

Indigestion Cured

Mrs. D. H. Yowell cannot praise Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey too highly. It completely cured her after she had suffered from indigestion for years and when nothing else did her any good. She says it is the greatest remedy in the world for all stomach troubles:

"I wish to testify to the excellent results obtained through the use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. I had suffered for years with indigestion and had tried different remedies but received very little relief, so I tried Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey and the effect was wonderful. It is the best stomach remedy in the world. I can recommend it most highly to any one suffering from indigestion or any stomach trouble." Mrs. D. H. Yowell, 321 So. Pine St., Richmond, Va.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain. When taken at meal-time it stimulates the mucous surfaces and little glands of the stomach to a healthy action, thereby improving the digestion and assimilation of the food and giving to the system its full proportion of nourishment. This action upon the digestive process is of great importance, as it brings to all the tissues and organs of the body the nutriment necessary to their sustenance and indirectly to the whole system strength and vigor. It makes the old feel young and keeps the young strong and vigorous.

CAUTION.—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It is an absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey and is sold in SEALED BOTTLES ONLY—never in bulk. Look for the trademark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Price $1.00 a large bottle. Write Medical Department, The Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y., for doctor's advice and an illustrated medical booklet, containing testimonials and rules for health, both sent free.

Speaking of his recent match with Abe Label, Louie didn't have any apologies to offer. "He just won and that's all," said Long. "You know he's one of these fast stepping, fancy little boys that keeps jumping around all the time and makes it appear that he is landing lots of blows when he isn't. I wasn't hurt a bit when we got through, but he got the match."

Louie, who by the way, claims Spokane as his home and says he likes the place better than any other town in the northwest, was a visitor at Jack Johnson's training camp about a month ago and declares there is nothing to it but Johnson. Long knows the big dinge pretty well. He has been an intimate friend of the negro's for the biggest part of a decade, and has boxed with Johnson more than once.

"These fellows who are putting up their coin on Jeffries are men with money," said Long this morning. "They aren't real fight followers and they are allowing race prejudice to influence them. I fully expect to see Jeffries remain the favorite and wouldn't be surprised if betting favors Jeff two to one at the ringside, but the boys who know anything about pugilism are putting up their rocks on Little Arthur."

NOLIN NEWS AND PERSONAL NOTES

(Special Correspondence.)
Nolin, June 22.—G. B. Hartle visited Echo yesterday.
J. S. Preston spent Sunday in Pendleton.
W. A. Slusher went to Pendleton Saturday returning Monday.
Bert Wisdom made a flying trip to Pendleton yesterday.
J. P. Dellwo's combine is the first to him this season.
Chas. Barnes and S. W. McClure came down from Pendleton last Thursday in an automobile but had to return by train owing to too much rain and mud.
Elmer Lowe, employee of the Wilcox and Kirkpatrick Implement Co., came down Sunday to set up a McCormick header for B. Wisdom. The header did not arrive, however, until yesterday.
W. O. Hays went to his Kilekatz county, Wash., ranch today.
R. S. Austin, who purchased the improvements on the homestead of the late Lewis Updike, came from Stites, Idaho, last week and took possession of his new home. Besides his family, a wife and one child, he was accompanied by a Mr. Charlie Thompson and wife.
Louis Scholl, Jr., of Echo, had the misfortune to have to walk home from here by neglecting to procure a lantern to flag the motor last night which was delayed by debris on the track caused from a blast at Coe.
J. P. Dellwo has gained the distinction of being the best foot-racer in this community. A rigid test was accorded Mr. Dellwo and his McCormick reaper last Friday by a team of mules becoming frightened at a dog skulking in the hay field while Mr. Dellwo was not in reach of his reins. The swift flected driver overtook the long eared quadrupeds after a long chase and with the exception of the sprinters breath being a bit short no damage was done.
At the annual school meeting in District No. 28 held at the Nolin school house Monday, G. B. Hartle was elected a director for three years to succeed J. P. Dellwo, who was elected last fall to fill the unexpired term of the late Lewis Updike.
Joe F. Fisher was reelected as clerk for the ensuing year. Nolin has one of the best schools in the county and as an indication of its remaining such a special levy of 1-1/2 mills was voted without a dissenting voice which in addition to the state and county levies we will have plenty of funds for the next school year. W. O. Hays is chairman of the board and Jacob Rohde is the other director.

UNIQUE AGREEMENT.

Millionaire and Wife, Separated, Arrange for Community Property.
Spokane, Wash.—William Huntley, millionaire banker and bonanza wheat rancher of Spokane, who laid the foundation of his fortune with a team of Missouri mules, and his wife, formerly Emma V. Langford, then an acknowledged belle of Audrain county, Mo., have just entered into an unique settlement and agreement for handling their community property, following Mrs. Huntley's application in the Spokane county superior court for a divorce, charging that Huntley was "close" in money matters with his wife and family.

Huntley will be manager under contract for 20 years at a salary including office expenses, not to exceed $3,000 a year, of the Huntley Investment company, capitalized for $1,200,000 and incorporated in the state of Washington and Spokane county. The life of the corporation is 50 years. One hundred thousand dollars of the capital stock will be issued to Huntley, the same amount to Mrs. Huntley and to each of their 10 children. Provisions are made against the division, distribution or dissolution of the estate. The first trustees are William Huntley, Jesse B. Huntley, the eldest son, and Edwin T. Coman, president of the Exchange National Bank of Spokane, a friend of the family. Other children may become trustees as they attain their majority. The Mechanics' Loan & Trust company has been appointed trustee for the minor children.

The revenue from the property, which includes stocks in banks, farms, irrigation plants and mercantile establishments, is to be divided into 12 equal parts, with the special provision that Mrs. Huntley's income shall not be less than $300 a month for herself and $1,000 a year for each of the seven minor children, of which she will have custody. The three adult children will each receive one-twelfth of the earnings. It is also provided that the company shall purchase a residence in Spokane for Mrs. Huntley at a cost not to exceed $15,000, to be used by her during her lifetime.

The corporation agrees to pay all the debts and assume all the liabilities of the community now outstanding. In the case of the death of either of the principals or any of the children during the period of the 20-year pooling agreement, the trust agreement shall remain undisturbed the husband or wife to have the individual privilege of disposing of their respective interests subject to that agreement, the interest of any child leaving a direct descendant or descendants passing to such issue. In the event of a child dying and leaving no issue the stock set aside will become the property of the corporation to be shared by the remaining members.

The principals expressly withhold granting to the child any vested right in the estate and reserve the right to alter by unanimous agreement the terms for its distribution.

Carolina Stock Industry.
Monroe, N. C., June 22.—That both North and South Carolina are forging to the front as live stock centers is the assertion of delegates to stockmen's and veterinary surgeons' convention, opened here today. Large sections of North Carolina are peculiarly adapted to the raising of thoroughbred stock, and the farmers of the state are just coming to an active realization of this fact.

Indiana Endeavorers.
Terre Haute, Ind., June 22.—With a program which includes the names of some of the most prominent Christian workers in the country, the twenty-third annual convention of the Indiana Christian Endeavor Union opened today what promises to be a highly interesting and successful meeting.

It is the ambition at the back of effort that compels success.

BURGO HOPES MULLIN IS IN GOOD SHAPE

Walter Burgo, who is to meet Barney Mullin in his city tomorrow evening, writes that he has been training consistently and hard and that he is in first class condition for the coming bout. He will come over from La Grande tomorrow morning on the local train to be ready for his encounter in the evening. He says he will be accompanied by a good sized crowd of La Grande fight fans and he expresses the hope that Mullin is in the best of condition. He says if Mullin is in condition "it will be interesting while it lasts." The bout is scheduled to go 15 rounds and will be pulled off at the Oregon theatre.

LOUIE LONG PREPARES FOR ANOTHER FIGHT

Fight fans of the city who saw Louie Long in his two bouts with Billie Butts this winter will be interested in the following clipping from the Spokane Inland Herald.

Louie Long, one of the best light-weight fighters in the northwest, who is matched to meet Kid Ogilby in Wallace early in July, blew into town Monday morning on his way to the battleground. Louie is the picture of health and declares he is feeling as good as he ever did in his life. He tips the scales today at about 140 pounds and will have to take off seven pounds before he steps into the ring with Ogilby. The match is to be held either July 2 or 3 for a $750 purse.
