Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Official Weather Report.
Minimum temperature, 52.
Maximum temperature, 64.

Stanton Ranch Is Sold.
Benjamin Stanton has sold his big wheat farm in Cottonwood precinct to V. H. Rogers, a resident of Walla Walla, for $50,000. This is wheat land and contains between 400 and 500 acres.

Williams Will Be Extradited.
Because Henry W. Williams sold a jack on which another man held a mortgage, he will be extradited from the state of Idaho and brought back to Pendleton for trial. He is now at Lewiston.

Council Meets Tonight.
Bids for the street sprinkling will be opened at the meeting of the city council tonight. It is possible also that Mayor Murphy will announce the name of the man who is to fill the vacancy in the first ward created by the resignation of A. L. Knight.

Yakima Editor Here.
W. W. Robinson, publisher of the North Yakima Republic, was in the city for a short time last evening while enroute to southern Idaho. Mr. Robinson says conditions are very promising at Yakima at this time. He estimates the population of North Yakima at 18,000.

Elliott Sells Restaurant.
P. O. Elliott has disposed of his restaurant in the Bowman Hotel block to the Wing Restaurant company of Walla Walla. The new proprietors are Chinamen and have taken possession of the eating house. Mr. Elliott has not decided upon his plans for the future, but will probably remain in Pendleton.

Married 20 Years—Wants Divorce.
A suit for divorce has been filed by Nettie L. Goodwin against William E. Goodwin. The parties to this suit were married 22 years ago in Muscoda, Wisconsin, and have six children ranging in age from four to 20 years. Four are girls and two are boys. Desertion is alleged as grounds for legal separation. The Goodwins have been residents of Hermiston.

Robbins Bought Tribune.
George A. Robbins, well known resident of this place, is now the owner and the publisher of the Pendleton Tribune. He has purchased the local semi-weekly paper from W. L. Thompson and henceforth is to have full charge of the paper. Mr. Robbins is today at his ranch on McKay creek but he is preparing to take active management of the Tribune.

Prohibitionists at Work.
At the temperance meeting held at the Methodist church last night addresses were made by representative prohibition workers and steps were taken towards the campaign to place the state of Oregon in the prohibition column. A petition is to be circulated calling for a vote on a constitutional amendment providing for state wide prohibition.

Vincent to Have High School.
County School Superintendent Welles has notified that the recent bond election in the Vincent school district has prevailed by a vote of 41 to 1. This means that the district is soon to expend $15,000 in the erection of a high school building. Superintendent Welles says this district has one of the best schools in the county and that the patrons are very proud of it.

Pioneer Goes to Seattle.
A. J. Sturtevant, the pioneer resident of Pilot Rock, left yesterday afternoon for Seattle to be at the bedside of his brother, Clarke Sturtevant, who is not expected to live. Sturtevant has lived in Umatilla county more than half a century and was the first county school superintendent the county ever had. He was accompanied by Abe Miller, justice of the peace for the Pilot Rock district, and who is himself one of the oldest residents of that section of the county.

Miss Carrier Dies.
Miss Rosa B. Carrier, aged 49 years, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Carrier, died yesterday about 1 o'clock, at the home of her parents, 1802 West Webb street. Death was due to tuberculosis. The deceased has resided in Pendleton nearly all her life and was a member of the Women of Woodcraft, which organization will have charge of the funeral exercises. The sermon will be preached by Rev. Nathan Evans, pastor of the Methodist church. Tomorrow at 2 o'clock is the hour set for the funeral.

MINISTER QUITS CHURCH.

After Forty Years in the Pulpit He Defies His Bishop.
Anniston, Ala.—Because he refused to support prohibition, Rev. Dr. P. P. Starnor, for forty years a minister of the Southern Methodist church, has been ostracised, and as a result has withdrawn from the denomination. During the recent campaign Rev. Dr. Starnor opposed the prohibition constitutional amendment, saying that he could not conscientiously vote for it. Dr. Starnor took this position, although Bishop Morris had requested all Methodist members to support the amendment. In his letter withdrawing from the church Dr. Starnor says he will support O'Neal, anti-prohibitionist, for governor.

SIGNS OF SPRING MANIFEST IN ECHO

BUILDING IN PROGRESS, PEOPLE COME AND GO

Bids advertised for Plumbing and Ventilation of New School House—Old Residents Leave for East on Visit—Tallaho Party—Personal Notes.

(Special Correspondence.)
Echo, Ore., April 20.—At the meeting of the school board last night bids as advertised for, for the installation of the plumbing and ventilation for the new school building were opened. The bid of the Lisle Co. of this place being the lowest and best was accepted, the contract price being $1315.00.

Albert M. Williams and wife left last evening on a visit to their old home in Arkansas. Mr. and Mrs. Williams have been here seven years, and moved up on a quarter section of wheat land east of town. They have bought property lately in Echo and will make this their home after their return. They expect to be gone a month.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. C. R. Bonney of the Bonney livery stables, drove out to the shearing plant with his new "tally-ho" and four horses, taking out a party from town to enjoy the drive through the country and to inspect the plant. The following were among the favored ones: Messames Roy Ward, Louis Scholl, Jr., and L. E. Ward, Messrs. George, Ward, Pfeiser, Bonney and Ward.

John Todhunter is making extensive repairs on the Baker livery stable which he purchased a short time ago.

Ed Litsey leaves today for Harper, Kansas, for a visit with his parents. Mr. Litsey has been here the past six years, and in that time has acquired considerable real estate in this place. He expects to be absent until the first of September.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis McCarty and infant son returned home yesterday morning on the local from Pendleton.

Mrs. L. Corder was visiting in Pendleton yesterday.

B. F. McCullough returned yesterday from a business trip to Portland. Mr. McCullough is now assisting Perry Gould of the Union stock yards, Portland.

Crockett Mitchell is here from the Willamette valley visiting friends and neighbors.

Wm. Neil is here from Colfax, shaking hands with old friends.

Monitors in Reserve.
Washington, April 19.—The navy department has directed that upon the completion of the work now in progress on the monitors Ozark, Tonopah and Cheyenne, they be placed in commission in reserve to be used for training the naval militia, the Ozark at Washington, the Tonopah at Hoboken, N. J., and the Cheyenne at Bremerton, Puget Sound, Wash.

Attention Daphne Circle.
All members of Daphne Circle, W. of W., are requested to meet at their hall at 1:30 sharp Thursday for the purpose of attending the funeral of Miss Rose Carrier.

Notice to My Patrons.
I have changed my place of residence from 294 W. Alta St., to 619 Cosbie St. Mrs. Geisler.

The Great Francis Delmar

The Renowned Clairvoyant and Palmist

The man with psychic power. The greatest living adviser on the continent.

A clairvoyant known from ocean to ocean as the marvel of the century, with a reputation that no unjust criticism can disturb.

The name of Delmar is a double guarantee.

There is no trouble, doubt or ambition, no hope or wish founded on true and pure thought but what can be realized by his help and advice, he is entirely original in his methods; a visit to him will bring sure help and will satisfy you and bring success and happiness to the seeker of truth and advice.

His advice has made thousands happy. It will benefit you.

He drives doubt from your mind and slays scepticism at a glance. At a glance, before you have a chance to utter one word, he will tell you what you came for, and what you want to know.

He tells every wish of your life, how to gain success in love, courtship, marriage, divorce; whether you will be successful in business investments, no matter what may be your hope, fear or ambition; call on this gifted man and find relief; his descriptions of your friends and enemies are as real as though they stood before you; he will send you away happier, wiser and bolder than ever before.

Tells you when and Whom you marry. Reunites the separated.

Tells you how to win the man or woman you love. He tells you everything, good or bad; you hear the truth and nothing but the truth.

Wonderful Powers.
It is universally conceded by most profound scholars and deepest thinkers of the present age that Professor Delmar has been endowed by nature with prophetic powers to a degree hitherto unknown; keenly conscious of this great responsibility, he has honestly endeavored to let his light shine that all who seek may find truth as he sees it; there is about him no air of mysticism, no Egyptian robes, no tined stars, no burning incense, no meaningless hieroglyphics and no imposition.

All business secretly confidential. PROF. FRANCIS DELMAR, Rooms 1 and 2, Palace Rooming House, Main street. Daily East Oregonian by carrier, only 15 cents per week.

"THE RED MILL."

Holland Figures Prominently in the Gay Musical Comedy.

Something in the nature of an "event" may be predicted at the Oregon theater on Monday, May 2. The occasion will be notable because it will usher in an engagement of what has been pronounced one of the best musical offerings of the decade—"The Red Mill" which, under the direction of Charles Dillingham, made an all-year run in New York last season, and has since completed engagements of four months in Chicago, three months in Boston and two months in Philadelphia. Additional importance obtains through the fact that the play is by those necromancers of stage composition, Henry Blossom and Victor Herbert, who gave us that delightful comic opera, "Mlle. Modiste," in which Fritz Schuff is the bright particular star.

In seeking a novel setting for his play, Mr. Blossom happily hit upon the country of Holland, which has heretofore not been served up very much by dramatists. The characters in the piece, with the one or two exceptions, are all Dutch, and their quaint and brightly colored costumes, exhibited in a framework made up of whirling windmills and delectable decorations, form, from all accounts, some very novel and pretty stage pictures.

The story revolves around the adventures of two smart, but financially embarrassed Americans, who are "doing" Europe, and who get stranded at Katwyk—aan-Zee. They try to beat their board bill, but are caught by a stern sheriff, prosecuted by an unrelenting tavern keeper and sentenced by a burly burgomaster to work out their debt. This they do by acting as a waiter and an interpreter. A dainty love story is introduced in the plot, which involves the two Americans, a dashing navy officer, a pliant barmaid and a burgomaster's charming daughter and flirtatious sister. These various characters are impersonated by a group of exceptionally clever players, headed by Bert O. Sear and Frank Woods.

The Pastime.
The following new pictures for today's change:
"As It Is in Life." Biograph. 1000 feet. Another of those much enjoyed Biograph pictures. The story of a father's love. The beautiful daughter is made to choose between her lover and her father.
"A Western Romance." Dramatic. 1000 feet. The story tells of two children who are betrothed, while both are living in the east, in conformity to a clause in a will, the girl to get a fortune provided she marries the boy before she is 25 years old. Some fine acting in this picture.
"Foxy Ernest." Comedy. A humorous skit which introduces a novelty.
"A Conquest." Comedy. An amusing picture.
