

You Can Have a Model Kitchen

as cool and white as a dairy. No smell, no smoke, no heat, no dust. No old-fashioned contrivances. The is the latest practical, scientific cook-stove. It will cook the most elaborate dinner without heating the kitchen.

Boils, bakes, or roasts better than any range. Ready in a second. Extinguished in a second. Fitted with Cabinet Top, with collapsible rests, towel rack, and every up-to-date feature imaginable. You want it, because it will cook any dinner and not heat the room. No heat, no smell, no smoke, no coal to bring in, no ashes to carry out. It does away with the drudgery of cooking, and makes it a pleasure. Women with the light touch for pastry especially appreciate it, because they can immediately have a quick fire, simply by turning a handle. No half-hour preparation. It not only is less trouble than coal, but it costs less. Absolutely no smell, no smoke; and it doesn't heat the kitchen.

Cautionary Note: Be sure you get this stove—see that the name-plate reads "New Perfection."

The nickel finish, with the turquoise blue of the enameled chimneys, makes the stove ornamental and attractive. Made with 1, 2 and 3 burners; the 2 and 3-burner stoves can be had with or without Cabinet.

SOCIETY EVENTS

One of the notable weddings of the spring season was that which occurred Tuesday morning at the Church of the Redeemer when Miss Frances Hayes, daughter of Mrs. Alice L. Hayes, was united with Mr. Robert Macintosh Townsend of Portland. Promptly at 9 o'clock Miss Edna Zimmerman sang "You and Love," after which the bride party walked slowly to the altar to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Edith Johnson. The bride was accompanied by her uncle, Colonel E. N. Wilson, who gave her away. Mrs. Willard Bond, sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor, while her husband, Mr. Willard Bond, attended the groom. Mr. Charles Bond and Mr. Royal Sawtelle performed the duties of ushers. Only a small circle of relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony, which was the ring service, and was performed by the Reverend Charles Quinney. Immediately following the marriage, a wedding breakfast was served by Mrs. Willard Bond at her home, 515 Madison street. Among the out-of-town guests present were Mrs. W. J. Leezer of Portland, Miss Carrie Dickinson of Portland, and Colonel E. N. Wilson of Bellingham, Washington. The bride and groom left on the first train for southern California, where they will spend a two weeks' honeymoon, after which they will take up their residence in Portland, where the groom is land manager of the Portland Light & Power company.

The departure from this city of the Misses Lucile and Hazel Rader, two of the most popular members of the younger set, has been the motive of several affairs of the week. On Monday evening the young ladies of the Sigma Epsilon Omicron sorority, of which organization the Misses Rader are members, gave a "hayride" party in their honor. In the neighborhood of forty young people gathered at the home of Miss Gertrude Campbell early in the evening and for several hours were driven about the city in a large hay rack. Returning to the Campbell home, moonlight games were played, after which a dainty midnight luncheon was served by Miss Campbell, assisted by Mrs. Frank Hays. Those who composed the party were the Misses Gertrude Jordan, Nana Johnson, Irene Shea, Lucile Rader, Pauline La Fontaine, Mary Shea, Gertrude Campbell, Hazel Rader, Viola Shea, Mildred Magoon, Hazel Means, Grace Fennell, Grace Bean, Sybil Cole, Mariel Saline, Blanche Badley, Ida Cherry, Francis Saline, Ina Cherry, Iva Hill, Edna Storie and Helen Hart, and the Messrs. Carl Engdahl, Roy Skiles, Dick Spain, John Dickson, Dale Chessman, Charlie Sturdivant, Merle Ferrel, Richard Thompson, Marvey McDill, Win Stewart, Ivan Sturtevant, Charlie Milne and Merle Chessman.

Miss Winnie Boylen and Miss Gertrude Jordan entertained a number of young ladies Tuesday evening at the Boylen home on south Johnson street in honor of the Misses Lucile and Hazel Rader, who left Wednesday morning for Portland, where they will remain for some months before joining their parents in Medford their future home. The guests of the occasion were the Misses Bernice Ruppe, Edna Storie, Iva Hill, Hazel Nolen, Hazel Rader, Lucile Rader, Gladys Hamley, Edith Johnson, Nana Johnson, Irene Shea, Hazel Means, Grace Fennell, Viola Shea, Pauline La Fontaine and Helen Hart.

A very reasonable social event of the week was the comet party given Tuesday evening by Mrs. C. J. Mitchell at her Thompson street home to a number of young ladies in honor of Miss Stevens of Dayton, Wash. The guests attended in costume, the majority of them representing "mere man," while the others appeared in school girl frocks. After a period of juvenile frolics the party repaired to the Oregon theater, where an im-promptly dance was held on the stage until 12:30, when a sumptuous spread was served by the hostess. At the conclusion of the refreshments, the young ladies took up their vigil for the celestial wanderer, but as that distinguished visitor failed to put in an appearance by 2 o'clock, the band of watchers dispersed to their slumber cots. The list of sky gazers included besides the hostess and guest of honor, the Misses Ivy Hill, Hazel Nolen, Edith Johnson, Genevieve Clark, Edna Whistler, Georgia Stewart, Bertha Anger and Norma Alloway.

At the family home on Vincent street on Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock occurred the marriage of Miss Esther Sommerville, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edward J. Sommerville, and Mr. Arthur Pennell Sprague of Portland. Only the relatives of the bride and groom and a few of their immediate friends were in attendance at the prettiest of the season. The ceremony which united the couple was performed by the Rev. Father Duran, rector of St. Mary's church. Miss Veva Sommerville, cousin of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, while the groom was attended by Mr. Samuel Wood of Portland. Among the out-of-town guests present were Mrs. C. P. Sprague of Portland, mother of the groom, and the Misses Abbie and Veva Sommerville, of Edmonton, Canada, who are cousins of the bride. Immediately following the ceremony light refreshments were served in the dining room, which was converted into a power of spring blossoms. The young couple, after a short honeymoon trip, will take up their residence in Ladd's addition, Portland.

The approach of commencement at the high school is the signal for a number of social events at which the graduates are the guests of honor. Today they are being entertained at the Berkeley ranch three miles north of town by the Sophomore and Freshman classes. The party left this morning by hayrack chaperoned by Mrs. A. C. Hampton and will not return until evening. On Monday night the Juniors will be hosts to the outgoing students at a lawn party on the high school grounds. Electric lights will be strung among the trees and every preparation is being made by the seniors-to-be to make the occasion a notable one.

An event of unusual interest in society circles was the recital at the William Slusher home last evening, given in compliment to Miss Bernice Ruppe by Miss Edith Slusher. Miss Ruppe has just returned from a winter in New York, where she was a pupil of Francis Stewart, and her many friends were given their first opportunity to note the improvement in her voice which her recent study has wrought. Those who were fortunate enough to hear the ten numbers she rendered last night are enthusiastic in their praise of her. She was assisted in the recital by Miss Lula Hubbard of Walla Walla, who appeared to splendid advantage in four instrumental selections. Mrs. W. A. Slusher accompanied Miss Ruppe on the piano. The following is the program as it was rendered last night:

- (a) Sweet June...Landon Ronald
(b) Sonnet d'Amour...Thome
(c) Irish Love Song
.....Margaret Lang
- (a) Scarf Dance...Chaminade

- (a) Good Night...Rubenstine
(b) L'Teure Exquise
.....Ronoldo Hahn
(c) Ich Grolle Nicht...Schumann
(d) Come to the Garden Love...
.....Mary Turned Salter

At the conclusion of the program, and after congratulations had been showered on both participants, light refreshments were served by the hostess.

The list of invited guests included Judge and Mrs. H. J. Beau, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Bond, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hays, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ross Dickson, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hampton, Mr. and Mrs. George Hartman, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Phelps, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Rice, Dr. and Mrs. Tom Vaughan, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Marshal, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Benjamin Young of Astoria, announces the engagement of his daughter, Dr. Clara W. Reames, to Dr. Eldred B. Waffle of Pendleton. The wedding will take place in the early part of June. Dr. Reames for the past two years has been health officer at Astoria, while Dr. Waffle is at present in charge of the medical department of the Deschutes railroad contract work and assistant medical director under Dr. K. A. J. McKenzie. After their marriage Dr. and Mrs. Waffle will spend some time in the east and in Europe.—Portland Journal.

The series of summer concerts by the United Orchestra was inaugurated Wednesday evening at the fair pavilion and the large number of people who were in attendance testifies as to how welcome they are. A splendid program was rendered which was heartily appreciated by the audience. These concerts are scheduled to be very popular summer diversions.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Sarkis arrived in the city yesterday on their way to Spokane where they are to live in the future. Mr. Sarkis is to go on to Spokane today while Mrs. Sarkis will visit here for two weeks with her mother, Mrs. L. K. Blakelee.

Mrs. J. H. D. Gray will leave the first part of the week for Eugene to visit her daughter, Miss Louise Gray, who is a student of the University of Oregon. Later she will visit in other valley points and will spend a portion of the summer at the seacoast.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Paddock came over from Walla Walla in their automobile on Monday and were the guests of Mrs. Paddock's sister, Mrs. R. F. Alexander until Friday, when they returned to the Garden City.

Mrs. William Scott of Seattle, Wash., spent Monday in Pendleton the guest of relatives and friends. Mrs. Scott was formerly Miss Ether Garfield, daughter of Dr. H. S. Garfield, and a vocalist of much merit.

Combined Harvester vs. Stationary Harvester

The following figures will show you why the progressive farmer who uses the HOLT COMBINED HARVESTER succeeds and is able to buy his neighbor's land.

Two farmers, Mr. Brown and Mr. Jones each have 800 acres of grain to harvest. Neither one have their own outfit and each must either buy an outfit complete or hire the work done.

Mr. Brown hires a stationary outfit to head and thresh his grain, under the following terms:

Heading 800 acres, at $2.00 per acre	$1,600
Threshing 800 acres, 30 bu. grain, at 7c per bu.	1,680
Waste (from header and thresher in field) 3 bu. per acre at 75c per bu.	1,800

Brown's total expense $5,080

Mr. Jones buys a HOLT COMBINED HARVESTER and his complete equipment costs him $2,000

Hires 26 horses to operate his machine, at 75c per day per animal, for 25 days	492
Labor, 5 men 25 days at $3.00 per day	375
Board of 5 men 25 days	63

Jones' total expense $2,940

Subtracting Jones' expense bill from that of Brown show us that Mr. Jones has a new combined harvester and $2,140 in money more than Mr. Brown from the same acreage in one harvest, besides Jones will have his harvester the next year assuring another saving of $2,000 on his next year's crop.

Figures will not lie. Can you show us any good reason why you should not own your own harvester?

Dear friend:
This morning mama sent me with a big basket to the grocery. I bought so many things that I couldn't get the salt in the basket and I had to carry it home in my arm.

Here is a list of things I bought:
Fine Strawberries at 10c per box.
Preferred Stock Pineapple, 3 cans for 25 cts.
Closset & Dever coffee at 15 cts per pound.
Elegant peaches, apricots and grapes at 25c per can.
Burbank's Potatoes 80c per sack.
3 packages Quaker Corn Flakes for 25c.

Your friend,
JACOB.
P. S. I bought the salt and the basket full of things where we always trade, at
