

STATEMENT OF REQUIREMENTS OF LAW FOR THE GUIDANCE OF OREGON VOTERS

Salem, Ore.—The vast amount of detailed information which the candidate for office under the Oregon primary law must keep in his head is shown by a statement issued by the secretary of state's office.

Chief Clerk Frank Lovell and other members of the force have been at work for weeks on the state's complicated election laws, in an effort to compile a succinct and comprehensive statement of the requirements of the law for the convenience and guidance of voters and officials. It will be noticed that among the preliminary dates, August 14 is given as the latest date on which candidates or their friends can file petitions under the corrupt practices act.

However, in case candidates do not wish to file cuts and arguments, as provided under the corrupt practices act, petitions may be filed up to September 3.

Following are some of the important primary nominating election dates:

Aug. 14, 1916.—Latest date on which candidates or friends of candidates for nomination by a political party (which at the next preceding general election for its candidate for representative in congress polled at least 25 per cent of the entire vote cast for that office in the state) can file petition for nomination under the corrupt practices act with the secretary of state.

August 16.—Latest date on which opponents to candidates for nomination by a political party (which at the next preceding general election for its candidate for representative in congress polled at least 25 per cent of the entire vote cast for that office in the state) can file reasons against nominations of such candidates with the secretary of state under the corrupt practices act.

August 22.—Latest date candidates for nomination by a political party (which at the next preceding general election for its candidate for representative in congress polled at least 25 per cent of the entire vote cast for that office in the state) or friends can file cuts and arguments in their favor with the secretary of state under the corrupt practices act.

August 25.—Latest date cuts and statements for and against candidates for nomination above mentioned must be given to state printer by secretary of state.

Sept. 3.—Latest date on which all petitions for nominations of candidates of a political party (which at the next preceding general election for its candidate for representative in congress polled at least 25 per cent of the entire vote cast for that office in the state) can be filed with the secretary of state.

Sept. 3 to 6.—Dates between which secretary of state must arrange names and information for primary nominating election, filing one, posting one and registered one to each county clerk.

Sept. 4 to 9.—Dates between which state printer must deliver separate nominating campaign pamphlets to secretary of state.

September 15.—Latest date pamphlets containing cuts and arguments for and against candidates for nomination under corrupt practices act can be sent out by secretary of state.

Sept. 24.—Date of primary nominating election.

Oct. 4.—Date committee, treasurer or any person not a candidate, expending more than $50 for candidates for nomination must file statements of receipts and expenditures with vouchers therefor with secretary of state on or before.

Oct. 9.—Date state board must canvass vote of primary nominating election—on or before.

Oct. 9.—Date candidates for nomination must file statements of all moneys contributed, expended or promised by them, with the secretary of state—on or before.

General Election Dates.

May 8.—Date election laws must be compiled by the secretary of state.

June 6 or 7 (approximate date).—Date county clerks must begin to register voters, but not registering from September 15 to September 25 inclusive.

June 11 (approximate date).—Date county clerks must begin to send lists of registered voters weekly to secretary of state.

July 4.—Latest date on which arguments for initiative or referendum petitions can be filed with the secretary of state.

July 7.—Latest date on which initiative measures can be filed with the secretary of state.

July 25.—Latest date on which arguments against initiative or referendum measures can be filed with the secretary of state.

Aug. 1.—Latest date pamphlets containing initiative and referendum measures and arguments can be printed.

Sept. 14.—Latest date pamphlets containing initiative and referendum measures and arguments can be sent out by secretary of state.

Sept. 23.—Latest date on which certificates of nominations of candidates by a political party (other than one which cast 25 per cent of the entire vote for representative in congress at the preceding election) or an assembly of electors can be filed with the secretary of state.

Oct. 8.—Latest date certificates of nominations of candidates by petition of individual electors can be filed with the secretary of state.

Oct. 9.—Latest date candidates or officers or independent committees can file cuts and arguments for and against nominated candidates, etc., with the secretary of state.

Oct. 8 to 10.—Dates between which secretary of state must arrange names and ballot titles for general election, filing one, posting one and registering one to each county clerk.

Oct. 11.—Latest date secretary of state must deliver cuts, etc., for general election campaign pamphlets to state printer.

Oct. 23.—Date state printer must deliver all general election campaign pamphlets to secretary of state.

Oct. 29.—Latest date secretary of state can send out general election campaign pamphlets.

Nov. 8.—Date of general election.

Nov. 18.—Date party treasurer or any person not a candidate expending more than $50 must file statement of receipts and expenditures with the secretary of state—on or before.

Nov. 23.—Date candidate must file sworn statements of all moneys contributed, expended or promised by them with the secretary of state—on or before.

Dec. 8.—Date state board must proceed to canvass votes for state and district officers—on or before.

Dec. 8.—Date state board must proceed to canvass vote on initiative measures—on or before.

*In case such candidates do not wish to file cuts and arguments allowed under corrupt practices act, petitions can be filed up to September 3. See statement against that date.

RUDYARD KIPLING PAYS TRIBUTE TO DEAD KING

London.—In a poem just published Rudyard Kipling pays a tribute to the late King Edward. The poem is entitled "The Dead King," and voices a eulogy by the English nation. The general idea is one of homage to the monarch and climax comes in the last stanza, which runs as follows:

"We accepted his toll as our right. None spared, none excused him. When he was bowed by his burden his rest was refused him.

We troubled his age with our weakness. The blacker our shame. When he heard that his people had need of him

Straightway he came to us. As received so he gave, nothing grudged, naught denying. Not e'en the last gasp of his breath when he strove for us.

Dying for our sakes without question, he put from him all that he cherished. Simply as any that served him he served and he perished.

All that kings covet was his, and he flung it aside for us. Simply as any that died in his service, he died for us."

It is assumed that the poem has not been "bulled" in cable transit, but its lack of euphony would suggest that it had.

A Smile. is a pretty hard thing to accomplish when you're blue, bilious and out of sorts. There is a sure cure for all kinds of stomach and liver complaints—constipation and dyspepsia. Ballard's Herbine is mild, yet absolutely effective in all cases. Price 50 cents per bottle. A. C. Koepfen & Bros.

MADE HIS OWN COFFIN AND THEN OUTGREW IT.

Mexico, Mo.—Always eccentric, the neighbors thought nothing of it some years ago when they saw James Reynolds, of Guthrie, preparing for death by building a large vault with limestone slabs from the cliffs on his farm and to notice him heaving the boards from the walnut logs down in his pasture for his coffin.

Reynolds finished the coffin some time ago and set it away till needed. Later, when he was past work, it dawned upon him that his exceeding corpulency, although hinted at during the months he worked on the casket, was increasing at a rapid rate, and if he lived too long he might not fit the box, or, rather, the box might not fit him.

This came true, and a few nights ago when he died the relatives had to not only send for an undertaker, but a coffin as well. He had grown too fat and it was impossible to bury him in the casket because it was too small.

Boys Will Be Boys and are always getting scratches, cuts, sprains, bruises, bumps, burns or scalds. Don't neglect such things—they may result serious if you do. Apply Ballard's Snow Liniment according to directions right away and it will relieve the pain and heal the trouble. Price 25c, 50c and $1. A. C. Koepfen & Bros.

PARENTS ROW OVER DEAD.

Mother Objects to Removal of Body Buried Half Century.

New York.—Supreme Court Justice Whitney was asked to decide if the body of a child aged 10 months who has been buried for 43 years could be removed to please its father if the child's mother objects. The court reserved decision.

Charles Keeler was the dead infant's father. He has a lot in Woodlawn cemetery transferred to Mary Salter, his sister, a number of years ago, and now owned by Jasper C. Salter, her son. On this lot is interred the body of the baby that died more than half a century ago.

Keeler desires to have the body exhumed and reinterred in another part of the same plot, in order that a monument he would like to erect may stand where the child's grave is now located. But the present owner of the ground, and Keeler's own wife, who is separated from him, and the cemetery trustees, object to the plan.

A Regular Tom Boy, was busy—climbing trees and fences, jumping ditches, whittling, always getting scratches, cuts, sprains, bruises, bumps, burns or scalds. But law! Her mother just applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve and cured her quick. Heals everything healable—boils, ulcers, eczema, old sores, corns or piles. Try it. 25c at Tallman & Co.

IDAHO TOWNS BECOME GOOD ROADS BOOSTERS

Nampa, Idaho.—G. A. Meffan, secretary of the chamber of commerce of this city has been appointed on the committee for boosting good roads of the state with Governor J. H. Brady and S. Plowhead of Caldwell. The committee thus appointed comes as a result of the smoker held in Caldwell the latter part of the week, which was attended by people from various towns of this part of the state, and at which time Governor Brady delivered a speech outlining an active program for good road building in this part of Idaho.

Lion Fondles a Child.

In Pittsburg a savage lion fondled the head that a child thrust into his cage. Danger to a child is sometimes great when least regarded. Often it comes through colds, croup and whooping cough. They slay thousands that Dr. King's New Discovery could have saved. "A few doses cured our baby of a very bad case of croup," writes Mrs. George B. Davis, of Flat Rock, N. C. "We always give it to him when he takes cold. It's a wonderful medicine for babies." Best for coughs, colds, is grippe, asthma, hemorrhages, weak lungs, 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Tallman & Co.

Be ready to keep the pestiferous fly out of the house when the weather turns warm. He is not only a nuisance but a danger.
