Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Rothrock Has Auto.
L. C. Rothrock, the well-known retired farmer has purchased an auto. It is one of the Chalmers-Detroit cars recently brought to the city.

Church Dinner Postponed.
Instead of being given on May 24 as originally planned the dinner to be given by the ladies of the Parish Aid society of the Church of the Redeemer will be given on May 25.

Cohen Buys Auto.
Leon Cohen is now a member of the local auto brigade. He recently purchased a Maxwell runabout and was with the Pendleton contingent at the baseball game at Athena yesterday.

Brother Is Ill.
W. L. Thompson, president of the American National bank, is now at Asotin, Wash., having been called to that town by the serious illness of a brother. Mr. Thompson is expected home tomorrow.

Two Marriage Licenses.
Marriage licenses have been issued to Emmett J. Kimberling of King county, Washington and Frances Mabel Franklin and to Robert M. Townsend of Portland and Frances Hays of Pendleton.

Fire at Kennewick.
Trainmen arriving today on the Northern Pacific branch line train state that when the train left Kennewick this morning a fire was raging in that town. Several buildings were in flames and there were indications that it would prove a serious conflagration.

Motor Car Was Loaded.
The largest crowd yet carried by the motor car on a regular run was brought up from the west end of the county this morning. Starting with a number of passengers at Umatilla Conductor Cross picked up passengers all along the line until there were some standing in the aisles when the car pulled into the local depot.

Grading Examination Papers.
The county examining board, consisting of County Superintendent Welles, Mrs. Frank K. Welles, Mrs. Mary Harvey and Miss Belle Wallace, is engaged today in grading the manuscript of those pupils from the county's town and rural schools who took the final eighth grade examinations last week. Sets of examination questions were sent out to 152 pupils, which is an unusually large number.

First Concert Wednesday.
Instead of being given Thursday night as was originally announced, the first concert of the series to be given by the commercial club and the ladies' clubs will be held at the fair pavilion Wednesday evening. After this week the concerts will likely be held each Friday evening. The concert is to be given by the United orchestra of 15 pieces, and will be for the general public. No admission will be charged.

Mrs. Galligan Dead.
Mrs. Emily E. Galligan, wife of H. T. Galligan, formerly a conductor on the old W. & C. R. road, died at her parents home in El Paso, Texas, on April 21. She was buried in Milwaukee on April 27 by the side of her father and mother. During their stay here the Galligans made many friends and news of Mrs. Galligan's death has been received with sorrow. News of the death was contained in a letter received by Mrs. E. J. Murphy.

Incorporation Papers Filed.
Articles of incorporation were filed with the county clerk today for the Presque Isle Fruit company, The Pennsylvania Fruit company, The Erie Oregon Fruit company and the Keystone Fruit company. The place of business of each concern is given as Hermiston and the object is the development of Hermiston fruit land. The capital stock of each is placed at $10,000. The incorporators of the first company are Frank X. Fries, C. L. Morgan, John Van Geen; of the second, Walter H. Kellam, W. G. Fritts, and George A. Luke; of the third, are Otto G. Sapper, Norma R. Kellam and Delma Van Geen and for the fourth are John Van Geen, Frank X. Fries and C. L. Morgan.

The Widow Jones.
Pendleton people lost by not attending the production of the "Widow Jones" by Dorothy Morton and her troupe last night. It was one of the cleverest plays seen here this winter and made a hit with the faithful theater goers who were out for the Sunday night performance. Dorothy Morton is still a pleasing singer and actress in spite of a slight obesity. Then she has a well balanced troupe and it includes some good singers and some mirth producers. Chief among the funmakers is Baron Von Fugengaben Bludekoff. Oscar Walsh as Billie Burk, a commercial traveler, also pleased with his singing, as did also Elvia Rand as Felicity Jones, acquired daughter of the Widow Jones. Miss Cora Munson as Cassie McCarty is a very fair ingenue.

Orpheum.
1. The Minotaur. (Vitagraph), dramatic, 1000 feet.
2. Indian Blood (Lubian Picture) dramatic, 1000 feet.
3. The Bag Pipe Player, (Pathe), dramatic, 500 feet.
4. Jim Wants to Get Pinched, (Pathe), comedy, 500 feet.
5. Molly Lee—Song.

Take It and Welcome.
Organizer of Village Concert (to small farmer, reputed owner of a pianoforte)—Excuse me, Mr. Mangold, but would you be so kind as to lend us your pianoforte for the concert at the schools?
Small Farmer—Take it, take it! But, mind, I don't suppose you'll find all the notes in't, for when my missus want a bit of wire she allus goes to the old planner.—Tit-Bits.

The Pastime.
Has another good program to present you for Tuesday's change: "The Seal of the Church." Melles. Dramatic. 1000 feet. A dramatic picture of more than ordinary power, made by the popular Melles company. There is no question about the strength of the picture, nor of the dramatic qualities of the story, of which a well-balanced company of actors have made the most of. And the love story adds interest to the wonderful picture.
"The Parisian." Dramatic. A fine dramatic story, enacted with great force and sympathy by players from the ranks of the best pantomimists.
"Venice." Scenic. Beautiful Venice, with its wealth of architectural beauties and wonders brought to one's door.
"Hemlock Hoax, the Detective." Comedy. The acting is funny, developing many amusing features.
"The Fisherman's Luck." Comedy. He catches everything but fish.
"Jones' Watch." A lively comedy.
Moral ideas are generally the result of either environment, or necessity.
