UNIVERSITY OF OREGON HOLDS ANNUAL ELECTION

University of Oregon, Eugene.—The varsity Wednesday held its annual student body elections. The polls were open from 10 to 2 and the voting was conducted in regular Australian ballot form.

In all 461 votes were cast. This was a much heavier vote than last year, due no doubt to the keen rivalry among the candidates. The campus has been a hotbed of politics for the last week and electioneering has been rife. During the afternoon counting bulletins were issued at intervals to an interested crowd. At 5:15 the complete returns were announced as follows: Percy M. Collier of Eugene won out over two rivals for the presidency of the student body. Collier is a prominent debater and led this year's varsity team. He is also a prominent literary and Y. M. C. A. worker. The contest for this office between the three was extremely hard fought. Verner Gillis, last year's varsity football guard, secured the vice presidency.

Miss Edith Woodcock of Portland, after an exciting race, captured the secretaryship. This position always goes to the woman.

Of a field of five Raphael Giesler of Portland and Phillip Brownell of Gardiner were elected to the executive committee.

Three of Oregon's best athletes were put on the athletic council which has control of varsity athletics. There were five candidates and the result was close. Charles Taylor of Vancouver, captain-elect of the football team, Martin Hawkins of Portland, the sprinter, and Ferdinand Henkle also of Portland, Oregon, famous southpaw, were the lucky ones.

Ralph Moore of Salem was elected editor in chief of the "Emerald," the college semi-weekly publication. C. A. Osterholm was chosen manager of the same paper and Phillip Hammond the latter's assistant. Dean Collins, an experienced newspaper man, was elected editor of the Oregon monthly, the literary publication. Ted Williams and Lee Huggins were chosen as manager and assistant respectively of the same paper.

Of seven candidates four were chosen as assistant editors of the monthly. They were: Birdie Wise of Astoria, Alma Payton of Eugene, Lucile Abrams of Eugene, Willetta Wright of Albany. The newly elected officers will enter on their official duties with the new school year next September.

JEFFRIES MAKES A VERY POOR SHOWING

Ben Lomond, Cal., May 9.—Jeffries put up a poor show in the ring today. Compared to his work last week he was both slow of eye and foot, and the audience in the gymnasium, which included Promoter Tex Rickard, and Jeffries' father and brother, was disappointed.

To begin with, Jeffries, slept until late in the morning and when he appeared in the ring stripped for action he lacked life that he has shown on other days. To make matters worse the grouch which Jeffries displayed during the early part of his training siege returned in double force, and the fighter was as affable as a gorilla.

Seven rounds in all marked the ring work. Three with Joe Choynski were featureless except as showing that the ex-champion was not up to form.

In the second round of his bout with Bob Armstrong the spectators were led to think that he had dropped the negro, for Armstrong stretched his full length on the mat. It developed, however, that it was only a slip. A few moments later Jeffries stepped on his own foot and went down in the spot where Armstrong had fallen.

After the boxing the striking punch came in for a hard trouncing and later handball was indulged in. As a whole, however, the day was filled with disappointments.

Rickard will leave here tomorrow morning. He declared that he and Berger had not discussed the referee question.

MISS DOROTHY MORTON COMING TO PENDLETON

In the limited field of prima-donna comedienne, Miss Dorothy Morton occupies a distinguished position. There are many prima donnas on the stage today, and many comedienne; but there are few who combine the qualifications of being prima donna as well as that of a comedienne. In fact the number of prima-donna comedienne may be counted on the fingers of one hand.

The fame of Dorothy Morton is as wide as the territory where the English language is spoken to which may be added many foreign countries.

FOR NEW FARMER CLASS.

Peasant, Under New Provision, May Now Sell His Land.

St. Petersburg.—The agrarian revolution proceeds apace. The Council of the Empire has now passed a provision that the holdings of peasants under the new system of land tenure which is fast superseding the rural commune shall be individual and not family property. The step is one of incalculable importance to the future social and economical life of Russia. The peasant not being bound to leave his holdings to his heirs, but being free to sell it, the land will in course of time pass into the hands of the thrifter and more industrious, thus creating a new farmer class, while the landless will pass into the towns or become agricultural laborers.

Keir Hardie on Suffrage.

London.—Keir Hardie, the labor leader in parliament, said during a recent speech at Swinman, Wales: "I should not be astonished if within two years a bill for woman suffrage goes through all its stages in parliament with the approval of all parties."
