CROWDS FLOCKING TO NORTH BEACH

The fine weather prevailing on the North Beach, is bringing hosts of visitors to the Ocean shore, intent on securing rest and a good coat of tan.
The outlook is particularly bright for a remarkably busy season this summer, the number of visitors at this time being far greater than ever before at the same time of the year.
The march of Progress is evident throughout the entire length of the Beach, and development being assured, prosperity is but a matter of course. Work on the Automobile Boulevard is progressing very rapidly, beach houses by the score are being erected, and new rooming houses and old are being rapidly put into shape to take care of the hoards of summer transients which will soon be down upon us.
The North Beach Push Club with its combined effort, shouldering the Wheel of Progress, has awakened an era of activity, which will undoubtedly secure the proper recognition of the unsurpassed advantages of the North Beach for enjoyable outings, and, at the same time, all the comforts of home.
Negotiations are now pending with Portland capitalists for the installation of a water system to supply the beach and surrounding countryside with fine mountain water. With the culmination of this project, one of the obstacles to an otherwise incomparable locality is obliterated.
Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will brace up the nerves, banish sick headache, prevent drowsiness and invigorate the whole system. Sold by all dealers.

KAISER TO SPRING IDEA.

At Fall Maneuvers New Uniforms Are to Be Tried.
Berlin.—Grand military maneuvers to be held in eastern Prussia in the early fall, when the kaiser will see some Wright aeroplanes in use for scouting purposes. Also he will witness tests with the new green-gray uniform he invented himself as a color of advantage to troops. He believes this shade of cloth will enable troops to move unobserved more rapidly than anything yet in use.
At these maneuvers there will be nearly 1,000,000 men under arms. Special charges are reserved for the kaiser for these maneuvers, for the emperor in the field is a tireless head of a mighty organization, and several mounts are needed for a day's operations.
Aviation, apart from the aeroplanes will occupy a big section in the maneuvers, for there are numerous military pupils in training at the aviation school at Friedrichshafen, established by the 15,000 members of the German Aerial Military League, and the number of military balloons is constantly growing. The difficulty of anchorage for the Zeppelin type of airships is steadily being overcome by the creation of numerous shelters. But the frequent wrecks of this type and the success with aeroplanes abroad is causing Germans to lose faith in their airships.
Six national aviation weeks are fixed in Germany before the maneuvers come on, and the war ministry is offering prizes for the best military airship results. But Germany's prize list for aviation is still away behind that of France.

Are These Things Stationary?

Playing cards (including whist and bridge sets), poker chips, pocketbooks and purses, shears and scissors, handbags, suitcases, souvenir bags, vanity bags, pass cases, nail clips, files and brushes, manicure sets, safety razors (and extra blades), matches, wedding announcement cards, post card albums, photograph envelopes, hunting knives, cuff cases, button box, glove stretcher, band box, sewing box, shopping bag, cigar lighter, jewel case, ash tray, opera bags, quinine pills, listerin, peroxide of hydrogen, peusin, trichinal, soda tablets, witch hazel, smelling salts, ammonia, cough drops, anikamma, Jamaica ginger, vasoline, olive oil, court plaster, rose extract, brilliantine, sediltz powders, bromoseltzer.
They are so entered in the books of congress, and are supplied to the congressmen themselves at public expense.
This is petty pilfering, of course, and involves no very large expenditure. But can Uncle Sam afford to entrust the men who have drifted into this lax attitude toward the public money with the expenditure of a billion dollars a year?—Success.

WOMEN ESTABLISH BANK.
Berlin Institution Will Fill New Field.
Berlin.—How systematically the development of the woman's movement is progressing in Germany may be judged from the fact that an independent Women's Joint Stock bank is about to be established. The bold step is being taken by a number of women in Wilmsdorf, one of the newest of the western suburbs of Berlin, who have had experience in the conduct of public affairs and have acquired an extensive knowledge of business methods.

These women have formed themselves into a species of syndicate, and have issued a circular in which their aims are set forth. They say that many of the obstacles which have so long blocked the way of women desirous of attaining independence have been removed, but that there is still no organization whose special task is to protect an independent woman and assist her in times of need. The ordinary banks, both public and private, are, they say, somewhat skeptical concerning the business capabilities of women, and, moreover, it is hardly within their province to lend such small sums as independent women are frequently needing.
The object of the new undertaking is to supply this demand, and it is proposed to start with a capital of $25,000 in shares of $25 each. It is hoped that many independent women, whether engaged in making their own livelihood or not, will assist the enterprise by opening deposit accounts or treating it as a savings bank. From the ready money thus obtained advances would be made on good security to women temporarily in pecuniary straits; bills of exchange would be discounted and the usual business of bankers carried on.
A considerable proportion of the profits made by the projected bank is to be added to the reserve fund of the Mutterschafts-Vericherung, a species of mutual benefit society, the object of which is to furnish the aid that may be rendered necessary by the circumstances of motherhood. The main feature of the scheme is that it endeavors to preserve the health of parent and child by enabling the mother to save her earnings.

Back from Elba.
New York, June 18.—Ninety-five years ago this day a certain distinguished warrior, late of Elba, met another certain distinguished warrior at a place called Waterloo. As a result of the meeting, the gentleman from Elba was fated to spend the remainder of his days in St. Helena and innumerable desuetude.
There are those—among them mal-factors and great wealth, plain and fancy lars, mollycoddlers, race suit-ciders, nature fakirs and undesirable citizens—who profess to see in the coincidence of dates an ill omen for Col. Theodore Roosevelt, who arrived in town today on the Auguste Victoria from Africa, Europe and way stations.
If there is a "jinks" on Col. Roosevelt, however, it was not in evidence today. Certainly no citizen of the United States or elsewhere, private or public, ever received such a reception as was accorded today to the returning nimrod.
