

Big Hosiery Special

for Wednesday Only

20 Dozen Childrens Black Lace Hose nearly all sizes, Regular 25c Values for Wednesday Only, 2 Pair for 25c

30 Dozen Ladies Plain Colored Lisle all shades and small and large dots, sold all season 25c a pair Wed. Only 3 Pair 25c

F. E. Livengood & Co.

The Ladies' and Children's Store.

Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Official Weather Report.
Minimum temperature, 45.
Maximum temperature, 85.

Rose is Acting Agent.

Walter Rose is in charge at the O. R. & N. depot in the absence of Agent T. F. O'Brien, who is in Portland attending the meeting of Pacific coast freight agents.

Republicans in Session.

A meeting of the Republican County Central committee is in session at the court house this afternoon. E. W. McComas is in the chair and ways and means of selecting delegates to the state assembly are under discussion.

One Drunk in Jail.

One drunk was picked up last evening and owing to the fact that today was believed to be a legal holiday he was not given the privilege of saying whether he would take three days or pay five dollars. He is simply doing time.

Awarded Life Diplomas.

Among those who were awarded life diplomas at the Ellensburg state normal on June 11, were Mrs. Lavelle McDonald and Miss Mary Frances Williams of this city. With these papers in their possession they are permitted to teach in the state of Washington so long as they live without being compelled to take examinations.

Goes to Hoquiam.

Walter Eggerth, who has been connected with the local office of the Western Union Telegraph company, as messenger and substitute operator for the past several months, left this afternoon for Seattle. From that city he goes to Hoquiam to accept a regular position as operator in the Western Union office. Clara Edwards has been installed as messenger at the local office.

Made Long Auto Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Thompson and little daughter, Thelma, returned last night from Willamette valley points, having made the trip both ways with the exception of the distance between The Dalles and Portland, by auto. From Portland they went as far south as Brownsville and returned in time to attend the rose festival. In all they traveled 1096 miles with their machine without meeting with a single accident.

Runaway on Webb Street.

A team hitched to a wagon and left standing in front of the Empire lodging house on Webb street, became frightened at the Northern Pacific train about 2:30 this afternoon and ran away. The horses turned so short that they broke the reach and then dashed off down the street with the front wheels of the wagon. They accomplished their escape from the wagon with such ease that not even a cherry was spilled. In attempting to turn into the Oregon feed yard they collided with a telephone pole and the wheels were left. The horses were uninjured but the harness was wrecked.

Many Visit Wenaha.

According to Pendleton people who are returning from a brief stay at Wenaha the springs are to be more popular this year than ever before. The following is a list of recent visitors at the resort: Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Judd and son, Henry, Pendleton; John Keen, Athena; C. E. Roosevelt, Pendleton; George Lamont, Blue Mountain Sawmill; David Patch, Blue Mountain Sawmill; L. Vander Pool, Blue Mountain Sawmill; W. J. Furlish, Portland; Mark Moorhouse, Pendleton; E. C. Heringer, Pendleton; W. C. McKinney, Pendleton; C. S. Watts, Athena; C. E. Allen, Athena; W. L. Thompson, Pendleton; William Humphrey, Pendleton; J. R. Stott, Pendleton; F. E. Welch, Pendleton; W. W. Hoch, Pendleton; T. R. Hampton, Pendleton; Martin Hampton, Pendleton; C. F. Dement, Walla Walla; John Ankeney, Pendleton; John Lambirth, Pendleton; T. C. Taylor and wife, Pendleton; Leon Cohen and wife, Pendleton; D. M. Harvey and wife, Athena; H. H. Foss and wife, Athena; Bertha Anger, Pendleton; Mrs. J. R. Dickson, John Dickson, H. W. Dickson and F. A. Dickson, Pendleton; W. W. Baker and wife, Dorsey Baker, Mildred Baker, H. D. Baker, E. M. Baker, E. E. Shaw and wife, Douglass Ball, Frances Paine, G. W. Whitehouse and wife, W. A. Ritz and wife, Walla Walla; J. B. Perry and wife, Miss Jennie Purdy, E. P. Marshall and wife, Miss Neva Lane, Pendleton; J. B. Catron and wife, John Casper and wife, Miss Mary Thomas, Oscar Drumheller and wife, Doris Drumheller, Marion Drumheller, William Drumheller, T. J. Drumheller and J. D. Horton Brown Drumheller, J. Drystate, Walla Walla; A. H. Kirby and wife, Adams; G. B. Woodward, Adams.

LIMITS ON THE FLYING FOLKS

Six Hundred Pupils Learning to Soar in France.
Paris.—Stringent rules are being enforced by the French military authorities in consequence of the number of strangers attracted to Chalons camp by the aviation school.

Once several of the aviation pupils there is now a "flying colony" of 800 people—flew out beyond the aerodrome over the batteries and firing butts. The military commander of Chalons has now issued orders that no aeroplanes be to soar out of the flying ground, and flights are now only permitted for an hour before sunrise and after 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

Orpheum—Today's Program.

1. Her Life for Her Love. Eclipsed drama, 750 feet long.
2. Making Salt. Industrial, 250 feet long.
3. Macbeth. Pathe comedy, 350 feet long.
4. Gee, I'm Late. Pathe comedy, 250 feet long.
5. A Brave Little Girl. Pathe drama, 650 feet long.
6. Roadhead. Illustrated song.

Lee Teutsch will be at Appleton tomorrow in the interests of his clients.

Do you take the East Oregonian?

PRACTICAL FARMER HAS AVOIDED CROP FAILURE

Spokane, Wash.—C. W. Hensel of Waterville, Wash., 71 years of age, who has not suffered a crop failure in the last 20 years will be a delegate to the fifth dry farming congress in Spokane, also an exhibitor at the international exposition, October 2 to 8, entering dry farmed products in the various competitions, which are open to the world.

Mr. Hensel farmed in Minnesota until 1886, when he located on a farm at Waterville. While Campbell and others were experimenting in soil culture theories in Nebraska and Colorado, he determined to work out his salvation in the face of what were then believed to be unsurmountable obstacles. By watching the results of various schemes of soil treatment he discovered the secret of dry farming and gradually increased his yields of wheat from 20 to 40 bushels and oats from 30 bushels to 100 bushels. His books also show that no farmer in the west has produced more diversified crops under any system of farming. Corn, generally not supposed to be a paying crop on dry lands, rivals the best products of Illinois in quality and quantity, and he claims, too, that he has produced by dry farming methods every kind of fruit that can be grown in this zone under irrigation.

John T. Burns secretary of the dry farming congress, has also received advices from various parts of the provinces of Alberta and British Columbia, Montana, Colorado and Oregon that strong delegations and representative exhibits will be sent to Spokane and it is expected that Idaho, Wyoming, Washington and other western states will be adequately represented.

"I am also advised that Colorado, which captured many of the important prizes and trophies last year," said Mr. Burns, "is planning to carry off the honors again this year."

ACTRESS IN COURT.

Tiny Hat She Wore on Street Is Cause of It All.

Paris.—Paris is enjoying a comedy in which Liane de Pougy, the noted actress, Prince Ghika and a beehive hat are the principal characters. Prince Ghika, who is a typical boulevardier to whom Moni de Castellane is an athlete in appearance, was walking with Mme de Pougy at Saint Germain, when some passers-by indulged as was alleged, in certain disrespectful remarks on a tiny hat she was wearing. A scene followed, and the result was an assault, and battery on the person of the prince, who lodged a complaint of rude language addressed to herself by the party with which they had so unluckily come into collision.

Court Room Crowded.

All Paris who could possibly crowd into the court room, and several hundreds who could not, were present when the case was called. Camelets did a great business with the crowd with a song composed for the occasion, entitled, "Elle Avait un Petit Chapeau."

Prince Ghika relating the adventure to the judge said: "On Easter Monday I went with Mme. Liane de Pougy to Jousset's pastry shop. We had just been visiting some old curiosity shops, when we met several ladies who stared at my friend's hat. One of them exclaimed, 'Oh, what a hat! What a guy!' I said to Mme. Liane de Pougy, 'some people would do well to look at themselves in the glass before laughing at others,' and then a gentleman called me a little brute and other names."

"I understand," remarked the judge who came out with a delicate allusion to the probable word.

"That's it," the prince continued, "I turned round to hand my card to the gentleman, and received two blows. The police then came up and we all went to the station."

Mme. de Pougy was next interrogated. She raised a bejeweled hand to her forehead. She declared: "I was insulted. The name of 'migratory bird' was given to me."

"A bird with a long beak, which stands on one leg?" the judge queried. There was much merriment in the court at this.

"Exactly so," she replied, adding: "Then the prince was compared to an—compared to a fish."

"It was all so horrible that I could not repeat it here."

Prince Ghika did not deal any blows?"

"No," was the reply "he received them all. The scene passed very quickly; it was really instantaneous."

A lady friend who was along with Mme. de Pougy and the prince, having corroborated all this evidence, other witnesses were heard. One of them, who is connected with the pastry cook's shop, said that he had seen nothing, but had heard some rude language.

"Tell me," said the judge, "nobody will hear you. Did his assistant slap the prince with his open hand or closed?"

"I don't know, but it was a good slap," was the answer.

"Ah, yes." A first-class slap," was the judge's comment, and there was a roar of laughter.

The magistrate declared that he was unable to decide an issue involving criticism of Mme de Pougy's hat, and he therefore sent the case to the assizes.

WOMAN USES $50 BILL FOR A PORUS PLASTER

Middletown, N. Y.—The treasury department officials at Washington will shortly receive a porus plaster for which they will be asked to issue a $50 bill. A week ago a merchant of this city on retiring for the night, left some little lying on top of a dresser. He had a lame back and asked his wife to prepare a porus plaster. She did so, but after heating it accidentally dropped it in the dresser. In picking it up she did not notice the $50 bill still clinging to it and applied it to her husband's back.

The bill was missed and servants were suspected of having stolen it. The whole household worried over the matter until the merchant removed his porus plaster, and the bill was found sticking to it so firmly that it could not be removed without tearing it to pieces. The merchant will send the plaster to the treasury department for redemption.

Berlin.—The international congress of anarchists at Halle decided by a large majority to abandon their propaganda of deeds in favor of a purely peaceful propaganda.

By the Berlin peace authorities this new tact of the anarchists is accepted with very considerable reservation. It is not in fact believed that it will have any effect whatever on the violent anarchists and their propaganda of dynamite.

So long as a man seeketh his own will and his own highest good because it is his and for his own sake, he will never find it; for, so long as he doeth this, he is not seeking his own highest good, and how, then, should he find it?—Theologia Germanica.

TOMORROW

IS THE LAST DAY

OF THE CLEARANCE SALE

PRICES AT

Wohlenberg Dep't. Store
Better Goods for Less Money

CUSTOMS COLLECTOR LOEB NO RESPECTOR OF PERSONS

New York.—That the customs regulations are no longer a respecter of persons is being emphasized anew every day under the administration of Collector of the Port Loeb. Last week it was former Governor Rollins of New Hampshire who ran afoul of the law; this week Colonel Henry C. Stuart of Virginia, son of the famous Confederate cavalry leader; Mrs. Henry C. Frick, wife of the Pittsburgh multimillionaire, and Count Tedesco, of Italy, got tangled in the meshes of the customs net, now spread out with more care than ever to catch those who either by design or through lack of information contrive to evade the payment of duty on importations. The Sturats had their baggage held up pending an investigation of their dutiable foreign purchases and had to pay $1,823 to secure the release of their property. Mrs. Frick neglected to make any declaration at all and when pressed to explain said she had overlooked it. She paid duty on $2,000 worth of European bought goods in her possession and was allowed to depart after a delay that must have been keenly embarrassing and humiliating to a woman of her proud temperament. Count Tedesco did not fare so well. He and a companion were arrested on a charge of smuggling jewelry into the country. An examination of his trunks showed them to be equipped with false bottoms. In one day more than $15,000 was collected from would-be evasive passengers on the steamship piers. The stringency of the customs regulations under Loeb has added more than $3,000,000 to Uncle Sam's revenue since the 4th of March last.

EXHIBIT OF HUSBANDS IS LATEST NOVELTY

Pittsburg, Pa.—An "exhibit of husbands" is the novel show planned for this month by the Women's club, one of the most exclusive social organizations of the Smoky City. For weeks the "hubbies" have been groomed and put through their stunts in order that they may show up to the best advantage. "The husband show will take the place of the club's annual June rose festival.

Some time ago when a prominent clergyman of Pittsburg preached a sermon denouncing race suicide, and naming club and society women as the principal offenders, the Womens club held a baby show just to disprove the minister's statements.

Now, however, having properly exploited their babies, the women desire further to impress the ignorant persons of Pittsburg with the fact that they are really and truly home lovers, even if they do belong to clubs and for this purpose will give a field day, at which they will put their husbands on exhibition. The husbands of half the members of the Women's club don't know the husbands of the other half, but they will be made acquainted.

HURRY! HURRY!

Get Your Name down for an Appleton Tract before 10 a. m.

Tuesday, June 14.

Opportunity for such a small investment with such probable returns come but seldom

See LEE TEUTSCH

Real Estate and Insurance, Pendleton, Ore.

550 Main Street

Phone Main 5

Fresh Hood River

Strawberries

See Window

INGRAM'S GROCERY

Telephone Main 37

LOCALS

Pastime pictures please all. Get your horses clipped at the Commercial barn.

For sale—A bull. Seth M. Richardson, Pendleton, Oregon.

Trash hauled once a week. Phone Penland Bros. Black 3391.

Stop the Cheney Jersey dairy wagon for the best milk and cream.

We make a specialty of caring for private horses and rigs. Commercial Barn.

Loose wheat hay, baled hay and chopped hay fed at the Commercial Barn.

More moving pictures shown than any other theater in the city—the Pastime.

For rent—A nice cottage on north side, close in. Inquire Standard Grocery Co.

For rent—House corner Alta and College streets, opposite Presbyterian church. Apply to F. E. Judd.

Fix up your roofs with the best shipment of shingles ever received in Pendleton. Crab Creek Lumber Co.

Competent steam engineer wishes engagement with farmer or thrasher for the threshing season. Address Chas. Weston, Collio, Ore.

Head of Oregon and Idaho mules, three to six years old; gentle and well broke; weight from 1650 to 1200 lbs. Must be sold by June 14. E. W. Dooly, North Yakima, Wash.

For sale—A prosperous livery business in one of the best towns in eastern Oregon. Will invoice over $5000. The price is $5000 with terms. This is your opportunity. Call or write C. H. Jordan, La Grande, Ore.

For sale, 320 acres of No. 1 farming land five miles from station with abundance of water for irrigation, 150 acres of fine growing crop, 50 acres summer fallow, balance pasture land which can all be cultivated and irrigated. You get it all for $17,500, $5000 cash and very easy terms. Call or write C. H. Jordan, La Grande, Ore.

Foley's Kidney Remedy may be given to children with admirable results. It does away with bed wetting and is also recommended for us after measles and scarlet fever. Koeppen Bros.

Three Snaps. Must sell at once. One 17-room house, two blocks from depot, $1400, two 5-room modern houses close in, $500 and $850. All east fronts. Small payments down. Inquire C. C. Hendricks, over Taylor Hardware Co.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will brace up the nerves, banish sick headache, prevent drowsiness and invigorate the whole system. Sold by all dealers.

PRINCESS CHUM OF THE SWEDISH KING

Copenhagen, Denmark.—The king of Sweden and his pretty daughter-in-law, who was Princess Margaret of Connaught, have been described with great truth "as perfect chums" and

Koeppens' Bed Bug Destroyer

Gets Them All, Even Bed Bugs

25c The Bottle

It is in liquid form and so thin and penetrating that it goes into all the little cracks, killing the bugs and destroying the eggs as well, being of an antiseptic nature it gets the germs also. Each bottle is equipped with a shaker cork which makes it quite easy to apply.

KOEPPEN'S

The Drug Store That Serves You Best.