Tomorrow is flag day according to the proclamation of Governor Benson and the courts of Umatilla county and the state will therefore transact no business. All state and federal offices in this city will close and holiday hours will be observed at the loal postoffice.

There has been some question as to whether or not the day was really a non-judicial day, but according to the following dispatch from Salem all loubt has been removed and the local offices will observe the day;

Salem, Ore., June 13.-According o an opinion rendered by Chief Clerk H. H. Corey of the secretary of state's office Tuesday, June 14, will be non-judicial day and the courts will not be able to transact legal business. The opinion was rendered at years, the request of Clerk A. B. Combs of the circuit court for Baker county. All courts in the state will be affected.

June 14 has been set apart by Governor Benson by proclamation as a day of general observance to commemorate the creation of the American Flag and will be celebrated generally as Flag day. According to the laws of this state, certain holidays. uch as Christmas, Independence day, Labor day and Memorial day, are nonudicial days, and in addition any day appointed by the president of Orleans the United States or by the governor of this stee as a day of fasting, thanksgives or holiday."

COLLECTING POSTAGE STAMPS KING'S HOBBY

issue of British stamps will be a marked improvement on the present Edwardian series,

There is plenty of room for this improvement, and complaint have been made that there is a singular lack of artistic effect in the coloring and design of the stamps now in use

Most of the larger British colonies particularly Canada and South Africa, are far ahead of the Old Country in that respect, and some of the Canadian issue adready bear an excellent likeness of King George-as Prince

Wales, of course. It is pointed out, that, with the exeption of Russia, England is the only country issuing stamps which do not bear any indication, beyond the head of the Sovereign, of the country of their origin.

Collectors are looking forward to the issue of the George V stamps, which is not expected until next year.

IRISH CLUB TO SEND ATHLETES TO SOUTH

The Irish-American Athletic club of New York does not believe in doing things by half, says the Portland Journal. Last summer when the national championships were held at Seattle, Wash., President Conway and his advisers decided that it was not feasible to send the club's track team to the meet. Of course it would have been possible to have sent a half dozen good men, but it was "all or none" with Conway, and not a man went.

This year the championships will be at New Orleans in October. Already the athletic committee of the Irish-American club has decided to send a team that will probably outrank in size any team sent out by an American athletic club in recent

A member of the committee said the other night. "We are going to send to New Orleans every lad who does good work for us this summer. This will mean at least 35 men on the trip and maybe 45." The Irish-Americans will make a two weeks' trip of the journey to New Orleans and back, going both ways by Southern Pacific steamers. These ships are plenty large enough to allow the athletes to do a bit of rnnning around the deck daily during the five day trip to New
