Do You Get Up With a Lame Back?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everyone knows of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. Because of its remarkable health restoring properties, Swamp-Root fulfills almost every wish in overcoming rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night.

Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble, it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been thoroughly tested in private practice, and has proved so successful that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble.

When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Home Address, Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all druggists. Don't make any mistake but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

"Wine, Women and Song."

The fame and popularity of Bonita, the famous beauty, after her New York triumphs in the sparkling musical comedy "Wine, Women and Song" extends even far beyond the regular theatre-going public into the large class who are never attracted to the ordinary musical comedy. Bonita, is recognized all over the world as the reigning stage beauty, no other lyric actress has been so universally admired. Bonita will be seen for the first time in our city on Tuesday, May 10, at the Oregon theatre, in the musical comedy hit, "Wine, Women and Song," the same hit that played at the Circle theatre, in New York city for a period of some 400 nights. The offering is a glorious one embracing as it does as clever a number of comedians, and pretty girls ever seen on our local stage. The cast is positively guaranteed as the same that was in Bonita's support in New York, and numbers fifty people, a large chorus. The ladies who will witness Bonita, will admire the gowns worn by this clever prima donna, all Parisian made, ten in number, the latest one is the much talked of Chanteclair gown, that was the craze of Paris, all season, and comes from the shop of Ediel, of Paris. Quite a few features are seen in this the greatest musical show now on tour, one is the imitation of the Christy Girl, by Bonita, another the funny little sheriff, which is portrayed by Lew Herr, and still another the impersonations of the following well-known stars: Robert Mantell, David Warfield, Geo. M. Coban, Enrico Caruso, Chauncey Olcott, Sullivan Connors, Sam Bernard, Fay Templeton, Maud Adams, Blanche Bates, and many others. Quite a few song numbers are introduced, all of the advance sale opens on Monday, May 9 at 10 a. m. Indications are that Bonita in "Wine, Women and Song," will play to a capacity house.

"St. Elmo" in Stage Garb.

Millions have read the story of "St. Elmo," for it is some thirty years old.

Augusta Evans has depicted a marvelous redemption of a sin-blacked soul and Frederick Belasco has used all his stagecraft in his excellent production.

"St. Elmo" was the best seller long before the vogue of "best sellers" and has created a decided furore in the realms of novel readers.

Strange indeed it is that Augusta J. Evans—or to be more correct Augusta J. Evans Wilson—never allowed a stage version to be made of the novel and it was not until the story had blazed a flaming trail through a gamut of copyright laws that we have at last a stage version of the book, and recent years have not produced anything quite so absorbingly interesting as this intensely human and sensational work.

In the dramatic form the story exemplifies the redemption of "St. Elmo Murray" a man of unusual learning, refinement and intellect, who, in

WHAT WONT MEN DO TO SEE A BALLGAME?

Washington.—It is a common thing according to all reports, for the small boy who wants to see the ballgame to make the excuse that his "grandmother" is ill, but it is unusual for a grown man to resort to such subterfuges.

Yet that is just what go Private Wm. Dales, of the 24th United States Infantry into trouble. Stationed at Fort Ontario, this soldier wanted to visit Buffalo. So he "faked" a telegram from his "Aunt Jennie" saying that his grandmother was very sick. His deception was found out and he was promptly court-martialed, with the result that he was dishonorably discharged, forfeiting all pay and allowances due him, and sent to prison with hard labor for six months.

Combined Harvester vs. Stationary Harvester

The following figures will show you why the progressive farmer who uses the HOLT COMBINED HARVESTER succeeds and is able to buy his neighbor's land.

Two farmers, Mr. Brown and Mr. Jones each have 800 acres of grain to harvest. Neither one have their own outfit and each must either buy an outfit complete or hire the work done.

Mr. Brown hires a stationary outfit to head and thresh his grain, under the following terms:

Heading 800 acres, at $2.00 per acre	$1,600
Threshing 800 acres, 30 bu. grain, at 7c per bu.	1,680
Waste (from header and thrasher in field) 3 bu per acre at 75c per bu	1,800
Brown's total expense	$5,080

Mr. Jones buys a HOLT COMBINED HARVESTER and his complete equipment costs him

Hires 26 horses to operate his machine, at 75c per day per animal, for 25 days	492
Labor, 5 men 25 days at $3.00 per day	375
Board of 5 men 25 days	63
Jones' total expense	$2,940

Subtracting Jones' expense bill from that of Brown show us that Mr. Jones has a new combined harvester and $2,140 in money more than Mr. Brown from the same acreage in one harvest, besides Jones will have his harvester the next year assuring another saving of $2,000 on his next year's crop.

Figures will not lie. Can you show us any good reason why you should not own your own harvester?

If you want to buy a HOLT COMBINED HARVESTER for June shipment, see

E. L. Smith, Pendleton, Ore. A complete line of extras always on hand.
