

WEATHER REPORT

Increasing cloudiness tonight; Friday probably fair.

COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER.

VOL. 23.

PENDLETON, OREGON, THURSDAY, MAY 26, 1910.

NO 6912

Calling cards, wedding stationery, commercial stationery and job printing to order at the East Oregonian.

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER.

GUGGENHEIMS ACCUSED AGAIN

Charges of Corruption Accused Demand That Investigation Be Public.

ALLEGED GUGGENHEIMS BOUGHT WITNESSES OFF

Insistent Demand Is Made That Lid Be Lifted from Secret Investigation of Big Syndicate's Practices—Civil and Political Corruption is Charged—Alleged Guggenheim Agent Killed Man and Syndicate Secured Acquittal by Bribery.

Chairman Nelson of the subcommittee on senate and judiciary committees ruled against an open session of the committee in hearing the charges against the Guggenheim interests.

Washington, May 26.—Allegations of political and civic corruption including charges that the Guggenheim syndicate caused the removal of Federal District Attorney John B. Boyce, and United States Marshal D. A. Sutherland of Alaska, resulted today in the demand that the "lid be lifted" from the secret investigation being carried on by a subcommittee of the senate judiciary committee.

Boyce and Sutherland allege the beginning of the trouble was a battle near Valdez in September, 1907, in which two men were killed. The Guggenheim interests had begun construction of a railroad grade near Valdez. The people of the city organized a railroad company and said they would take possession of the grade which the Guggenheims had abandoned.

GIRL WHO MARRIED JAP NOW SEEKING A DIVORCE

Carson, Nev., May 27.—Mrs. Juniflor Aoki, formerly Gladys Emery, daughter of Archbishop Emery of San Francisco, whose marriage to a Japanese house servant at her father's home caused a coast sensation last year, is here to establish a legal residence for the purpose of securing a divorce.

Largest Lumber Order Placed. Portland, May 26.—The St. Louis Car company today signed a contract with several lumber companies here for forty million feet of lumber.

PATTEN ANNOUNCES RETIREMENT AGAIN

Chicago, Illinois, May 25.—James Patten, the wheat king, announced officially today that he would retire permanently in July. The fact that Patten's previous announcements have preceded a coup in the market is causing his opponents to wonder what new grain option he is planning.

FARMERS' AUCTION SALE ON SATURDAY

Nearly $2000 worth of livestock and farm implements have already been listed for sale at the big farmers' auction in this city, next Saturday, May 28. This will be the second sale under the auspices of the farmers' union and it will probably be the last one until after harvest.

Those who have not already listed the articles they desire to have sold are requested to do so at once with J. A. Cresswell, secretary of the union.

LADY KILLS BURGLAR WITH A ROLLING PIN

BESTS THIEF IN DESPERATE BATTLE IN KITCHEN

Knocks Him Down With Cuspidor First and in Subsequent Fight Knocks Him Out of Window With Rolling Pin and Calls for Help.

New York, May 26.—"I think you will find a dead burglar in my back yard," said Mrs. Dora Geltman to the two policemen today when they answered her screams for help.

NEW QUEEN OF ENGLAND FORTY-THREE YEARS OLD

London, May 26.—England's new queen today observed her forty-third birthday, although, of course, without ostentation or ceremony. Messages of felicitation and good wishes, coupled with condolences over the death of her royal father-in-law, poured in from thousands of loyal subjects at home.

Her popularity is due in large measure to the fact that she is English born. She is her husband's English cousin. In addition, while not rivaling her mother-in-law in beauty she has much of her stately grace, all of her excellent taste in dress, and a charm all her own.

WASHINGTON WINS FROM STANFORD IN REGATTA

Seattle, May 26.—Taking the lead at the jump, the University of Washington eight beat the Stanford variety four lengths over a three mile course on Lake Washington this afternoon. The Stanford boat swamped at the two mile line, but as Washington was leading she was awarded the race. Time, 18:22 3-5.

Pooshkin's Birthday.

Moscow, Russia, May 26.—The birthday anniversary of Alexander Sergeivitch Pooshkin, the great national poet of Russia, was celebrated today in the usual enthusiastic manner in the city where he was born on May 26, 1799.

Imprisoned Banker Is Sick.

New York, May 26.—It is reported that Charles W. Morse, the New York banker, confined in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta, is sick, and has been removed to the prison hospital. Morse has confirmed the report and said his health has been falling since he was imprisoned.

SUBMARINE SINKS IN SEA

Collision in English Channel Results in Death of Twenty-Seven.

RECKLESSNESS OF CAPTAIN IS CAUSE OF TRAGEDY

Attempt to Dive Under Packet Causes Fatal Collision—Submarine Sinks to Rise no More—Entire Crew of Twenty-seven Go Down With Boat—Tragedy Occurs in English Channel—Sunken Boat Was French.

London, May 26.—The French submarine Pluviose, with a crew of twenty-seven was rammed and sunk by the packet Pas De Calais in the English channel today. The cause of the collision is unclear.

The fact that the submarine was half submerged at the time of the accident delayed the authorities in identifying the boat. The Pas De Calais returned to Calais in a crippled condition.

Calais, May 26.—The recklessness of Commander Pluviose in attempting to pass under the packet caused the accident. He miscalculated the depth he dove, and the collision followed; 27 men perished.

SCRIBER CASE IS NOW IN HANDS OF JURY

Portland, May 26.—The Scriber case went to the jury this afternoon. Prosecutor McCourt closed the state's arguments this forenoon. He ridiculed the plea of insanity to explain the forgeries of notes which caused the bank's wreck.

ROOSEVELT GETS L. L. D. FROM CAMBRIDGE U.

Cambridge, Eng., May 26.—The honorable degree of doctor of laws was conferred upon Colonel Roosevelt today by the University here. The students called for a speech, but Roosevelt declined to talk.

The students perpetrated a joke on Roosevelt. A giant teddy bear with paws outstretched was placed in the path of the colonel's party. Roosevelt laughed heartily and violently shook its paw. Dr. Sandys in his address, delivered conferring the degree, declared the American was the most vigorous and versatile man in the world in his efforts to secure peace and a friend of the British and all other good people all over the world.

BAD WEATHER PREVENTS FLIGHT OF GLEN CURTISS

New York, May 26.—A continuous spell of bad weather prevented Glen Curtiss from attempting to fly from Albany to New York today in an attempt to win the $10,000 prize offered by the New York World. Curtiss said he would not attempt the flight until the weather is favorable.

Historical Convention.

Iowa City, Ia., May 26.—With Dr. J. A. James, of Northwestern University, as the presiding officer, the Mississippi Valley Historical association opened its annual convention today at the University of Iowa. Many interesting historical topics will be discussed, the speakers on the program including Prof. Samuel Avery, chancellor of the University of Nebraska, and Prof. Andrew McLaughlin, of the University of Chicago.

LOCAL PEOPLE WILL ATTEND THE WESTON PIONEER PICNIC

All Aboard! Annual Pioneer Picnic—Weston, Friday and Saturday.

Tomorrow is the opening day for the big annual pioneer reunion and picnic at Weston and from appearances the affair will be well attended by Pendleton people. Many are planning to make the trip by auto during the day while others will go up on the regular passenger train, No. 8, which leaves here at 7 a. m. and returning arrives at 5 p. m.

IS BALLINGER GOING TO QUIT?

Family of Secretary of Interior Preparing to Leave Washington.

RUMORED HE WILL RESIGN HIS POSITION

Capital City Waiting for Next Move in Sensation—Predicted that Congressional Committee Will Exonerate Secretary After Which He Will Step Gracefully Out of Public Life—Family Has Household Goods Packed.

Washington, May 26.—Washington is on the qui vive today following the report that the family of Secretary Ballinger is preparing to leave Washington, that the household goods have been packed and that these preparations foreshadow Ballinger's resignation. Rumors that he intends to slide out gracefully following the submission of the congressional investigation committee's report, which probably will exonerate him, have been rife for several days.

GOLDEN RULE POLICE CHIEF ACCUSED OF MUCH VICE

Cleveland, May 26.—Fred Kohler, "golden rule" chief of police, was suspended by Mayor Baehr pending a hearing of the charges of intoxication, immorality and graft today. He Asked County Prosecutor Klein to review the charges against him and start a grand jury investigation should he find any supporting evidence.

RACING GAME KILLED IN OLD NEW YORK

Albany, N. Y., May 26.—The racing game in the state is believed to be killed today when the state senate passed the Perkins bill making officers and directors of racing associations criminally responsible if betting is permitted. The lower house also passed a bill prohibiting oral betting. Both measures will be sent to the governor for his signature.

PORTLAND POLICE BAFFLED BY MYSTERIOUS CASE

Portland, May 26.—The mystery surrounding the disappearance of Mrs. Smith deepened today. The grand jury is investigating and has had several witnesses in a secret session. Undertaker Ericson, custodian of the funds of the missing widow, was not admitted. Yesterday he refused to testify before the grand jury. The police are baffled. Ericson declares he knows nothing of the woman's whereabouts.

STAMPEDE STARTS FOR NEW GOLD FIELDS

Dawson, May 26.—The steamer St. Michael, the first boat out for Fairbanks and the new diggings at Iditarod is going down the river today. This marks the opening of a stampede from Yukon to the new goldfields which promises to outdo the Fairbanks rush.

Drummers Hold Jollyfest.

Sikeston, Mo., May 23.—A three-day "jollyfest" was commenced here today in connection with the annual convention of the Southeast Missouri Drummers' association. The organization, which includes most of the traveling salesmen of St. Louis, is the oldest of its kind in the United States.

CURFEW LAW TO BE ENFORCED HEREAFTER

Pendleton's curfew law, which has been somewhat of a dead letter for some time, is to be strictly enforced hereafter and boys and girls without any business on the streets after 9 o'clock will be taken care of by the officers, if parents neglect that duty. This is in accordance with instructions given the police department last evening by the city council.

The instructions were given at the request of the juvenile court, which reported that it had its hands full and desired the assistance and cooperation of the city officials. It is also stated that in order to force a compliance with the laws on the part of the delinquent boys and girls that the state law holding parents responsible will be enforced.

An ordinance providing for the vacation of an unused portion of Arc street as desired by Fred Walters of the Walters mill, was passed last evening. The city receives a consideration of $100.

The monthly salary list of the city officials was read and ordered paid.

AUTHORITIES CHARGE HEIKE WITH FRAUD

PROSECUTION SHOWS HE KNEW OF SHORT WEIGHING

Evidence Tends to Connect Him Definitely With Illegal Methods of His Company—Checker's Reports Always Secured Rebate for Trust.

New York, May 26.—The first direct attempt of the government to connect Secretary Chas. Heike of the American Sugar Refining company with sugar frauds, was made today when the prosecution introduced United States treasury checks as evidence in Heike's trial. Harry Waters, acting deputy collector in the port here, when on the stand said the trust paid a check on sugar imports as estimated by the collector and that invariably a rebate check was given when the sugar weigher's reports were received. The prosecution contends this shows Heike's knowledge of the short weighing frauds.

Sees Comet Second Time.

Chicago, May 26.—Fernando Jones, of Prairie avenue, is the principal in a double celebration today. One part of the celebration is in honor of the nineteenth anniversary of Mr. Jones' birth and the other in honor of the first recurrence of his view of the long awaited comet.

"Yes, I remember Halley's comet," said Mr. Jones. "As I remember it was visible in Chicago for about two weeks. It did not create much excitement among the white population, but the Indians were greatly affected by the phenomenon. All the tribes in the northern part of Illinois were called together and special ceremonies in propitiation of the heavenly visitor were indulged in by the red men."

"I have witnessed some remarkable things during my life, but none that was any more wonderful than Halley's comet."

Hoppe-Cline Championship.

New York, May 26.—Willie Hoppe is seeking the 15.2 balk line championship held by Harry Cline, of Philadelphia, and as the result of a challenge recently issued by Hoppe the two players will meet in the New York Theatre Concert Hall this evening in a match for the world's championship. Cline and Hoppe will play 500 points for the championship emblem and a purse of $1,000. Hoppe is confident he will win the title and Cline is equally sure he will be able to retain his championship.

Adkins to Hang.

Little Rock, Ark., May 26.—John Adkins, convicted of the murder of William Jones, will be hanged tomorrow unless desperate efforts to get clemency for him prove successful at the last minute. William Jones, Jr., convicted of complicity in the murder, is serving a five-year sentence in the reform school.

Manitoba's Medicos Meet.

Winnipeg, May 26.—The Manitoba Medical association opened its annual meeting here today. In addition to the regular program, surgical clinics will be held at the hospital. The profession feels very strongly the need of Dominion registration, and it is felt that the provincial association must keep the question alive until it becomes an accomplished fact.

Retail Jewelers Meet.

Rochester, N. Y., May 26.—With a large attendance, the New York State Retail Jewelers' association convened here today for a session of two days.

If the recall was in operation throughout the nation, and as to cabinet officers, it would soon pull Ballinger and Wickersham off their perches.

MADRIZ ARMY IS REPULSED

After Ten Days' Engagement Estrada Drives Government Troops Back.

MADRIZ'S FORCES LOSE HEAVILY IN THE ATTACK

Troops Charge Insurgents' Position Time After Time and are Mowed Down by Gatling Guns Operated by Americans—Madriz Falls Back—Reported Government Boat Searches Steamer Flying American Flag.

Bluefields, May 26.—Suffering a heavy loss, Madriz's troops which have been attacking Estrada's position for the last two days have been repulsed, and the revolutionists are now strengthened. They maintain their position on the bluffs, while the government troops are reorganizing for another attack. Madriz lost many killed in the repeated charges. It is reported a hundred Madriz troops were in the last charge of yesterday and scores reached the trenches before all were killed. The rapid fire guns operated by Americans were responsible for the insurgent victory. There were many skirmishes today but no serious fighting was done. The greater part of Madriz's troops have fallen back toward Rama where they are resting. Americans here are clamoring for an investigation of the report that the Venus stopped and searched the schooner Esfuerzo flying the American flag.

May Class Venus as Pirate.

Washington, May 26.—The Nicaraguan gunboat Venus may be classed as a pirate following the search of the steamer Esfuerzo, an American vessel flying the Nicaragua flag. The state department was notified today and Secretary Knox is considering what action is to be taken by the government. It is probable he will recommend some decisive action.

Wrote Dime Novels.

Baltimore, Md., May 26.—At Normandy Heights, in her pretty cottage, set back from the road and surrounded by flowering bushes and plants, Mrs. Mary Anderson Denison will today celebrate her eighty-fourth birthday anniversary. Mrs. Denison is one of the two survivors of the little group of writers who originated the dime novel.

She has been writing for publication since 1853, when her first novel, "Home Pictures," was published. In the long period since then she has had published so many novels and so much verse that she has lost count of them. Not less than sixty novels have come from her industrious pen. Of this number more than one million copies have been sold.

DAUGHTER OF DEAD WIZARD IS MARRIED

Arden, May 26.—Mary Harriman, daughter of the late railroad wizard and Charles Curry Rumsey, were married here at noon today. The wedding was held in the Episcopal church beside the grave of Harriman. The ceremony was quiet, owing to the recent death of the bride's father.

Octogenarian Dancer Paralyzed.

San Bernardino, Cal.—Suffering from paralysis brought on by dancing a jig, Mrs. Mary Crandall, 80 years of age is seriously ill and the doctors who are attending her fear she will not recover. Mrs. Crandall is a pioneer of San Bernardino. Her dance was part of the entertainment of the pioneer settlement attraction during the centennial celebration held here last week.

For Outdoor Improvement.

Springfield, Ill., May 26.—Three hundred delegates are here to attend the annual convention of the Illinois Outdoor Improvement association, which began today. A vigorous campaign for outdoor improvement will be planned as the principal work of the association.

REFUSED DUKE BUT MARRIES FOR LOVE

Washington, May 26.—Malthilda Townsend, the heiress, who refused to wed Duc D'Alba when she learned her mother had offered to settle a quarter of a million on him annually if he would marry the girl, was married today to Peter Goelet. Gerry at the Townsend home. President Taft, Vice President Sherman and members of the cabinet were present. Miss Katherine Elkins, daughter of the senator, was maid of honor. The union is a love match. Gerry is a New Yorker.