NIGHTS AT WESTON SPENT IN THE DARK

TRANSFORMER BURNS OUT AT LIGHT PLANT

Citizens Put to Much Inconvenience by Accident—Short Notes and Personal Items at Normal Town.

(Special Correspondence.)
Weston, Ore., May 18.—Owing to the burning out of the electric light plant's transformer on Main street, the merchants and hotel on that street have been without electric lights for several days, making it quite inconvenient for them. It will be a day or two yet before the burnt-out transformer can be replaced as the order had to be sent in to Portland, there being none this side of that city to be secured.

J. N. Klein, proprietor of the Fountain Inn, returned from the county seat on last evening's train where he transacted business during the day.

Mrs. Lillian Staggs has gone to the Wallowa country to join her husband, who is in charge of the G. W. Staggs' wheat farm lately acquired by Mr. Staggs. Mrs. Staggs has been for several months one of the most efficient and popular clerks in the Jarman department store, and will be greatly missed by patrons as well as by the proprietor and fellow clerks.

Frank Saling, Umatilla's popular county clerk, is in the city today attending to business matters and looking after some of his many interests which he still retains in his old home town.

G. W. Mitchell of the Reed and Hawley mountain, is a business visitor today, patronizing our merchants, laying in supplies.

W. L. Smock is making daily trips to his farm south of the city with some of his fine potatoes with which he is loading a car for shipment.

E. E. Carrico, the merry-go-round man, who has never failed to be on hand at the annual pioneers' picnic for several years, was in town yesterday to make arrangements with the committee on grounds for his coming with his outfit on the picnic dates.

The Reverend E. W. Achilles and family are making preparations for their departure for Spokane, Wash., where Mr. Achilles has been appointed to take charge of the church of his denomination in that city. They expect to perfect arrangements to leave in a few days.

Col. Fred Boyd of the Athena Press is over from Athena for an afternoon visit with his bosom friend, Col. Clark Wood.

Will Peterson and John Vert, accompanied with others of Athena, were in town today consulting with some of the business men of the city as to county division lines. It is likely that something will be doing in this division matter before long, especially so if the extreme eastenders continue the agitation of the subject upon their proposed lines of division.

Boys Will Be Boys and are always getting scratches, cuts, sprains, bruises, bumps, burns or scalds. Don't neglect such things—they may result serious if you do. Apply Ballard's Snow Liniment according to directions right away and it will relieve the pain and heal the trouble. Price 25c, 50c and $1. A. C. Koeppe & Bros.
