

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It

How To Find Out.
Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours. A brick dust sediment, or settling stringy or milky appearance after indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back are also symptoms that tell you the kidneys and bladder are out of order and need attention.

What To Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills almost every wish in correcting rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. Corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or back effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Mention this paper and remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

STOCK MARKET IS SHOWING A DECLINE

HOGS, SHEEP, CATTLE FALLING OFF IN YARDS

Former Off 5c But Best Steers Are Down 15c and Top Wethers Are Weak at Even $5 During the Day.

Portland Union Stockyards, May 18.—All lines of livestock are showing a further concession in prices as forecasted yesterday. Lambs sold during the past 24 hours as low as $6 and a still lower price is expected later in the day. All sheep prices are from 25 to 50c lower than yesterday and still the bottom of the market here is not in sight. In fact the market today is showing the annual change from winter to summer prices.

Receipts of sheep and lambs are heavy, 1883 head having arrived during the past 24 hours. Today's heavy run finds the trade of the Pacific northwest overstocked with sheep and therefore no sales were made during the morning. Buyers were all holding out so that lower prices could be named late this afternoon.

Hogs Are So Lower.
A loss of 5c per hundred pounds is shown today in the price of swine at Stockdale. Receipts for the day were light but hog values dropped in sympathy with the general weakness in livestock. The general tone of hog trading was steady considering conditions in other lines and $10.50 is still obtainable for all good stuff. Run of hogs for the day was 171 head compared with a nominal number yesterday and but 48 head a week ago.

Calves are down 10c in line with other losses and a sale was made during the day at $6.90.

For selected steers the top of the local market today is $6 and a number of sales were made at that figure this morning. Twenty-seven loads of cattle came in from California and 13 of these were for Frye & Co., of Seattle. Carsten of Tacoma had four loads. Besides this 26 loads are due this afternoon for the local market. A portion of the latter have been sold prior to arrival at $6 for steers and $5 for cows. The latter value is the extreme for cows and stock must be selected to bring the top.

Helpers sold at $5.50 during the day for speyed stock that averaged 940 pounds and a few bulls that put in appearance went at $4. This is a cut of 50c from former figures.

Among the Shippers.
C. C. Clark, the well known Arlington butcher, was in with two mixed loads of cattle and calves from there. J. E. Reynolds sent in a load of hogs from Condon.

J. McDonald shipped a load of hogs from Wallawa.

W. J. Boomer had four loads of cattle from Exeter, Cal. for Carsten.

Kidwell & Caswell brought in nine loads of cattle from Willows and one load from Orland, Cal.

E. A. Barrett shipped 13 loads from California for Frye & Co. at Seattle.

L. E. West had five loads of sheep and cattle from Oakland, Ore.

Louis Burke shipped two loads of sheep from Roseburg that arrived here yesterday.

George Hohlhagen shipped four loads of sheep from the same place. C. Phillippi had a load of sheep offering from Lebanon.

Today's run of livestock compares with this day in recent years as follows:

Hogs	171	782	1883
1916	350	550	2438
1909	97	465	1985
1907	44	993	728
1906	316	75	338
1905	177	74	3384

A year ago today there was a firm tone in all lines of livestock, with no change in prices:

Today's range of livestock prices:
Cattle—Best steers, $6@6.15; steers $5.90; common steers, $5; cows, best, $5; fancy, $4.90; helpers, $5.50; stags, $4.50; bulls, $3.50@4.

Hogs—Best east of the mountains, $10.50; fancy, $10.40; stockers and feeders, $9.

Sheep—Shearers, best wethers, $5; ordinary, wethers, $4.75; spring lambs $6; ewes, $4.

Calves—Best, $6.90; ordinary, $6.50@6.60; poor, $3.75@4.

FLAG SEEN ON MCKINLEY?
Fair Buyer Reports Evidence of Fairbanks Party's Climb.

Seattle, Wash.—Mail advices from Fairbanks, dated April 23, state that the American flag placed on the summit of Mount McKinley on April 3 by Thomas Lloyd and his three companions, had been sighted a few days before the 23d.

John M. McLeod, a trapper, who has spent his whole life in the north and who has been trapping in the Kuskowim, arrived at Fairbanks with news and reported that in the Kantisna he met J. E. Baker, a fur buyer, who told him that he had, with the aid of glasses, seen a flag floating from the summit of McKinley on two separate occasions. McLeod was suffering from snow blindness and could not use the glasses. He was one of the guides of the Wickersham party that sought to ascend the mountain, and states that when that expedition started to climb the peak it found, half way to the summit, a perpendicular wall which could not be scaled. McLeod, who is thoroughly familiar with all the approaches to Mount McKinley, says that the ridge upon which the Lloyd expedition ascended is the only possible route over which the summit may be attained.

Indian Natives in Uprising.
Calcutta.—Tribes is feared among the aboriginals in Chota Nagpur, who, acting on the instigation of a man claiming to be the incarnation of a deity, refuse to recognize British rule. The centre of the disturbance is close to Ranchi, where war drums have been beaten on the hilltops. So far, no act of active hostility has been committed. Troops and police are watching the gathering.

THE WHEAT MARKET

WHEAT IS OFF AFTER MAY STARTS RISING

Decline Is General at the Closing of Chicago Pit—Liverpool Is Advanced.

Chicago, May 18.—May was the only bullish option today, but after advancing 3-4c bushel above yesterday's final price, it closed with a loss of 3-8c. July and September each opened 1-8c lower, and the closing was down 1-4 to 1-1-8c respectively.

The advance in the May early in the day was due to the cash situation, but advices from outside markets later in the day caused cash to show a loss here, and this affected the May.

Minneapolis wired that the cash wheat demand there was slow with prices 1-2c lower and it looks like a further reduction in value before the stuff is sold. Flour mills show no improvement in business.

Foreign wheat markets showed some signs of covering. At Liverpool the market closed 1-2 to 7-8d higher, after opening with a loss of 1-4d.

MEMORY COMES AT DEATH.

Senseless Man Scribbles Name as Blood Closes to Flow.

New York.—The strangest case of lost memory that ever has come under the supervision of the physicians at St. Joseph's hospital at Yonkers, has ended in the death of the patient. Just before he died a flash of the past came to him and he wrote—having been unable to speak for the past two days—what is supposed to have been his name, "Otto Gable." Under this he wrote "24," and then the pencil trailed off into a meaningless jumble of letters and figures.

The man was found unconscious on Elliot street, Yonkers. He was taken to the hospital and he remained senseless for 10 days. Then he began to recover, and a week ago was well enough to walk around the ward. He was able to talk of things that took place about him, but his mind was absolutely blank as to his name, his home or anything connected with his past.

Then he lost his power of speech, and since then had replied to all questions by a nod or shake of his head. A pad of paper and a pencil were given him yesterday afternoon. He looked at them blankly and then began to write. He formed letters and figures, but they had no meaning. Suddenly he looked puzzled for a moment, and then rapidly wrote: "My name is John Gable." He looked at the writing as if it were strange to him, crossed out the John and wrote "Otto."

That seemed to suit him, and a minute later added the figures. Then he made letters and figures for perhaps two minutes. Suddenly the pencil dropped from his hand and he fell back unconscious. The doctors tried to revive him, but it was useless. He died an hour later.

King George and Czar Nicholas look alike, it is said. Well, they came by their likeness honestly.
