SOCIETY EVENTS

A beautiful June wedding was celebrated on Thursday evening of this week at the home of Hon. Benjamin Young, 1726 Duane street, when his daughter, Dr. Clara Reames, was married to Dr. Eldred B. Waffle of Pendleton, in the presence of a host of friends and relatives, says the Astoria Budget. The wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev. George F. Rosenmuller of Grace Episcopal church. The bridal couple during the service stood under a large bell of white roses suspended from the ceiling in an alcove in the south corner of the spacious parlor. The bride was presented by her father, while Miss Wilma Young, sister to the bride, acted as bridesmaid. Dr. John W. McCollom of Portland attended the groom. During the early evening preparatory to the ceremony, Stanley P. Young and Lawrence C. Rogers acted as ushers. At the conclusion of the beautiful ring service the reception to the bride and groom was held. They received the hearty congratulations from the hundreds of friends present. The bride made a queenly appearance. She was dressed in a beautiful gown of crepe de chine, made princess, decorated and trimmed in silver, and carried a large bouquet of bride's roses. Miss Wilma Young as bridesmaid, wore a pretty dress of chiffon, over pink with bead trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas. Miss Edith Smith of Portland, a guest of Miss Young, assisted in serving punch and was prettily dressed in white organdie over blue.

The members of the Thursday club and the D. M. C. club assisted in receiving the guests. The decorations were of special attraction, consisting of roses, carnations and greens. The parlors were decorated in white with roses and carnations, the library in yellow with the added beauty of Scotch bloom. The greens were fern and mock orange. The dining and refreshment rooms were in pink and white. The flowers and foliage used in the adornment of the home were grown in Mr. Young's garden surrounding his residence. During the evening reception an orchestra of six pieces furnished the music. The bride and groom were presented with many handsome gifts, in silver and cut glass, ornamental brass and china. Dr. Waffle and his bride after spending a few weeks at Lomma cottage, Seaside, the summer residence of the Young family, will leave for Pendleton, Oregon, to reside for a short while where Dr. Waffle enjoys a large practice. It is their intention later to make an extended trip to Europe. The out of town guests and relations attending the wedding were: Mrs. Ida Fowler and son Edward, Pendleton, sister of Dr. Waffle, and his brother, Mr. Alfred Waffle. Mr. Donald Stuart of Portland and Miss Edith Smith of Portland.

Dr. Clara W. Reames whose marriage to Dr. Waffle was held on Thursday, was tendered a linen shower on Saturday evening last by Miss Alma Holmes who was hostess to the members of the D. M. C. club. Dr. Reames was presented with many splendid pieces of linen, the needlework of the individual club members. During the early evening gathering tables were arranged for the popular card game of five hundred. Miss May Utzinger was the fortunate prize winner, the gift being a handsome cut glass candle stick. Miss Holmes made beautiful decorations and received many compliments from the guests for her exquisite style. The color scheme was in pink, green and gold with the ornamental designs in pink hearts and gold horse shoes. The table decorations were in pink and green. Miss Holmes was assisted during the evening shower party by Mrs. George Nelson and Miss Guskie Holmes.—Astoria Budget.

Miss Grace Bean entertained several members of the Sigma Epsilon Omicron sorority at the home of Judge and Mrs. H. J. Bean last Saturday evening. A mock marriage, various games and other forms of amusement were indulged in until a late hour. The refreshments served at the close are said to have been exceptionally toothsome and elaborate. Among those present were the Misses Laura McKee, Hazel Means, Edith Slusher, Edna Storie, Edith Johnson, Nona Johnson, Gertrude Jordan, Irene Shea, Viola Shea, Blanche Badley, Gwendoline Smith, Eveline Semmerville, Gladys Hamley, Edna Thompson and Edna Zimmerman.

Mrs. G. W. Phelps and two daughters, and Miss Helen Hart, left Thursday evening for Hilgard to attend the wedding of Miss Vira Hart, sister of Mrs. Phelps and Miss Hart. Tomorrow morning at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hart in Hilgard Miss Hart becomes the bride of Mr. Frank Rechin. Following the ceremony they will leave for a wedding trip to California and returning will make their home in La Grande. Miss Hart has been employed as an operator in the Hilgard station for some time, while the groom-to-be is a locomotive engineer.

Miss Bernice Ruppe, Miss Una Smith and Miss Edna Thompson were the guests of honor at a breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Slusher, Thursday morning. The floral decorations were composed of sweet peas, while the place cards were hand painted. Each guest was presented with a charming souvenir in the shape of a picture of the three guests of honor in a small gold frame. Those present in addition to the guests of honor and the hostess, Miss Edith Slusher, were Sybil Clifton, Grace Bean, Edna Storie and Grace Fennell.

Umatilla, Ore., June 15.—Mr. Will Switzer and Miss Deed O'Connell, both of Umatilla, were married in Portland on Wednesday. The marriage was a surprise, as both presumably had gone to Portland for the rose festival. Both of the young people were very popular and the best wishes of all follow them in their matrimonial journey. They leave Portland in a few days on an extended trip, visiting San Francisco, Los Angeles and thence to Arizona and New Mexico, where Mr. Switzer has relatives.

Mrs. E. J. Burke was the hostess at a charming luncheon Wednesday in honor of her sister, Mrs. Seth Catlin of Portland. Others who were present were Mrs. Harry Ross, Mrs. E. P. Dodd of Hermiston, Mrs. Augusta

Moule and Mrs. G. W. Phelps. Cards were played following the luncheon.

ENGLISH LIKE MRS. WIGGIN.

Creator of "Penelope" Declines Bid to Write of Wales.

London.—English readers were quick to appreciate a new literary delight when years ago Mrs. Kate Douglas Wiggin's charming book, "A Cathedral Courtship," appeared. Since then their liking has been turned into allegiance by "Penelope's" various experiences in different parts of the British Isles. Thousands of readers want "Penelope" to travel in Wales, but her clever creator does not take kindly to the idea. "Having got away from England, Ireland and Scotland with clean skirts I shall remain content," said Mrs. Wiggin to an interviewer during her stay in London. "It would, I am sure be an error of literary taste, and those who urge me to send 'Penelope' to Wales would be the first to say when the book appeared 'why ever did she do it?'"

General agreement is expressed with Mrs. Wiggin's contention that girls between 13 and 15 years of age are starving for a homely transcript of everyday life. The old-fashioned "goodly-goodly" books for girls are dead as the dodo, and it is high time that a better order of story was forthcoming for them. Mrs. Wiggin's expressed intention of filling the gap is good news for young readers.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it

How To Find Out.
Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours. A brick dusted with ment, or settling, stringy or milky appearance often indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back are also symptoms that tell you the kidneys and bladder are out of order and need attention.

What To Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge often expressed, that Dr. Kilmey's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills almost every wish in correcting rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. Corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bur effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. If you need a remedy that will have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmey & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Mention this paper and remember the name, Dr. Kilmey's Swamp Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and so GIVES HEALTH AND STRENGTH TO THE WHOLE BODY.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine or know's composition, not even though the dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Ingredients printed on wrapper.

'HOODOO' CAUSES WEDDING.

At Least Colored Woman Says So in Suit for Divorce.

New York.—"Voodoo" or "hoodoo" she wasn't sure which, but one of them was responsible for her marrying Mrs. Lillian Gillum, colored, 25 Greenwich street, told Supreme Court Justice Whitney in applying for an annulment of her marriage to Arthur Gillum.

"To honah, I never wanted to marry Arthur," she told the court. "That feller just kep' a pesterin' and a pesterin' me to marry him and I always tells him, 'No Arthur, I likes you mighty well, but not enough to marry you.'"

"Then one day, yo' honah, he takes me to his aunt's in New Jersey and we has chicken fo' dinner, and then Arthur and me and his folks go to a walk and we calls at a house and when we comes out they tell me it was a preacher's house and Arthur and me was married. I left then and got home mighty quick; then I got conscious and knew what I was doin'."

"Do you mean to suggest you were the victim of voodooism?" "Well, I don't know 'bout that, yo' honah, but sure the hoodoo was working all right."

"That feller Arthur comes to my mother's home two weeks after and gives me a pocketbook with one measly cent in it. That penny must have been a hoodoo, 'cause I let Arthur live at my mother's home for two weeks. Then I handed that pocketbook and cent back to Arthur and he left me and the hoodoo went, too."

Justice Whitney reserved decision.
