His car was attached to local train No. 1 this morning.

Off to Track Meet.
 At La Grande today five representatives from the Pendleton high school are participating in the annual eastern Oregon scholastic track meet. The representatives from Pendleton are Boylen, Fee, Kimball, Gordon and Pinnell. The team is under the guidance of Professor Brown. At La Grande this evening an oratorical contest is to occur in which the Pendleton high school will be represented by Miss Pansy Ireland.

Rice on Debating Team.
 When the Pendleton high school debating team appears on the platform at the University of Oregon to meet the Eugene high school team for the championship of Oregon, the chair of second colleague will be filled by Lyman G. Rice instead of Miss Pansy Ireland, who has contested in all of the preliminary debates. This was announced yesterday when it became known that Miss Ireland would not be able to accompany the team through physical inability. While Rice is a new man in forensics, there is general satisfaction over his selection. He has a splendid hearing and is a good thinker. The debate is scheduled for June 3.

Money for Olney Cemetery.
 "The undersigned citizens of Pendleton have subscribed and paid the amount set opposite their respective names to be used under the supervision of the committee having in charge the care and improvement of Olney cemetery, said money to be used in hiring men to clear the weeds from every lot and otherwise improving said cemetery." This is a copy of a subscription that has been prepared and to which many signers have already been secured. Copies of the petition are now at the Tallman drug store and at the Koeppe drug store. Those desiring to aid in the work of improving the cemetery are asked to place their names upon one or the other of these lists. The money secured in this manner will be used to employ men to follow up the volunteer work done at the cemetery yesterday. The move to raise money is being carried on under the auspices of the cemetery committee of which Councilman Dyer is chairman. In the drafting and the circulation of the subscription list the lead was taken by Lee Teutsch.
