"THE RED MILL."

Written by One of Foremost American Composers.

The score of "The Red Mill" is by Victor Herbert, who has long been accepted as the foremost American composer. He has written nineteen light operas, among them the Prima Donna, Mile Modiate, Babes in Toyland, It Happened in Nordland, The Tattooed Man, The Serenade, The Fortune Teller, Babette, The Wizard of the Nile, The Idol's Eye, Wonderland, Dream City, The Magic Knight, The Singing Girl, Dolly Dollars, etc., all of which have been big successes and many of which are still being played both in America and Europe. He is equally well known as a writer of serious music and is himself a virtuoso of the highest type. His symphonic poems are included in the programs of symphony orchestras all over the world. His concertos for the cello are the accepted standard of musicianship. When Oscar Hammerstein decided to have the grand opera written upon an American subject for production at his Manhattan opera house, Mr. Herbert was the one musician in this country worthy of this commission, and he was unhesitatingly chosen. The score of "The Red Mill" is in Mr. Herbert's happiest vein and is replete with brilliant ensembles, tuneful numbers, every one of which has a different and distinctive charm and appeal to the ear. Of the twenty-four numbers which Mr. Herbert wrote for "The Red Mill" nearly every one has scored an immense hit, the more successful being "Every Day is Ladies' Day With Me," "You Never Can Tell About a Woman," "Go, While the Goin's Good," "The Streets of New York," "Because You're You," "The Isle of Our Dreams," and "I Want You to Marry Me."

"The Red Mill" will be presented at the Oregon theater for one performance only, on Monday, May 2, with a very pretentious cast, including Bert O. Swor as Con Kidder, Franker Woods as Kid Connor, Otto Goerner, Alvin Laughlin, Carl Hartberg, S. W. Scott, Harry R. McClain, Cecil Summers and the Misses Agnes Major, Vernee Maryn, Adeline Stern, Georgia Harvey and a chorus of fifty, including the six little Dutch Kiddies and an augmented orchestra.

NORVAL M'GREGOR IS WITH "COUSIN KATE"

Norval McGregor, who will be seen here with Jeanne Russell as the curate in "Cousin Kate," at the Oregon theater on next Sunday, May 1, is no stranger to the metropolitan audience throughout the country. He began his career as a stock actor in Boston. His first notable engagement was with Louis Morrison when that actor was at his best. He later made the world tour as leading man for Nance O'Neil. Returning to New York he joined the Belasco forces, with whom he has since been associated. It was only by great pressure that he was induced to leave and support Miss Russell in "Cousin Kate," but he is so perfectly fitted for the part of the curate that Miss Russell was determined to have him. The balance of the cast have been chosen with equal care, and playgoers will see in "Cousin Kate" the most evenly balanced company to visit us this season.

In speaking of Mr. McGregor's personality in "Cousin Kate," the Winnipeg Tribune says the following: "The curate, Norval McGregor, was a complete study. Excepting the baronet in "The Man from Home" we have not seen an actor attempt such a character without becoming a parody and a weariness to the flesh. Mr. McGregor is a pillar of strength to any company. His urbanity of manner and sense of what is required of a gentleman were refreshing to watch."

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

Girls Near Death.
 Chewelah, Wash.—While playing in the city park Wednesday Hazel Tripp and Helen Whitney, aged 4 and 6 years respectively, fell from a foot plank and were carried down stream under some logs and brush and were nearly dead when rescued by Miss May Garrity, a school teacher.

Census Count in Oregon.
 Portland, Ore.—That Oregon, exclusive of Portland, will run to 700,000 people, is the estimate given out here on good authority.

Reports show that an exceedingly careful count is being made in the towns about the state.

The 1900 census gave the state, excluding Portland, 310,369.

Improve Pullman Service.
 Pullman, Wash.—The Northern Express company will inaugurate free delivery of express packages in the business district May 1.

Keen competition between the express companies' agents is giving Pullman a better express service, which the merchants appreciate. The American Express company's agent has been hustling for routing orders from merchants.

Investigating Murder.
 Colville, Wash.—Deputy Sheriff C. A. Ledgerwood and Prosecuting Attorney H. G. Kirkpatrick returned Wednesday evening from Northport, where they spent two days investigating the supposed murder of Mrs. Geo. L. Peason last fall, for which the husband is now in jail awaiting trial.

Up to this time the state did not have much evidence to work on, and Prosecuting Attorney Kirkpatrick admitted that there was small chance of conviction unless more evidence could be secured.

Sensation in Divorce Suit.
 Portland, Ore.—Charging that his wife fired a revolver and tried to kill him because of her love for Monico Purvine, a Polk county farmer, M. E. Matthews filed answer in court to his suit for divorce Wednesday.

Matthews filed a counter-complaint with his answer. To support his petition he tells the story of his wife's alleged infatuation for Purvine and her alleged attempt to do away with him in order that she might be free to marry the other man.

Matthews says:

"On one occasion when we were all out in the field with our daughter, Purvine was carrying a loaded gun. He pointed it in my direction and she pulled the trigger. The bullet came within a few feet of where I stood, all of which she claimed to be an accident. In my own hearing she had asked Purvine if he would wait a year for her."

TO OUST COLLEGE BOSSES AT COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY

New York.—Political "bosses" among Columbia University undergraduates, members of a small and select clique which controls student affairs, may soon be shorn of their influence. Insurgents among the student body have been insuring industriously for some time, and a general election will probably result in the adoption of the "point system" of distributing college offices.

By this system all student activities are divided into two groups, and no student holding office in one will be eligible for office in the other. The first group includes the manager of any athletic team, captain or assistant manager of a major sport, editor, or business manager of The Spectator or Columbia, and show managers. No student may hold more than one of these offices.

In the second group two offices may be held by one person providing he does not occupy an office in the first division. The second group includes captain of a minor sport team, editor and manager of the Jester and Monthly, presidents of literary societies, the Debating Union and Kings Crown, and managers of musical clubs.

A member of the Student Board said that the "point system" is in force at Harvard, but that it is confined to athletics. The Bernard College girls have a point system similar to that which the Columbia boys propose to adopt.

AFTER SUFFERING ONE YEAR

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Milwaukee, Wis.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me a well woman, and I would like to tell the whole world of it. I suffered from female trouble and fearful pains in my back. I had the best doctors and they all decided that I had a tumor in addition to my female trouble, and advised an operation. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman and I have no more backache. I hope I can help others by telling them what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Mrs. EMMA IMSE, 833 First St., Milwaukee, Wis.

The above is only one of the thousands of grateful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., which prove beyond a doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, actually does cure these obstinate diseases of women after all other means have failed, and that every such suffering woman owes it to herself to at least give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial before submitting to an operation, or giving up hope of recovery.

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health and her advice is free.
