Lost Man Is Found.
Joseph Fournier, the aged German who wandered from the train at the local station yesterday morning, was located late in the afternoon by Chief of Police Gurdane. The old man had spent nearly the entire day sitting along the walk on Jackson street.

Concert Postponed.
Owing to the unfavorable weather, no band concert was held in the pavilion last evening and from present indications there will be no concert this week. The program which was to have been rendered last night will probably be given next week.

Will Ship Cattle.
Thirty-five stock cars arrived in Pendleton this morning over the Northern Pacific and they will be sent back out to Seattle, the first of the week. As they go back they will be loaded with fat beef cattle from the Umatilla county ranges.

Manning Boy Dies.
Robert Manning, the 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Manning, died yesterday morning at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bahr of Fulton, after a lingering illness with spinal meningitis. The remains have been taken to Pilot Rock where interment will take place tomorrow morning.

Johnson Takes Last Hike.
San Francisco, June 23.—Up early Johnson took his last hike over the Ocean Beach roads today. He will do fast gymnasium work, spar some and then his apparatus will be packed. Johnson and his staff leave tonight for Reno in a special car. It is declared Johnson's condition is splendid.

Mrs. Crayne Returns.
Mrs. Anna Z. Crayne, matron of Koontz hall, returned on the noon train from University City, Missouri, where she had been to attend the American Woman's league convention. She also attended the annual convention of the national medical association which was held in St. Louis.

To Fish for Bankers.
A party of anglers left at 2 o'clock by automobile for Camas creek where they will spend tomorrow in catching trout for the bankers' banquet at Wenaha springs Saturday. Those in the party were Pat Murphy, C. K. Cranston, Will Humphrey and O. F. Turner. They will return early Saturday morning. Other fishermen leave tonight for the headwaters of the Umatilla and Meacham creeks.

Author Is Here.
Miss Katherine B. Judson, head of the periodical department of the Seattle public library and an authoress of some note, is in Pendleton for a few days. She came over for the express purpose of getting some illustrations for her latest book, "Indian Myths and Legends." This will be off the press in September or October. She will be here for two or three days.

Laborer Is Injured.
Will Ryan, an employe of the Two-Brothers' construction camp at Coe, was brought to this city last evening with a crushed leg. It seems that a "dinky" engine fell over onto him. If there was any doubt as to his nationality it was quickly dispelled when he began to go under the influence of the anaesthetic, for he immediately began talking about "home rule."

Students Win Honors.
Two Umatilla county boys who are members of the class which graduated from the University of Oregon were among the few who received special honor for excellence of these. Dean T. Goodman, a graduate of Pendleton High, and C. Palne Shangle of Milton, were the students thus distinguished. The thesis of the former was "Finances of the City of Portland 1879-1908," and of the latter "Initiative and Referendum."

James Hager Dies.
James Hager, brother of R. C. Hager of Gibbon and Mrs. George O'Daniel of this city, died at his home in Heppner last evening, at the age of 68 years. His interment will take place Sunday. Mrs. O'Daniel and his niece, Mrs. Lee D. Drake will go over for the funeral. The wife of the deceased died a few months ago but he is survived by seven children as follows: Osmand Hager of Heppner, Mrs. Grace Storie of Saskatchewan, Canada, Mrs. Edyth Leach of Heppner, and the Misses Lulu, Marie, Sybil and Ruth who lived at home.

terpiece there are two dolls, each holding a savings account passbook, and sitting beneath an open umbrella, representing the slogan, "Provided for a Rainy Day." In the front of the window is a small safe surrounded by small savings banks and other articles and supplies characteristic of the bankers' profession. The background is composed of the celebrated "Pendleton Line" of Indian robes, together with many other articles of first class collateral.

To Attend Y. W. C. A. Convention.
Miss Leell Evans, daughter of Rev. Nathan Evans of the Methodist church, leaves today for "The Breakers," Long Beach, Wash., to attend the annual conference of the College Y. W. C. A. She and Miss Cathryn McKay of Sunnyside, Wash., are delegates from the Washington state normal school at Ellensburg.

The first session of the conference is held Friday evening and will continue in session till the morning of July 4. Many leading educators and Christian workers from different parts of the United States will be present. The forenoons will be devoted to study classes while the afternoons will be given over to sports, excursions, etc. Some prominent person will deliver a lecture every evening. The beautiful hotel, "The Breakers" has been leased for the eleven days' session and the delegates will be royally entertained at this charming resort.

Train Men Were Gallant.
As a demonstration of the belief that all employes of railroads are not lacking in gallantry, Mayor Murphy is telling of an incident which happened on East Court street near the hospital Tuesday evening. Mrs. Murphy was driving along the street when a heavily loaded freight train came puffing up the grade with so much noise that the horse became frightened, turned sharply and threw Mrs. Murphy out. She hung onto the lines notwithstanding the fact that one of the front wheels was on her back and in this position she was being dragged along the street by the frightened animal when the train crew stopped their train on the steep grade and rushed to her assistance. The act is greatly appreciated by the mayor as well as by Mrs. Murphy.

Minnesota Bankers Meet.
St. Paul, Minn., June 22.—Minnesota bankers in large numbers were present when the annual state convention was called to order here today. Many financial topics of national importance will be discussed at the sessions, which will be continued tomorrow.

Near Beer Licenses Renewed.
Pendleton's near beer dispensers were all granted renewals of their licenses by the council at last night's meeting of the council. No objection was made in the meeting at least, to the renewal of any one of them. The special telephone committee reported that it wanted further time to disprove or verify the figures presented by District Superintendent Van Houtte of the Pacific company. It was reported that the fish screens at the head of the Byers mill race had been pulled above the water, probably without the knowledge of the owners of the mill, and the city attorney was instructed to take the matter up with the mill management. If the screen is kept in the water the hordes of trash fish will be kept out of the race and will not collect at the lower end to create a stench in the nostrils of the residents.

NATRON EXTENSION IS BEING RUSHED FAST

Eugene, Ore.—Construction on the Natron extension will be rushed harder than ever this summer in an effort to complete the work next fall before the wet weather begins. About 1250 laborers are on the line and this number will be increased as fast as the contractors can get men. Two additional steam shovels are on the way and a force with a power plant will go over the divide and commence work on the big tunnel and work this way to meet the boring on this side that is now over half finished. The three bridges will be put in this summer also. It is thought that if the men can be obtained the 35 miles on this end of the line can be finished by December—or almost within a year after the real work commenced.

The work on the tunnels is progressing very rapidly. The usual cut on each of them is about six feet a day. On tunnel No. 3, which is the longest, the cutters have entered the mountains 938 feet, which is over half the distance. Machinery and supplies are now being hauled over the mountain to set up a compress and power plant so that men can bore from the other side, and be working both ways.

Work on the three bridges will soon begin. The Middle Fork bridge will be 250 feet long and has two piers and abutments, and the others are 300 feet long, with the same construction. The bridges are of steel and the abutments and piers of concrete.

The Southern Pacific steel crew will begin work about the middle of July and the work of laying the rails will continue until winter. At present there are about 4000 tons of 90 pound steels in the yards at Natron. The contractors expect to have all the rails and bridges connected as far as Oak Ridge by the middle of December.

When this is done the base of supplies will be moved from Natron to Oak Ridge. It will be from there that the next contract will be worked.

Will the party who took the umbrella by mistake from Eagle-Woodman hall Saturday night, June 18, please return same to V. Stroble.

An egotist is a man who thinks he has an impartial opinion of himself.
