FORD DRAGGED INTO CHURCH SQUABBLE

FORMER PENDLETON PASTOR ALLEGED TO BE AMBITIOUS

Friends of Rev. W. T. Easter of Sunnyside Declare Present Trouble Is Part of Deep Laid Plot to Make Rev. T. B. Ford Superintendent of Portland Division.

The name of Rev. T. B. Ford, another former pastor of the Methodist church in Pendleton has been dragged into the Easter controversy in Portland, according to the following from yesterday's Oregonian:

That the troubles of the Rev. W. T. Easter and the Sunnyside Methodist Episcopal church are the result of a deep laid conspiracy to make Rev. T. B. Ford, of Hood River, superintendent of the Portland district is the assertion made yesterday by friends of the pastor.

The action of the official board of the Sunnyside church in refusing to pay Mr. Easter's salary after June 15 is said to be a part of this plot. Mr. Easter contends that his action of the board is illegal and in defiance of the rules of the Methodist church, besides being in open rebellion to the bishop of the Oregon conference.

The conspiracy is alleged to be directed against both Mr. Easter and Rev. W. B. Hollingshead, the present district superintendent. The plan, it is said, is to land Mr. Ford in Mr. Hollingshead's place at the end of his term, which will come at the meeting of the Oregon conference in September. It is asserted a great many letters have been written by the so-called conspirators, which confirm the existence of a plot on the part of Mr. Ford and his friends and show that the issue is not so much against Mr. Easter personally. Letters covering 400 pages are said to have fallen into the hands of those affected, proving the existence of Mr. Ford's ambition.

Meeting Alleged Illegal.

The latest phase of the row is the action of the board taken last Monday night, when it decided it would not pay Mr. Easter's salary after June 15. Mr. Easter says this meeting was illegal, a "star chamber" session, not regularly called, as required, from the pulpit. The action came as a great surprise to the pastor, for he did not know the meeting was to be held until 10:30 o'clock that night, when he returned from the Hawthorne Park Tabernacle. Then Charles E. Lenon told him of it. Mr. Easter said of the affair:

"The meeting of the board had not been called for Monday night, but I announced at the tabernacle that there would be a board meeting next Monday night. It was an illegal meeting, according to the rules of the Methodist church, and an open rebellion, but in line with the policy of the faction which desires to ruin the Sunnyside Methodist church. It was a most distasteful thing to do toward a man who has been trying to erect this beautiful church and do his duty for the people for the board to hold a meeting without his knowledge and declare to cut off the salary of the pastor and set him and family adrift. "I have been sweet-tempered all the way through this trouble. I have continued to preach to the people. For some time I had no management of the finances of the new building. That was taken away from me some time ago by the building committee. The committee dismissed the architect and employed Fred G. Oppenheimer, a carpenter, to superintend the erection of the new church and paid him more than the architect fees, a pure graft.

"At a meeting Monday night, Rev. Henry P. Blake, who is not a member of this conference, was chosen to preside. When it came to a vote on the resolution to cut off my salary, Mr. Blake told the meeting that the action was rebellion, but Herbert Gordon, one of the leaders of the opposing faction, declared 'let it be rebellion then.' I am willing and ready to submit to the constituted authority of the Methodist church and have no fears of the result.

"I have said nothing unkind of the leaders of this faction, but have said if I have made mistakes I am sorry. I am not alarmed over the action taken. I have received many assurances of assistance and sympathy over the telephone today. There is an investigating committee of five with Charles E. Lenon as chairman, which has been making a careful investigation into all the details of the trouble, and will submit a full report covering every phase of the case. Bishop Smith also has been investigating the trouble.

Mr. Easter had nothing to say concerning the alleged conspiracy. He declared he would be loyal to the church, to the bishop and to the district superintendent, and declared that he would continue to preach at Sunnyside and to live on bread and water if necessary.

MUTT MAY BE CLASSIC, SAYS EASTERN SAVANT

Boston.—"Mutt and Jeff" may become a classic, according to Barrett Wendell, professor of English teacher of Cambridge since 1880, lecturer at the Sorbonne and other French universities, author of "English Composition," "A Literary History of America," "The Temper of the Seventeenth Century in English Literature" and other works. He says: "Mutt and Jeff some day in the future may be regarded as classic. The adventures of the genial Mutt and the credulous Mr. Jeff have furnished delight for many a humorous portrayal of contemporary life. Of course there is no absolute way of judging what the opinion of posterity will be upon any piece of contemporary work in literature or in art, but if Mr. Mutt and Mr. Jeff continue to entertain as they have done there is good reason to suppose that they will be classic."

"Just as our parents in the last century looked down upon the contemporary literature of their time and discountenanced the perusal of books written by those whom we now consider among the lesser novelists, so many would perhaps today ridicule the claim to distinction of these two novel characters."

A "FATHERS' DAY."

Spokane Organizations Would Pay Tribute to Head of House. Spokane, Wash.—Officers of the Spokane Ministerial Alliance and the Young Men's Christian association of Spokane are sending invitations to churches and allied organizations in towns and cities all over the United States to pay tribute to the head of the house on Fathers' Day, Sunday, June 19, the rose being suggested as a suitable flower to wear on the occasion.

Mrs. J. B. Dodd of 610 Sharp avenue, Spokane, who is the originator of the idea, thus explained the plan for a national movement in a petition to the ministers of this city: "The beautiful custom of Mothers' Day suggests the question: Why not a Fathers' Day? This is further emphasized by the celebration of Children's Day by our Sunday schools.

"Fathers' Day would call attention to such constructive teachings from the pulpit as would naturally point out: "The father's place in the home. "The training of children. "The safeguarding of the marriage tie. "The protection of womanhood and childhood. "The meaning of this, whether in the light of religion or of patriotism is so apparent as to need no argument in behalf of such a day, to be celebrated all over the country."

Rev. Dr. William J. Hindley, pastor of the Pilgrim Congregational church, said in discussing the movement:

"I'm glad there will be an opportunity to speak a few words in public for 'the old man,' who is entitled to a lot of praise; in fact, I do not believe any of us can say in words more than 'God' deserves. I am proud too, that the movement originated in Spokane, and I hope it will be generally observed in a national way."

afterward leasing it to a white man for a period of 25 years. After paying a year's rent the settler said he had bought the land outright from Nellie's white husband, Joseph Wilson. C. C. Bigelow proved upon the claim in 1886 and sold the holding to Wilcox in 1889. Old settlers say that Chief Garry and his daughter never lived on the land in dispute. However, the old squaw has so far convinced the commissioner of Indian affairs as to cause an investigation. Wilcox has been summoned to appear before the land commissioner in Spokane to show cause why the original entry and certificate of the government should not be set aside. Wilcox will fight the case as the land is worth fully $10,000.

Maybe the reason the paragraphs like to get up so many peek-a-boo waist jokes is that they are so easy to see through.

PARTED FORTY YEARS COUPLE MAKES UP

Jackson, Mich.—After being separated for forty years, as a result of a little difference which occurred early in their married life, Mr. and Mrs. Orson Howard have been brought together and will spend their declining years with their children in Jackson.

The bringing together of the aged couple is the cause of a big reunion which is now being held at the home of a son, William Howard, 523 Deyo street. Two brothers, John of Clinton, Iowa, and Gilbert Howard of Clinton, Mich., are attending the reunion, it being their first meeting in sixty years. Forty years ago the Howard family lived in Laporte, Ind. They had two sons, William B. and Frank W. Howard. Following a slight family difference the husband left home and two years ago, when he was located in the west, Mrs. Howard came to Michigan shortly after the separation and has lived in a number of cities of this state. For several years she has been residing with her two sons, Frank and William, in Jackson.

After the finding of the aged husband and father correspondence began which resulted in the reunion.

INDIAN SQUAW CLAIMS VALUABLE PROPERTY

Spokane, Wash.—Nellie Garry, an aged daughter of Garry, the once famous chieftain of the Spokane tribe, has laid claim to 160 acres of highly improved farm and orchard land in Bigelow Gulch, northeast of Spokane, occupied by J. T. Wilcox, a wealthy farmer. The woman claims she lived on the land more than 30 years ago.
