The divisionists make assertions to the contrary. But from the reservation" are always upthat is "campaign" talk. That same argument was advanced in favor of the creation of Hood River county: or who owns property in Hood River, found his taxes increased $1.4 per cent the first year of the new county's existence. It is the history of every new county that division Simon run the state assembly. brings on Increased taxation. This is only natural.

Another feature of these division fights is the fact that division measures are sprung when the people residing in the proposed new counties do not want division at all. Take for ers was under discussion and a story instance the "Orchard" county was told that was held to Illustrate scheme. Manifestly the people residing in the greater portion of that proposed county do not want division. Two of the four towns included in "Orchard" county are hotly opposed to the division. They are Weston and Athena. They have good reason for being opposed. Division will mean increased taxation and that at the corners. "Where's your horse, business now held by Athena and Jim?" Weston will be diverted to Walla Walls. Milton people imagine they get?" will get that business. But they wont: Milton is practically a suburb of Walla Walla and such it will always remain. The "Orchard" county measure was drafted in secret by a little clique of Millon business men. It is purely a selfish measure. Representative men living right in Milton and in Freewater are opposed to the proposition. In communications to this paper they have so declared themselves. Even the newspapers of Milton and Free- ones in that vicinity were numerous water have falled to take up with the and cheap. EXTEND THE PROJECT.

It begins to look like Oregon may not fare so well as it should in the matter of further U. S. reclamation From the milk-white work. The law has been changed which required that money collected from the sale of lands within a state hould be expended within that state. This may work against Oregon. Then the reclamation service has been so attacked by newspapers and by parles opposed to government irrigation that Oregon's chances will be still Fame is the scentless flower, with further lessened.
