

Women as Well as Men are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order of disease.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs.

WESTON PREPARES FOR PIONEER PICNIC

WESTON PREPARES FOR PIONEER PICNIC

BIG TENT IS ERECTED READY FOR VISITORS

Normal Town Will be Scene of Festivity Friday and Saturday—Slight Shower Falls—Other Short Items of Interest.

(Special Correspondence.) Weston, Ore., May 25.—Preparations are actively under way toward arranging the grounds for the Pioneer's picnic. The big tent is erected and decorated, and by tomorrow evening the work will be finished ready for the anticipated visitors.

Mr. Henry Woods was in town yesterday on his way to his reservation farm, and was busy greeting many of his old-time Weston friends. Mr. Woods was years ago not only a resident of Weston but held the position of city marshal for a number of years, and a very efficient one he made, too.

C. W. Avery, manager and one of the owners of the Blue Mountain saw mill, drove down from the mill this morning to give his attention to business connected with this enterprise.

G. W. and Clyde DeGraw, Jas. H. Price and Iven O'Harra, returned last evening from their trip to the northern part of Idaho, where they were investigating some mining properties in which they are interested. They seem to be well satisfied with their visit and the prospects of the properties in which they have invested.

While gone they also stopped at several of the large mining camps in that section.

F. E. Lucas and family have moved back to their mountain home for the season, after spending the winter months in town.

A slight shower fell during the early morning, but not sufficient to lay the dust. From appearances it is more than likely that the usual June rains will be here in abundance before the week is out.

RICH SOCIETY IN INVASION.

American Women Form Colony in London.

London.—The American invasion of London this season will be of exceptional importance, owing to the number of wives of multi-millionaires who are expected to entertain no a lavish scale. Great Cumberland place is literally turned into an American colony, so numerous are the houses let to transatlantic visitors there.

From all parts come the dollar queens, among them Mrs. W. Graham from California, Mrs. Jordan Mott, with piles of dollars from New York, who has secured Mrs. Cornwall West's house, and Mrs. William Leads, the widow of a multi-millionaire.

The duchess of Roxburgh will be in Chesterfield house; Lady Granard, young, beautiful, and one of the best dressed women in Europe, has got Forbes house. Mrs. French Vanderbilt brings some millions to spend in Brook street; while Mrs. J. J. Astor will be not far off in Hill street.

Mrs. Walter Farewell is still looking out for a London house for the season and it is expected she will settle in the charming residence of a well-known English family.

WOLF IN STREETS OF PARIS.

Escapes from Menagerie and Creates Furor.

Paris.—The cry of "Wolf!" was not raised for nothing in one of the most populous districts of Paris the other day for a she-wolf had actually got loose from a menagerie, and was taking the air of the streets, as they say. But it was a good wolf, after all, this native of Tiberia, and had no intention of doing any harm. It felt a bit lost among the crowd, and, taking an elderly lady sitting on a bench for the least dangerous person, it looked at her with its grey eyes appealingly, and stretched forth its pointed ears. The lady got frightened too, not knowing what wrong it had done. It darted away down a side street, followed by a yelling crowd, and finally reached a more deserted quarter, where it wandered about innocently for a long time, an object of suspicion to the dogs round about. At last, late at night, it was discovered by some policeman in a private passage. They hurriedly closed the gate and notified the proprietor of the menagerie, who came and

LOSES FIGHT WITH BULL.

Fat Man Engages in Struggle With Infuriated Animal and is Tossed Badly Bruised Over Fence.

Columbus, Ind.—James Eason, aged 40, a farmer living near Hartsville Crossing, had a narrow escape from being killed by an infuriated bull. He entered the pasture where the bull was feeding. The bull started toward him and Eason grabbed a club.

For several minutes the man and the bull fought and Eason was pushed down and his ankle fractured. He tried to crawl to a fence.

As he was about to draw himself over the wall made a vicious lunge and although he weighs 200 pounds, Eason was tossed over the fence. He fractured another bone in the leg. Eason crawled a quarter of a mile before he found help. He is bruised from head to foot, but his injuries are not thought to be serious.

MOB ATTACKS AVIATORS.

Spaniards Grow Impatient at Delay By Wind.

Durango, Spain.—Two aviators, Mr. Gibbes and M. Prevotan, who had been announced to make ascents at Durango, near Bilbao, recently narrowly escaped with their lives owing to the violence of the mob.

Fifty thousand persons had assembled on the ground, and they got angry at the delay in making an ascent. They invaded the aeroplane shed, threw stones at the aviators, and the gendarmes charged the crowd several times.

At length M. Prevotan decided to make an ascent, but as he came outside the shed he was hit by a stone and badly injured. At the same time youths pulled down the tent in which a girl accompanying Mr. Gibbes was sheltering, whereupon Mr. Gibbes struck one of the lads with a hammer.

The multitude then became frenzied with rage, and a shower of stones fell upon the luckless aviators, who had to be escorted from the field by gendarmes.

ENGLISH OFFICER VISITS RUSSIA

Consorts With Former Foes in Crimean War.

St. Petersburg.—General Arbutnot, a Crimean veteran, who has been visiting at Sevastopol with his son, an officer in the Indian army, received a most friendly welcome from the Russian garrison there. The officers of the 50th (Belostok) regiment entertained them to luncheon at their mess, those present including General Webel, commanding the Russian division, and Colonel Lakhoff.

The health of the visitors was proposed in most cordial terms, hearty cheers were given and the regimental band played the British national anthem. Colonel Lakhoff presented General Arbutnot with a Bible found in the British trenches as a souvenir of his visit.

Queen Has Pearl from Ireland.

London.—Queen Alexandra has a little pearl brooch which she greatly values. It was the gift of her majesty's intimate friend, the late Lady Cadogan.

The brooch contains a single pearl of great size, which was discovered in an oyster taken from the oyster beds at Clifden, county Galway. It is of wonderful lustre, and was beautifully mounted for her majesty by a Dublin jeweler.
