which a high material development in the things of the body shall be achieved without subordination of the things of the soul; in which there shall be a genuine desire for peace and justice without loss of those virile qualities without which no love of peace or justice shall avail any race; in which the fullest development of scientific research, the great distinguishing feature of our present civilization, shall yet not imply a belief that intellect can ever take the place of character—for, from the standpoint of the nation as of the individual, it is character that is the one vital possession.

"Finally, this world movement of civilization, this movement which is now felt throbbing in every corner of the globe, should bind the nations of the world together while yet leaving unimpaired that love of country in the individual citizen which in the present stage of the world's progress is essential to the world's well-being. You, my hearers, and I who speak to you, belong to different nations. Under modern conditions the books we read, the news sent by telegraph to our newspapers, the strangers we meet, half of the things we hear and do each day, all tend to bring us into touch with other peoples. Each people can do justice to itself only if it does justice to others; but each people can do its part in the world movement for all only if it first does its duty within its own household. The good citizen must be a good citizen of his own county first before he can with advantage be a citizen of the world at large. I wish you well. I believe in you and your future. I admire and wonder at the extraordinary greatness and variety of your achievements in so many and such widely different fields; and my admiration and regard are all the greater, and not the less, because I am so profound a believer in the institutions and the people of my own land."

End of Torpedo Boats.

Paris.—The French navy department has decided that the day of the torpedo boat is over. No more vessels of this type are to be constructed, but destroyers and submarines will gradually take their place. Torpedo boats have an age limit of seven years, so that all the vessels of this class will be "scrapped" between the years 1920 and 1923.

QUICK KNIFE BEST CURE FOR APPENDICITIS CASES

Berlin.—In view of the differences of opinion which have recently shown themselves as to the treatment of appendicitis, it is of interest that at the annual conference of the German Society of Surgeons held here, a very full discussion of this subject revealed complete unanimity in favor of early operation the only trustworthy method of curing the disease. Dr. Kummel of Hamburg said that with early operation he had experienced only one-half per cent cases of mortality. A Breslau surgeon said that by tireless and systematic agitation for early operation, he had succeeded in reducing the mortality from appendicitis in a single year from 29 to eight per cent.

BEE CASE ARGUED IN ECHO JUSTICE COURT

CASE IS SET FOR TRIAL ON WEDNESDAY, MAY 18

Brackenbury and Miller at Law Over Ownership of Bees and Bee Supplies—Much Interest Manifest in Water Hearing of State Board—Other News Notes.

(Special Correspondence.) Echo, Ore., May 11.—The case of J. W. Brackenbury vs. Frank Miller involving the sale and ownership of bees and bee supplies was argued by Attorneys Etah and Hinkle in Justice Scholl's court yesterday. An amended answer was filed by the defense and the case is set for trial on Wednesday, May 18.

A great deal of interest is being taken in the water hearing by the State Board of Control which will be held here on the 16, 17 and 18 of this month. One hundred and seventy registered letters were received here notifying land owners of the hearing. A number of attorneys will be present representing both individuals and corporations, and it is doubtful if the hearing can be completed in three days.

The Western Land and Irrigation company report steady sales of their lands. The latest were: 8 acres to Louis E. Wood; 15 acres to Frank A. Wood; 10 acres to C. E. Opel; 10 acres to F. Owen; 30 acres to A. Murray; 10 acres to C. O. Jones; 10 acres to C. F. Morrow. The above were all eastern men.

Among those who attended the business meeting of the baseball league held yesterday at Stanfield were R. E. Stanfield, treasurer of the league; C. A. Gilbert, director; E. H. MacWhorter and John Durham, all of this place. It was decided at the meeting that hereafter the umpire, while agreeable to both teams, should be a man not interested in or belonging to either team or to the home towns of the players engaged.

The Echo Cornet Band will accompany the baseball team to Hermiston next Sunday where the return game between Echo and Hermiston is to be played. Earl Cates, who has been employed the past year with the Echo Lumber Co. as bookkeeper and general assistant, left the first of the week for Endarby, B. C., where he will hold a similar position with a lumber company of that place. Rev. A. M. Lambert returned yesterday from Spokane where he underwent an operation. He has been confined in the hospital at that place for the past six weeks. Mr. Lambert's condition is much improved, but he will not be able to resume his work for some time. Jas. Leasia of Baker City, is the guest of friends here. Mrs. C. R. Bonney left this morning for Woodburn, Ore., where she will visit her daughter Mrs. Robt. Scott until Monday, or time for her to go on to Eugene to attend the Rebekah assembly. J. W. Messner, president of the W. L. & L. Co., is in La Grande on business. Mrs. Elmer Spike and Mrs. Elvira Teel spent today visiting in Pendleton. Mrs. Ross Fulford returned to her home in Stanfield today after a short visit here. Mrs. Dunn and daughter and Mrs. E. H. Brown were visitors here yesterday from Stanfield. A touch of rheumatism, or a twinge of enurialgia, whatever the trouble is, Chamberlain's Liniment drives away the pain at once and cures the complaint quickly. First application gives relief. Sold by all dealers. Notice Eastern Star. Bushie chapter No. 19, O. E. S., will hold a special meeting Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock for the purpose of conferring degrees. ### ACTIVITIES AROUND O. R. & N. YARDS

NEW ROUNDHOUSE COMPLETED AND OLD ONE IS TORN DOWN

New Roundhouse Is Big Improvement Over Old—Work on New Depot Progressing Rapidly—What Will Become of Old Structure?

The old O. R. & N. roundhouse which has done service in Pendleton for many years is now at the mercy of a crew of dismantlers and will soon be no more. The new roundhouse, located on the opposite corner of the railroad yards, is now ready for occupancy and the work of tearing down the old structure was undertaken this morning. From the progress being made today it is evident that by tomorrow evening there will be little if anything left to mark the spot.

The work of erecting the new roundhouse almost exactly on the corner of Aura and Bluff streets was started several months ago. After the frame work was up and the roof on, operations were called off for some time during the bad winter weather. Recently the work of completing the building was started and the last spike to hold the house rails was driven yesterday. The turntable had already been made ready for use and the new side track had been laid in from the main line. The rails on this sidetrack are of the heaviest steel in use on the line and the turntable can therefore be used for turning the heavy mountain engines when necessary.

Work on the new depot is also progressing rapidly and within a very short time this structure will also be ready for occupancy. What will be done with the old building when the transfer is made to the new is still a much mooted question among citizens. If the railroad officials themselves know they have not yet seen fit to make the public acquainted with their plans.

The one difference between some men and all dogs is that the latter whine for a reason.

CLEAN-UP DAY FOR OLNEY CEMETERY

FRIDAY, MAY 28 IS DESIGNATED FOR MOVE

Council Committee Sets Aside Day for Beautification of Burial Ground—Owners of Lots Are Asked to Help City.

Friday afternoon, May 20, is to be cleaning up day for Olney cemetery. This was the announcement made this morning by Chairman Dyer of the council cemetery committee who is anxious to have the cemetery cleaned up and beautified before Decoration day.

Owing to a lack of funds for this purpose the city will be unable to do the work and a call is therefore being issued for volunteers. Automobiles, carriages and wagons will be provided to convey to the cemetery all those who are willing to assist and Mr. Dyer believes that with interest being manifested it will be possible to put the cemetery in the best shape it has ever been.

Local people who have relatives buried there are expected to clean up their own lots but there are many graves that now have no one to care for them and it is desired that the weeds be pulled from these. With enough volunteers it will be an easy matter to clean up the cemetery in half a day, according to Mr. Dyer.

He has engaged the city grader to put the streets and drive ways in condition and the city will also employ a man to cut the tall grass from the alleys and unsold lots.

Stores May Close. It has been suggested that the business houses close for several hours during the afternoon and that the proprietors and employees be taken for an auto ride to the cemetery to take part in the good work. Mr. Dyer says he is willing to close up his place of business and to donate the services of himself, his employees and his teams and wagons.

The water for irrigating the lots is now available and those who have not made arrangements for the use of water during the coming summer season are urged to do so at once. A charge of $4 per season is made to cover the expenses of watering and this charge must be paid whether the water is used one month or six so that there is nothing to be gained by delay. Those who donated to the cemetery fund are allowed an annual discount of 25 per cent until the amount of their donation is repaid.

AVIATION CRAZE IS SPREADING IN GERMANY

Berlin.—Nothing could more strikingly indicate the enormous progress of aviation in Germany than the fact that no fewer than seven separate flying weeks have already been organized for the spring and summer of 1910.

The program is as follows:

- Berlin, May 10 to 16 (international).
- Munich, June 4 to 12 (national).
- Danzig, June 18 to 26 (national).
- Leipzig, July 10 to 17 (national).
- Berlin, August 7 to 13 (national).
- The predominance of "week" in which competition is limited to German aeroplanists is significant of the rapidity with which the Teutons have taken up flying as a science and a pastime. The new flying grounds at Johannisthal, near Berlin, are the scenes of almost daily flights, and a regular program is offered on Sunday afternoons. The Kaiser's hint that he wants more flying men in the army is being enthusiastically taken up by young military men.

Eat Donkey Meat in Paris. Paris.—Donkeys as well as horses furnish food to the Parisians. Of 110 tons of sausage offered for sale at a recent street fair in Paris, nine tons were made of horse meat and 17 of mule or donkey flesh.
