 degrees, according to the thermometer of the official weather observer, yesterday was the warmest day of the season up until that time. Today at 2:30 the mercury had only reached 85 and there is still chance that yesterday's record will be reached. The indications are that it will be cooler tomorrow. The minimum temperature for last night was 41 degrees while for the night before it was 38.

Auto Beat Train.
On an auto run from Walla Walla to Pendleton yesterday Sam Thompson beat the evening passenger train on the run from Freewater to this city. The auto and train left Freewater at the same time but Mr. Thompson arrived here ten minutes ahead of the train. Aside from Mr. Thompson there were three other people in the auto upon the trip, the others being Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. William Blakely and Miss Thelma Thompson.

Fruit Is Uninjured.
County Fruit Inspector S. J. Campbell, who came down this morning from his home at Milton, on business in connection with his office, says the fruit outlook is just as bright today as it was before the frost of last week. He says no damage was suffered in the Freewater-Milton country at all and that he has not heard of damage in any other part of the county. According to the fruit inspector, there has not yet been frost enough to thin out the fruit sufficiently to permit of the best development.

Hermiston Land Deal Reported.
Mayor H. R. Newport of Hermiston reports another big real estate transaction in the west end of the county which has been the scene of no end of real estate activity during the past several months. By the terms of the latest transaction W. H. Skinner disposes of his city property to F. E. Swazey for 290 acres of land in the county adjacent to Hermiston. Skinner recently disposed of all his extensive land holdings to the Columbia Land company but by this new turn of affairs he again has a foothold.

Wonder Store to Move.
After the Boston store has moved from its present location at the corner of Main and Court streets that location will be taken by the Wonder store owned by Despain & Bonney. An announcement to this effect was made today by J. B. Despain, senior partner in the firm. According to Mr. Despain the corner room of the Boston store location will be fitted up with a modern front. The Wonder store will use both the rooms but only the corner room will be remodelled. In the small room on the north a "racket store" will be conducted.

Bishop O'Reilly Coming.
The Right Reverend Charles J. O'Reilly, Bishop of Baker City, is to be here early in May for the purpose of holding confirmation services at the St. Mary's Catholic church and at St. Andrew's mission on the reservation. The confirmation at the mission will be held Sunday, May 1, while the service at the local church will be the following Sunday, May 8. The confirmation will be at high mass at 10 o'clock Sunday morning and at the time Bishop O'Reilly will deliver an address. He has a reputation as be-
