JUNKET TRIP WAS A SPLENDID SUCCESS

WALLA WALLANS WERE ENTERTAINING HOSTS
 Good Cheer and Harmony Features of Long Day's Junket—People Favor Publicity Plan—All Except J. P. Neal.

It was a well satisfied brigade of boosters that returned to the city on the Commercial club special at 7 o'clock last night after a strenuous day with the people of the east end and of Walla Walla. Though somewhat tired by the hard day's trip and by the entertainment provided by the Garden City folks and others along the line, the best of feeling prevailed among the junketers for all realized that the trip had accomplished something for Pendleton and for Umatilla county.

Publicity was the watchword of the junket trip and everywhere the party stopped the waiting people were told of the plan for organizing a county publicity bureau to work for the greater settlement and development of all sections of the county. It may be truthfully said that the proposition was cordially received. Copies of the petition for a vote upon the subject were left in all the towns within the county and the leaders in the different communities agreed to have the petitions circulated.

Walla Walla Entertained.
 The great feature of the trip yesterday was the splendid reception accorded the delegation by the hospitable people of Walla Walla. When the special arrived in the Garden City at noon it became apparent at once that Walla Walla was waiting with open arms to receive the crowd and to repay Pendleton for the courtesies shown the Garden City people when they were in Pendleton.

At the depot the Walla Walla band played a welcoming air as the train arrived and a string of autos was in readiness to care for the ladies. The parade from the depot to the banquet room where lunch was served was through streets lined with welcoming banners and pennants.

Following the luncheon and until 3:30 the members of the party were driven about the city in automobiles. Visits were made to the Blalock farm where artesian wells spouted their streams high into the air, to the penitentiary and to other points of interest about the city.

A Trolley Ride.
 Upon the arrival at Milton at 4 o'clock it was learned that the people of Freewater and Milton had arranged a most enjoyable trolley ride for the delegation. One of the interurban cars was used for the purpose and a run was made as far north as State Line, the trip being through a splendid portion of that country and a region that shows the beneficial effects that have followed the building of the interurban.

The Milton Meeting.
 At Milton the meeting was held in the new opera house and it was attended by some of the most prominent men of the two towns, though the attendance was not as large as had been anticipated. Hon. S. D. Peterson, president of the Commercial club of Milton, presided and welcomed the delegation to that city. In behalf of the junketers J. R. Raley spoke briefly and then Judge S. A. Lowell was introduced for the principal address of the meeting. In an eloquent talk Judge Lowell presented in an appropriate way the broad purposes of the expedition and put particular stress upon the fact that in advocating the establishment of a publicity bureau Pendleton is not moved by selfish motives, but is out with a genuine attempt to aid the progress and development of all sections of Umatilla county. The applause which followed the conclusion of Judge Lowell's address testified to the endorsement of his sentiments and likewise to the personal popularity of the speaker with the Milton people and with his own delegation.

One Jarring Note.
 The only discordant note at the Milton meeting, or of the entire day for that matter, was struck by J. P. Neal, the Freewater attorney and the leader of the move to divide Umatilla county. None of the previous speakers had referred to the issue of county division and the meeting had been marked by general good will. Mr. Neal, however, spoke in a sarcastic vein and showed a feeling of rancor that was out of harmony with the spirit of the occasion. The incident, though, was treated lightly by members of the delegation, especially so after local people at Milton had expressed regret over the occurrence.

Weston and Athena Loyal.
 At Weston and Athena all of the speakers manifested loyalty to Umatilla county and made it plain that the move for division had no friends in those two little cities. For Athena this declaration was boldly made by B. B. Richards, president of the Commercial club and the cashier of the First National bank.

At Weston a big banner had been strung across the street, near the public fountain, and it bore the legend:
 "Weston is for Umatilla county and the Eastern Oregon Normal School."
 The Weston speakers included S. A. Barnes, Mayor Turner and Clark Wood and all voiced loyalty to Umatilla county as it now exists. Colonel Wood made an eloquent plea for the normal school and was heartily applauded. T. C. Taylor and W. L. Thompson led in giving three cheers for the eastern Oregon normal.

The Band Was There.
 On the trip the local delegation was accompanied by the band and at all the points visited the band led the processions and the music did much to enliven the occasion. At Weston the ladies' band played a welcoming selection and several other numbers during the course of the program. It is a very creditable band and was a popular organization yesterday.

At Milton the local delegation was accompanied by the band and at all the points visited the band led the processions and the music did much to enliven the occasion. At Milton the ladies' band played a welcoming selection and several other numbers during the course of the program. It is a very creditable band and was a popular organization yesterday.

C., May 5.—(Special)—George Coe, recently elected as the first mayor of Stanfield, Oregon, took the oath of office at 1 o'clock today before the clerk of the supreme court of the United States. The swearing in of the young mayor of the little Oregon city was a unique proceeding for the court. Mayor Coe is the son of Dr. Henry W. Coe, of Portland, and is 25 years of age.

RUSSIA TO BUILD AIRCRAFT.

National Defense Committee Presents Plans to Duma.
 St. Petersburg—Russia does not propose to be left in the race for the supremacy of the air. The National Defense committee has presented to the duma proposals which have been acted on favorably which will provide for a comprehensive fleet of air warships, the training of a corps of aeronautic service and for the providing of means for defense against hostile air craft.
 The details of the plans are, of course, kept secret, but it is certain that they will be carried forward with the greatest possible rapidity and that in a short time Russia will have an air fleet and a corps of expert aeronauts second to none in the world.

PRESIDENT TAFT IS A CONFIRMED GADABOUT

Washington.—The village gossip here have delivered the verdict. Neighbor Taft is a "gadabout." Not a mild "gadabout," who gads a little now and then, but a real all-wool-and-ayard-wide "gadabout," who is on the go all the time. And if you don't believe it look at the record.

The White House hearthstone has been singularly deserted since the Taft regime began. When he is not traveling outside of Washington, dinners, parties, balls, banquets, conventions, the theatre, social and business gatherings of all kinds, drag the presidential presence from the executive roof-tree, and the said presence seems not to be averse to being dragged away. On the contrary it seems to enjoy it.

Probably two-thirds of the "occasions" have demanded speeches, impromptu or otherwise. Several million words of public speaking have been turned out by the president in the last year. At least two nights a week, when he is in Washington, the president attends the theatre. Often he first takes in the play, and afterwards hurries away to some other function, a dinner, or dance. Is it strange that the luxuriant mustache that hides—or reveals—the famous Taft smile is growing gray?

Probably no other president ever put the physical effort into gadding about that Taft does. Certainly he holds the record for continuous performances. Three engagements in an evening with two speeches to deliver is no uncommon thing for him.

Besides all this, President Taft does a real day's work every day. He is up at 7 for a half hour's hard exercise with his physical trainer, who puts him through a strenuous course of "setting up" drills and shadow boxing before the day's business begins. From 9:30 until 2 he is at the executive offices, grinding out a grit of handshakers, and handling executive business and legislative callers. At 2 a short hour for luncheon and he is back on the job until six. From then until 7:30 he usually takes his daily walk, hurrying back to the White House for dinner, and to prepare for the strenuous evening, with its theatre, dinners and speeches.

All this is wearing down the avoirdupois of the executive, but the ones who are getting nervous protesting over it are the Secret Service men. To them the present program means work almost without end. Hundreds of petty details must be attended to every time the president goes to the theatre or takes a walk, and it is up to the quiet complacent walking arsenal to do the work. Just now they are thinking fondly of the luxurious Roosevelt days, when hard work consisted of a 15 or 20 mile walk through a rain storm, or a 90 mile horseback trot, and it did not involve six nights a week of social functioning.

SERVICES AT TUTUILLA.

Indians are Encamped About Mission—Meetings Each Day.
 (Special Correspondence.)
 Tutuilla Mission, May 5.—The preliminary meeting of the encampment was held Tuesday night and services were continued on Wednesday at 9:00 a. m. and 2:00 p. m. and 8:00 p. m., which will be the time of the services each day to follow.
 The 2:00 o'clock service on Wednesday was addressed by Rev. D. A. Thompson pastor of the Sellwood Presbyterian church, Portland, Ore., on Christian Endeavor work. The address was a very carefully prepared and well delivered one and was very instructive to those present. Not many visitors have come from other reservations as yet, but a fair crowd of local people from the reservation are encamped around the church, and there are about 20 teepees and tents and houses in which the people are living during the meetings. Mr.

Thompson will address the Christian Nurture Conference in Pendleton Presbyterian church tonight on the "Attitude of the Bible and the Church toward the Children," and all will do well to hear him and his message. Rev. R. E. Storey pastor of the Pendleton Baptist church spoke to the Indian congregation this afternoon at 2:00 on the Sabbath school work and Rev. J. R. Knowdell on Friday on Temperance work. And Mrs. Mossmann of Portland representing the Woman's North Pacific Board of Missions, and president of the Board will speak to the woman on Friday on the woman's work of the church. All interested in these addresses to be delivered at Tutuilla are welcome for they are spoken in English and interpreted into Indian.

PENDLETON ATHLETES GO TO ENTER WHITMAN MEET

Determined to return with as many gold medals as possible, the Pendleton high school's five-man track team went to Walla Walla this morning. The preliminaries in the big Inland Empire inter-collegiate meet will be held in that city today and tomorrow the finals will be run off. The boys do not expect to win the championship, but they do expect to make a good showing.

Those in the team are Boylen, Devine, Gordan, Kimball and Fee. With the exception that Boylen will not enter the half, but will confine his efforts to winning the mile run, the team will go after the events as originally planned.

In the declamation contest, the Pendleton school will be represented by Miss Gwendolin Smith, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Smith. This contest will be held tonight. The only member of the faculty of the local school to be present will be Miss Melnikoth, who will accompany Miss Smith.

Others who went over to witness the field meet were Orie Jay, the former high school star; Dot Anger, Claude Hampton and Richard Thompson.

STUDENTS TO FILL RANKS OF CO. L

At the Commercial association rooms this evening a meeting of young men is to be held for the purpose of securing recruits for company L. It will be largely a students' meeting and all male students of the high school, academy and business college are requested to attend. At the high school assembly this morning Captain C. J. Ferguson of the company, and George Hartman, Jr., late first lieutenant in the Second Oregon, addressed the students regarding the company and asked the boys to be out for the meeting tonight.

Under the regulations now in force it is necessary for the company to recruit prior to May 8 all men that are to be taken to the encampment at American Lake. Therefore all those who wish to go with the company this summer and enjoy the sport and the experience at the big maneuver camp must enlist at once.

Those desiring to join the company, whether students or not, are requested to attend the meeting at the association rooms this evening.

"And so," began the browbeating attorney to the shabby witness, "you live by your wits, do you?"
 "No, sir; by other folks' lack of them," corrected the witness modestly.—Youth's Companion.
