TO AILING WOMEN.
A Little Sound Advice Will Help Many a Sufferer in Pendleton.
No woman can be healthy and well if the kidneys are sick. Poisons that pass off in the urine when the kidneys are well are retained in the body when the kidneys are sick. Kidneys and bladder get inflamed and swollen, crowding the delicate female organs nearby and sometimes displacing them. This is the true cause of many bearing-down pains, lameness, backache, sideache, etc. Uric poisoning also causes headaches, dizzy spells, languor, nervousness and rheumatic pain.
When suffering so, try Doan's Kidney Pills, the remedy that cures sick kidneys. You will get better as the kidneys get better, and health will return when the kidneys are well. Let a fellow-sufferer tell you about Doan's Kidney Pills.
Mrs. J. T. Galloway, C. Ct., Elgin Ore., says: "Judging from the benefit I derived from Doan's Kidney Pills, I can recommend them as a reliable remedy for the kidneys. I used them principally for a severe pain across my back, which had annoyed me for some time. The results that followed the use of the first box were so beneficial that I continued taking them and my back has given me but little trouble since."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents.
Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

FATHER OF 23 HUNTS HOUSE BIG ENOUGH

Ann Arbor, Mich.—Gottlieb Von Renslear of Missouri is being shown the largest available house here. Though none appears big enough to him as yet, he has decided that Ann Arbor is the proper place in which to rear and educate his 15 daughters and 8 sons.

Four of the daughters are to be added to the university registration soon and when the other 11 daughters and 8 sons and the mother and father are settled Ann Arbor, it is said, will be the "home of the biggest family in America."

Despairing of finding an adequate town house Mr. Von Renslear has in contemplation a four acre tract in the suburbs. He expects to bring with him four cows, each of which is to be owned and attended by one of the coeds elect.

Mr. Von Renslear, who is a farmer dairyman and wears a silk hat, says he has a letter from Colonel Roosevelt commending his anti-race suicide views.

SPANISH PRINCES ARE ROBUST YOUNGSTERS

Madrid.—Unfavorable rumors concerning the health of the heir to the Spanish throne have been so insistent within the last few weeks, that public alarm has been caused to an extent necessitating reassurances from the highest authorities.

It had been freely asserted that both the Prince of Asturias and his brother Don Jaime were deaf and dumb. The Prince of Asturias, it is further alleged, was mentally afflicted, while Don Jaime was threatened with a serious spinal complaint. The latter report was dispelled by the reproduction of the latest photographs of both the royal children. Don Jaime's appearance being that of a child of more than ordinarily robust health.

Other doubts, however, still persisted in the popular and un instructed mind until removed as the result of several interviews held with the little princes by persons of high standing. These interviews have been published in the newspapers.

HERO OF LONGFELLOW'S POEM DIES AT 76

Boston.—Longfellow's "Village Blacksmith" is dead. He was Thaddeus W. Tyler, of Lynn, Mass., and was 76 years old when he died. To his children Mr. Tyler often told of his acquaintance with the poet, while he worked at a forge in a Cambridge blacksmith shop.

Longfellow showed him the manuscript of the "Village Blacksmith," and discussed this and other poems with him. He was born in Warren, N. H., and in 1849 he came to Boston to learn his trade with John Tuttle, who fashioned the first wagon springs. Then he went to Cambridge, where "under a spreading chestnut tree, the village smithy stands."

Later he engaged in the shoemaking industry. He married Elizabeth M. Reed of Bath, N. H., and they celebrated their golden wedding in 1903.

Preacher Seeks Charity.
New York.—The Rev. W. Marye, of nowhere in particular, was a lodger at the Municipal lodging house for a night. He is on his way to Egypt and India, having left San Francisco seven years ago. His mission, he says is to preach "the pure gospel."

He told Superintendent York of the lodging house that he has no particular creed and that his task is to better the spiritual conditions of all people. He left San Francisco practically penniless. Sometimes, he said, there were long intervals between his meals. He is wondering how he can get across the Atlantic.

CAPITALIST, 70 YEARS OLD, WALKS 700 MILES

Washington.—Barlow N. Higginbotham, Chicago's septuagenarian capitalist, who has been doing a 700 mile walk for the fun of it, reached Washington, and as a fitting finish, he made the circuit of the capital corridors before starting home.

Mr. Higginbotham visited his friend, Senator Cullom, and told the aged statesman what a splendid thing such a walking tour is for a young fellow of 70. It was the fifth time he had made the trip over the devious route from the Virginia Hot Springs to the capitol, he said, the first time as a soldier in the civil war.
