(Staff Correspondence.)

Walla Walla, Wash., May 4.—This city is in the hands of a friendly enemy today. Pendleton has taken full possession, the penitentiary not excluded. The trip of the Pendleton business men and their wives up through the east end of Umatilla county was one triumphal tour. Enthusiastic scenes were enacted at every town visited and the excursionists added to their numbers at Adams, Athena and Weston so that nearly 200 people were crowded into the three coaches and buffet car composing the special train when it pulled into this station.

About 140 people were on the train when it left the Pendleton depot this morning at 8 o'clock, 15 minutes behind the schedule. The first stop was made at Adams and the train was met at the depot by a goodly number of the inhabitants of one of Pendleton's nearest neighbors. The Pendleton band played, publicity ribbons were distributed, a meeting was held, brief speeches were made and then the visitors left for Athena.

Cordial Welcome Accorded. A full hour was spent in this place and it was here that the largest crowd of the entire trip thus far, with the exception of Walla Walla, was found. The reception accorded the visitors by the Athena Commercial association and the citizens generally was cordial and enthusiastic in the fullest sense of the word.

It was after 10 o'clock when the train finally pulled out of the Athena yards for the Weston spur where the last stop was made before Walla Walla was reached. A meeting was held in the opera house and Pendleton's support of the Eastern Oregon state normal school was pledged anew. As at Adams and Athena so here there was no mistaking the cordiality of the welcome extended. The residents of the normal school town turned out en masse.

So pleasant were the stops at each place and with such difficulty did the visitors take their departure that it was noon when the big train with the banners "Pendleton—Publicity for All" pulled into the Garden City depot. Again it was demonstrated that it was no surprise party, for Walla Walla was ready and waiting for the invasion.

Walla Walla Enthusiastic. Chairman T. M. Hanger of the reception committee had everything in readiness for the visitors and a large delegation of Walla Walla business men were on hand to extend the glad hand of good fellowship. A parade was formed with the Walla Walla and Pendleton bands both in line and the enthusiasts were escorted to the Odd Fellows Temple where the banquet was served by the Woman's Park club. Everyone seemed to be making a special effort to outdo the hospitality of the Pendleton people on the occasion of the Walla Walla excursion, April 12.

The weather man had threatened to spoil the day and it is said that it was due to the prayers and entreaties of Publicity Manager Meacham that the storm clouds were persuaded to withhold their threatened deluge.

On the way to the banquet hall, a stop was made at the Walla Walla Commercial club rooms where ribbon badges were exchanged. President J. C. Scott of the Commercial club presided at the banquet. The address of welcome was delivered by Attorney F. A. Garrecht, while Mayor Tausick turned over the keys of the city.

"Pendleton" Appears Everywhere.

It seemed that practically every business house in the city presented an array of streamers, bearing the word "Pendleton," the publicity department having worked late last night in order to have these banners in readiness. These local men who occupied places in the parade also wore these as a token of good fellowship and good will, while each of the visitors were presented with one as a souvenir of the occasion.

One of the most enjoyable features of the visit was the auto tour to the famous Blalock orchard tracts where one of the big artesian wells was permitted to "gush" for the benefit of the visitors. The Walla Walla Meat and Cold Storage plant, said to be one of the largest and best in the west, was also visited. The state penitentiary, Whitman college, Fort Walla Walla and the city park are said to be on the list of places to be viewed yet this afternoon if the time allowed for the visit will permit.

The homeward trip is due to start at 2:30. A stop will be made at the Milton-Freewater station and meetings held in each of these places. The first will be at Milton at 4 o'clock or shortly thereafter and the one at Freewater will follow as soon as the distance between these two towns can be covered. At the close of the Freewater meeting the party will entrain for home. The special is due to reach Pendleton between 8 and 9 o'clock this evening.

"REGULARS" ENRAGED AT PRESIDENT TAFT

SAY HE HAS WRECKED LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

Leaders Especially Incensed Because of His Absence on Pleasure Jaunt at Time When Pet Measure Is Up Before Both Houses.

"GOOD BILL OR NO BILL AT ALL," SAYS BIG BILL.

St. Louis, May 4.—"We're going to have a satisfactory railroad regulation bill, or not have any," declared President Taft today upon his arrival. Taft wouldn't discuss the slaughter of the bill by the two houses yesterday. It is believed he does not intend to submit to the action of congress in chopping out sections of his pet measure. While breakfasting, Taft declared he is satisfied with the progress of the work on the Panama canal.

Washington, D. C., May 4.—Republican regulars are today blaming President Taft for having, as they charge, wrecked his legislative program. They are enraged because of his seeming indifference to the congressional situation. The men who fought for the Taft program in both houses intimate the president hasn't a sense of responsibility of the republican party. It is understood the leaders intend to read a riot act to Taft when he returns to Washington. They believe he should have remained in Washington and fought for his bill instead of going on a pleasure jaunt at a critical time.

KING EDWARD VII IS SEVERELY ARRAIGNED

ALL ENGLAND DISTURBED BY MAGAZINE ARTICLE

Unknown Writer Caustically Criticizes King for Present Situation—Predicts End to Monarchy—Says Edward Prefers Dinners and Races.

London, May 4.—Publishers of the Contemporary Review have created a sensation in England by the disfavor aroused in consequence of an article severely criticizing the king. The writer, his name unascertained, intimated that the king failed in his duty by allowing the struggle between the lords and commons to reach its present strained state, and predicts as a result an end to monarchy unless a peaceful settlement of the dispute is reached. It hints also that the king is indifferent to public affairs and prefers dinners and the races.

BROOM WILL INVADE WASHINGTON MILITIA

Seattle, May 4.—The Washington National Guard is to have a house cleaning. Adjutant General George E. Lamping will have charge and this probably means he will seek the resignation of Captain Maurice Thompson, Colonel Otto A. Case and their followers. At a conference last night Governor Hays decided to end the controversy which threatened to spill the guard, so he gave Lamping a free hand. In the reorganization, it is understood Case the insurgent leader, is slated for removal but will resign voluntarily. The governor said, "The National Guard has been playing politics and that is not the object of the militia. I want military efficiency."

Cousson returned from Madrid where he arranged for the publication of Zelaya's book "The Revolution of Nicaragua Against the United States," which reviews the events leading up to the uprising in which Zelaya blames Knox for much. DISTINGUISHED PARTY ARE ENTERTAINED AT PALACE

Thousands of Norwegians Welcome Mighty Lion Hunter to Christiania—T. B. Rides With Queen Maud While Mrs. Roosevelt and King Haaken Sit Together—Danish People Present Colonel With Loving Cups and Paques.

Christiania, May 4.—King Haaken and Queen Maud were the first persons greeting Roosevelt today when he arrived at noon. Both Roosevelt and the king were in plain frock coats. Thousands crowded at the station and cheered the distinguished visitor wildly.

The Royal band headed the carriages which conveyed the party to the king's palace. Roosevelt was seated with the queen and Mrs. Roosevelt with the king. Later they had luncheon with the king and queen at the American embassy. Tonight Roosevelt will be the guest of the king at a state dinner.

At Christiania the feature of his visit will be the Nobel prize speech. This will be delivered tomorrow afternoon in the National theatre.

Colonel Roosevelt was the recipient yesterday in Copenhagen of two loving cups, one bearing the Danish coat of arms, and the other the American arms, and also four paques from the royal porcelain works, upon which were pictured several wild beasts. In making the presentation the manager of the works told Mr. Roosevelt they were "wild beasts of Africa."

Mr. Roosevelt accepted the paques graciously and while examining the figure of an elephant, looked up suddenly and said smilingly:

"This is not an African elephant." "That is quite true," replied the manager. "These plates were made especially. We have no study of African elephants and use Asiatic."

The incident caused a great deal of amusement and the colonel remarked, "I am very glad to have all kinds of elephants."

The municipality gave a dinner at the city hall in honor of the ex-president which was attended by 250 of the leading men of the city. The lord mayor presided and all the members of the cabinet were present. The mayor proposed the health of the guest of honor and the company cheered as he concluded:

GRAFT PROBE NOW WORKING

Investigation of Bribery Charges in Illinois Political Circles Begins.

REPRESENTATIVE WHITE TELLS WHAT HE KNOWS

District Attorney Probing Bribery Scandal in Connection With Election of U. S. Senator Lorimer—Believed Many Legislators Will Be Involved—Lorimer Brands White's Story As False—More Scandal Threatened By Bill Filed Today.

Chicago, May 4.—Investigation of the bribery charges in connection with the election of United States Senator Lorimer was begun today by District Attorney Wayman and Charles White, a member of the Illinois legislature, was the first witness. He was questioned regarding newspaper statements which it is alleged he made in which he said he received $2000 to vote for Lorimer. Lee O'Neill, democratic leader of the lower house, paid White part of the sum, according to the printed statements. It is expected the grand jury will probe this.

Today's session is expected to be a fishing excursion and it is expected as a result the grand jury will summon a large number of legislators following White's testimony. Lorimer returned from Washington today, but refused to talk except to say that the White story is false.

After White had been examined, State Senator Isley and Representatives Shepard and Tippitt testified. In White's alleged statement Tippitt, it is said, was present when the "jack pot" of residue money raised to secure Lorimer's election, was opened. It has not been ascertained what Tippitt's testimony was. Isley said he had been approached but refused to sell his vote. It is believed the grand jury asked Isley for the name of the man who offered the bribe.

More Scandal Threatened.

Chicago, Ill., May 4.—A sensational bill was filed today by John C. Fetzer seeking to enjoin the Chicago Western & Indiana railroad from collecting $525,000 which he was ordered to pay by the court referee following an investigation recently of graft charges in connection with the road's real estate transactions. The bill may precipitate a situation that will involve questions of bribery in both council and legislature. With the bill Fetzer made public a letter alleged to have been written by F. A. Delano, president of the Wabash railroad and director of the Western & Indiana, to Benjamin Thomas, former president of the Western & Indiana, to Benjamin Thomas, former president of the Western & Indiana. The letter is filled with mysterious hints as to the securing of "quiet legislation."

COMMERCIAL ASSOCIATION ENDORSES MOVEMENT TO RE-ESTABLISH E. O. S. N. S.

By unanimous vote of those present at the Commercial association meeting last night Pendleton placed its cordial endorsement upon the initiative measure prepared in behalf of the Eastern Oregon state normal school at Weston. This action was taken after the cause of the normal school had been ably presented by Clark Wood and G. W. Proebstel of Weston and had also been endorsed by local speakers.

In presenting the case of the normal school, Clark Wood, well known editor of the Weston Leader, went into details regarding the school and showed into disrepute through false accusations. He presented the subject in a concise yet convincing way and at the close of the meeting was warmly congratulated by many who declared they had "learned something" regarding the normal school situation they had not known before.

Following Mr. Wood, ex-Senator Proebstel spoke briefly upon the same subject. He said that during the past winter he investigated the normal schools in California. There are six schools in that state and the smallest institution of the lot, the one at San Diego, received last year more money from the state than has the Eastern Oregon normal since it was established.

At the conclusion of Mr. Proebstel's talk the resolution given below was introduced by E. B. Aldrich, editor of the East Oregonian, who moved its adoption. This motion was seconded by Senator C. J. Smith, who made an earnest talk in support of the school and told some of the difficulties under which the school has labored in the past. In the course of his remarks Senator Smith declared that as a member of the Pendleton school board he had already felt the baneful effect of the closing of the Oregon normals.

T. C. Taylor also endorsed the resolution in a brief but effective talk.

The Resolution.

The following is the resolution that was passed:

Whereas, the educational advantages and standards of Eastern Oregon have suffered thereby, rendering it almost impossible even at this early date for the schools to secure enough competent teachers, and

Whereas, we believe it would be to the advantage of eastern Oregon, from an educational, social and financial standpoint to have sufficient money appropriated for the maintenance of the Eastern Oregon Normal School at Weston, and

Whereas, friends of the E. O. S. N. S. are endeavoring to provide such an appropriation through an initiative measure, therefore be it

Resolved that the Pendleton Commercial association heartily endorse this effort to provide maintenance for this school and be it further

Resolved, that this association use its best efforts in furtherance of this cause.
