DEATH INDIRECTLY DUE TO LIQUOR

MAN WHO DIED IN JAIL
WAS A HEAVY DRINKER

Brain Had Become Weakened and Little Excitement Caused Insanity—Death Due to Exhaustion—Name Was John Kanak of Chicago.

John Kanak is the name of the man who died in the county jail, Saturday afternoon, after having been taken from the train, a raving maniac. Kanak was a Chicago carpenter and stair builder and was native of Bohemia. His home address, where his wife and eight children reside, is 3023 South 43 Court, Chicago, and the remains were shipped to that city last night for interment.

According to John Karlik of Phillips, Wis., brother-in-law of the dead man they were coming to Oregon with the expectation of locating in the Umatilla valley or at Klamath Falls. At Shoshone Idaho, Kanak had run into a lunch counter to get something to eat. While he was in there the train started and he made a run for it. Seeing that he was about to be left, the trainmen signaled for the train to stop to let him on. As it was slowing down and before it came to a full stop he caught up with it and attempted to get it, but instead was hurled to the ground.

The train was stopped and he got on but was very much excited. A short time later he developed symptoms of insanity and was soon beyond the control of his relative and the train crew, so was taken off here.

The man was a heavy drinker and was partially under the influence of liquor at the time the Shoshone accident occurred. Under ordinary circumstances the fall he received would have had no injurious effects, but with his mind weakened from the use of intoxicants, he soon became insane and died from exhaustion.

KAISER'S TRAIN IS LUXURIOUS.
Cost Nearly $1,000,000—Has Elaborate Compartments.

Berlin.—When the Kaiser travels now it will be in the most luxurious private train in the world. The Imperial train cost nearly $1,000,000 and occupied more than three years in construction. Its eleven carriages, connected by corridors, include a study hung with tapestry, a saloon upholstered in white satin, a nursery, a reception room adorned with marble statuary, an oak dining room, a kitchen and bedrooms for several guests. A great many of the details were planned by the Emperor himself.

Every well-defined, fixed principle of right will finally work out on its intended lines.

BODY IS IDENTIFIED AS THAT OF PETERS

DEAD MAN FOUND IN MILL RACE RECOGNIZED

W. J. Dake Satisfies Coroner's Jury That Body is That of Jack Peters, Who Mysteriously Disappeared About Two Months Ago—Probably Committed Suicide.

Positive identification of the body found in the mill race Saturday afternoon as that of Jack Peters, who had disappeared nearly eight weeks before, was made by W. J. Dake while Coroner Colson was holding an inquest. Peters had boarded with Dake a year and before looking at the body the witness said that if it was that of Peters a large protuberance would be found on his left wrist. An examination revealed the lump which was very pronounced and the identification was declared to be complete.

While practically everyone of the seven men composing the coroner's jury were of the opinion that Peters committed suicide the verdict simply stated that after an investigation they found that the remains were those of Peters and that he came to his death by drowning in the Byers millrace on or about Feb. 21.

After the body was discovered and pointed out by Paul Fimmel it was found that it had been occupying the same position in the race for at least two weeks and the chances are that it had been there almost ever since the man met his death. One woman was found who says she saw the object in the water two weeks before, but she had paid no particular attention to it and as the water was muddy she did not recognize it as a human body. It is probable that nearly every one of the scores who have passed the bank of the mill race within 15 feet of the body had noticed the object without thinking what it was.

The remains were interred in Olney cemetery yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, the funeral services being conducted at the grave by Rev. Charles Quinney, rector of the church of the Redeemer.

Fishermen Have Poor Luck.

Though more than 100 local disciples of Sir Isaac Walton hid themselves to a score of different favorite haunts yesterday, not a single angler has yet been found who could display as many as a dozen trout as payment for his pains, all of which goes to show that the season is not yet sufficiently well advanced to permit of good sport. The day was ideal, the roads fine for riding, driving or automobiling and the day's outing was enjoyed, even though few fish were taken. A total of 511 fishing licenses have been issued up to date, while 120 hunter's licenses have been issued.

headquarters in Pendleton during the woolbuying season.

Sam Nell, the well known resident of the south end of Umatilla county, left for home this morning, after having spent a few days here in looking after business affairs.

Dr. W. H. Lytle, state veterinarian and state sheep inspector, returned this morning from Portland, where he had been to attend a meeting of the state board of health.

Mrs. Harry Thompson of Portland, arrived in the city last evening and is now with her mother, Mrs. Mary Johnson. She is to be here upon an extended visit while Mr. Thompson is in Europe upon a business trip.

J. H. O'Neill, traveling passenger agent for the O. R. & N., is in the city today on business in connection with his department. He is well satisfied with the showing made by the first week's run of the motor car.

D. C. Brownell, one of the best known pioneer residents of the west end of the county, came up this morning from his home at Umatilla and will leave this evening for Walla Walla, where he will transact business.

UMATILLA EXPRESS AGENT A SWINDLER

Chief of Police Gurdane, assisted by former United States Commissioner John Halley, made a good capture Saturday when he arrested Wesley Atfield, former night express agent at Umatilla. When arrested he was suspected of the robbery of $490 in express packages and though he maintained his innocence at first he finally broke down and admitted to the chief that he had taken the money. The confession was secured today and he was immediately transferred to the county jail.

Atfield is 28 years of age and unmarried.

The money has not yet been recovered and the former agent has not told what disposition he made of it. The robbery occurred some time ago. He left Umatilla two weeks ago.

The primary requisite to success in life is self-control.

JUNIOR CAST APPEARS IN DRESS REHEARSAL

There is much borrowing of fine raiment and much uplifting of voices in the rehearsal today as the 100 high school students make ready for the annual Junior Play at the Oregon theatre tomorrow night. The first dress rehearsal is to be held at the theatre this afternoon and in consequence there is a great scurrying around on the part of those who are to take part in an effort to get their costumes together.

Miss Shaw is so well pleased with the manner in which those who are taking part in "The Lawyer and the Client," handle their parts, that she is going to take them to Weston, where they will present the play. She says that notwithstanding the fact that the play is considered heavy she has been able to pick an exceptionally strong cast.

Interest in the event tomorrow night is not confined to the high school student body alone by any means and the sale of tickets has already been heavy. It is expected that the house will be entirely sold out by tomorrow night. The curtain goes up at 8:15.

The large things of life consist of the little ones joined together by the chain of circumstances.
