Interurban Car Crashes Into Automobile With Fatal Results.

MAN AND WOMAN ARE INSTANTLY KILLED

Man is Wealthy Astoria Salmon Packer-Woman Not Known But Was Not His Wife-Wife Sick in Bed at the Time-Reckless Driving While on Crossing Loses Man His Life-Every Bone in Victims Bodies Broken,

Los Angeles, Cal., June 21.-With a crash that splintered the lighter vehicle and hurled wreckage and victims a hundred feet, a Santa Ana su-burban car of the Pacific Electric tracks collided with an automobile at Florencita Park, last night, and Samuel Elmore, a wealthy Oregon salmon packer, and land owner of Astoria, Ore., was killed. A woman, said to be a Mrs. Garretson of Astoria, was with Elmore in the motor car, and also met with instant death. Nearly every bone in the bodies of the two victims his daughter and took apartments at a Pasadena hotel.

Mrs. Elmore was stricken with a serious illness several weeks ago and night. It was said that she was too weak to bear the ill news.

Caught on Crossing. The accident occurred at a crossing which leads a wagon road over the four track system connecting the beach and other surrounding towns with Los Angeles. According to several persons who saw the crash, Elmore was driving behind two heavily loaded wagons and was trying to pass them as the suburban car, coming at express train speed, neared the cross-car, just behind the driver's seat. The Terms were agreed upon, and the woman throw her arms about Elmore. Mass of Splinters.

The woman had nineteen hundred dollars in her purse, which she said her husband had given her the day before. Webb is known to the Seattle police. He says he saw Johnson at the Union depot last night. Mrs. Johnson says Webb and her husband went walking yesterday afternoon. The murder was committed at the Grand Central hotel, room 119. The mattress and sheets were bloody and the room topsy turvy. Webb occupied the room across the hall. Long, the hotel porter, says Webb and the woman spent the afternoon packing and repacking trunks and that he finally moved one which he later identified as the one containing the body. The murder was discovered when blood seeped from the trunk.

Webb was searched at the station and two bloody handkerchiefs were found in his pockets and two watches, one of which Mrs. Johnson says belonged to Johnson. The police now assert Mrs Johnson is not his wife, but one of a well known Seattle gang, which has been under surveillance.

The trunk was checked to Puyaliup, Wash., and was traced through an expressman to the hotel,
