WESTON FILLED WITH PIONEERS

Annual Reunion of Early Settlers Inaugurated Promptly

SPLENDID PROGRAMS MEMORIZED DURING DAY

The large crowd in attendance on Friday morning of the Pioneer Reunion included representatives of the various settlements in Pendleton County. Among the last arrivals to be seen was the well-known and popular Mr. John A. Green, president of the Texas-Midwest Historical Association.

The reunion was preceded by an evening program at the Pioneer Hall, with an address by Mr. Green. The program was well received and contributed greatly to the success of the reunion.

BLOOD FLAWS IN IRISH IRELAND

POLOWSERS OF DIFFERENT NATIONS TO BE PRESENT

Three special trains were run to Pendleton from Portland, each carrying a large number of Irishmen from the different sections of the state. This was done to prevent the presence of these people from becoming a cause of disturbance. The trains arrived at Pendleton late in the afternoon of the Pioneer Day, and the people were received with great enthusiasm.

MANY INDIANS TO CELEBRATE FEAST OF THE CORPUS CHRISTI

The Indian camp at Pendleton was the scene of a great celebration on Saturday, in connection with the Feast of the Corpus Christi. The Indians came in large numbers to participate in the festivities, which included a grand procession and a special service in the Catholic Church.
