Holdups Kill Barkeeper.
The Dalles, Ore.—Two holdup men shot and killed Joe Rossi, a barkeeper in a near beer establishment, on two miles from Shearar's bridge, on the Deschutes river Sunday night. They entered the saloon about 9:15 and ordered Rossi to throw up his hands. When he failed to comply they began shooting. The murderers escaped. A posse is in pursuit.

Cannot Invoke Initiative.
Salem, Ore.—Attorney General Crawford holds that the people of the road district cannot invoke the initiative to enact special road taxes or special road laws of any kind for the reason that the legislature is expressly prohibited from passing special road laws and that the constitutional prohibition also applies to enactments by the people.

Chinaman Is Killed.
Salem, Ore.—O. Wong, a Chinaman, 65 years old, fell from a training trestle Tuesday in the hop yards of Wong Chung He, about 15 miles north of Salem and was almost instantly killed. Wong lost his balance and fell from the trestle work while it was being hauled over the ground from one vine to another. He fell on his neck and fractured his spinal column.

Foreigner Will Die.
Stevenson, Wash.—An unknown foreigner, unconscious from concussion of the brain, was Thursday morning picked up by section men at Ash and brought to Stevenson. He is thought to have fallen from a train. It is presumed he was a member of one of the extra gangs of laborers on the S. P. & S. railroad. A half pint flask of whisky, partially emptied, and $6.19 were found upon him. He cannot live.

Policemen in Annual Session.
La Grande, Ore.—The regular annual meeting of the Union County Pioneer association was held Wednesday. After the close of the program the regular business meeting was held and new officers were elected. Elgin was chosen as the place of next year's meeting.
Officers elected for the ensuing year are: James Masterson, president; James D. Slater, secretary and treasurer.

Nehalem Pioneer Dies.
Mist, Ore.—Benjamin N. Lind, a Nehalem valley pioneer, died at Carson, Wash. June 19.—Deceased was 70 years of age, and was born in Sweden, coming to Nehalem valley 31 years ago and settling on a homestead near this city, where he lived until last year. He moved to the springs near Carson for his health. Death was caused by cancer of the stomach. Interment was made in the Lutheran cemetery at this place Tuesday afternoon.

Cornet Player Loses Leg.
Albany, Ore.—While the band of the Arnold amusement company was marching west on First street at 12:40 Monday afternoon a streetcar going in the opposite direction struck Edward Tubbs, a cornet player, and dragged him more than a rod. The man's left leg was almost torn from his body, necessitating amputation. His body was badly bruised and torn. Dr. Ellis was called and the man was removed to St. Mary's hospital, where he lies in a critical condition.

Roberts is Newest Town.
Prineville, Ore.—Roberts is central Oregon's newest postoffice. It received its first supply of mail on Monday, and will be supplied by the stage line which operates between Prineville and Heald. It is situated at the J. E. Roberts ranch, about 20 miles south of this point, and will supply a large number of families, many of which have just recently located on homesteads. A townsite is being laid off at this point and it will bear the name of Roberts also.

Loate Private Arsenal.
Boise, Idaho.—As a result of numerous robberies of stores and residences in New Plymouth and the surrounding country, officers Wednesday searched the home ranch of Russell Tucker, M. A. Lamb and Henry Keough, three men who live alone. Many articles identified as stolen property were found and the men were placed under arrest. The house was a regular arsenal, weapons being concealed in every conceivable place. The men are in jail at Payette.

Bootlegger Pleads Guilty.
Eugene, Ore.—Harry Tracy, a young man residing at Eugene, Wednesday pleaded guilty in the circuit court to the charge of selling liquor and was sentenced to serve 30 days in the county jail. He admitted having sold liquor to a number of men at Wendling recently. Fred Shepard on that charge, entered a plea of guilty, and will be sentenced some time today. These are the first liquor cases to come up in the circuit court for some time, the practice of bootlegging having been pretty well wiped out lately except in isolated cases.

State May Win Estate.
La Grande, Ore.—Real estate valued at $25,000, the property of John Morrison prior to his death two years ago, will go to the state of Oregon unless the supreme court reverses a decision reached by a jury in an escheat case at midnight Wednesday night. The case had once been up to the supreme court and had been sent back for retrial. Last night's verdict is the state's second victory. Morrison's fortune, which included some $20,000 in cash, was divided among five heirs, on orders of the probate court and then the state started escheat proceedings. The state introduced evidence to show Morrison was of illegitimate parentage.

Grange to Teach Irrigation.
Nampa, Idaho.—The Grange is active in this section just now to attract attention of land owners under this part of the Payette-Boise government reclamation project to the necessity of a more economical system of handling water for irrigation. At present the water for irrigation is being used in this big reclamation project without any practical system, much of the land being placed in crops without any leveling at all. As a result of the rough method water goes to the low places and causes swamps and unproductive spots in the fields.

The efforts now being inaugurated by the Grange promise to be of great value to the community and of untold benefit to the water service under this project.

ANNIVERSARY OF BAPTISM OF FIRST MICMAC INDIAN
St. John, N. B., June 24.—A tercentenary celebration of the first baptism of a Micmic Indian was held today at Restigouche, N. B., and was marked by one of the most interesting religious ceremonies ever held in Canada. All of the principal Roman Catholic orders of the North American continent were represented and many high church dignitaries and civil authorities were present.

It was just 300 years ago, on St. John's Day, 1619, that the aged chief of the Micmic, Memberton, then about 100 years of age, was baptized into the Christian faith, and his conversion was soon followed by the baptism of the entire tribe. The vanishing remnants of the Micmac Indians participated in today's celebration. Not more than 500 are left, scattered throughout eastern Canada and on a reservation in Newfoundland, and it is doubtful if there is a single pure-blooded Micmic among them. They still hold to the primitive hunting and trapping and have acquired little knowledge of agriculture. Perhaps to a greater extent than any other Indian tribe they have maintained the early baptismal vows of their fathers. Their life is clean, peaceful and exceedingly religious and fire-water is seldom used.

The Conservation of Nature's Resources
Applies as well to our physical state as to material things. C. J. Sudlong, Washington, R. I. realized his condition, and took warning before it was too late. He says: "I suffered severely from kidney trouble, the disease being hereditary in our family. I have taken four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy, and now consider myself thoroughly cured. This should be a warning to all not to neglect taking Foley's Kidney Remedy until it is too late." Koepfen Bros.

BATHING DAY IN MEXICO.
All Mexicans Take a Real Bath on This Day.
City of Mexico, June 24.—It is a safe proposition to wager that no other nation on the globe has a population as clean as that of Mexico to-day. It is possible that this may not be true of other days of the year, but today this is the real "spotless town," so far as personal cleanliness is concerned. It is the day set aside to St. John the Baptist, and the example of immersion set by him is followed every June 24 by all pious Mexicans.

Whatever may be the attitude of the Mexican toward ablutions on other days of the year, upon the birthday of John the Baptist it is considered necessary to take a real bath. Those who believe that a mere sprinkle or shower over the head and face is sufficient to pass for a bath at other seasons of the year, know that they cannot violate the time-honored mandate of the ages to immerse and submerge themselves in water on the anniversary of the birth of St. John.

Measures were taken by the city authorities to provide sufficient water to go around today. It is figured that about 5,000,000 gallons of water will be enough to give everybody in the federal district a bath.

Thillion and figures ten gallons to each bath. For many this may be too much, but it has been figured as the mean average.
Besides, there are thousands who will go to the creeks, canals and rivers to bathe.

Scared Into Sound Health.
Mr. B. F. Kelley, Springfield, Ill. writes: "A year ago I began to be troubled with my kidneys and bladder, which grew worse until I became alarmed at my condition. I suffered also with dull heavy headaches and the action of my bladder was annoying and painful. I read of Foley's Kidney Pills and after taking them a few weeks the headaches left me the action of my bladder was again normal, and I was free of all distress." Koepfen Bros.

against Mrs. Evelyn Thaw. Mr. Blair said he could not see how a shaving set for a woman whose husband was in jail "could be considered necessary, to say the least." Nor could the Pittsburg referee be moved one iota by the talk of counsel.

After some bitterness Mr. Blair announced the hearing postponed until today to give counsel for the Disalvo Bros time to look up matters and show the necessity for this mysterious shaving set which was bought by Evelyn a short time before she was cut off her husband's credit list entirely.

Glad to Recommend Them.
Mr. E. Weckley Kokomo, Ind., says: "After taking Foley's Kidney Pills, the severe headache left me, my kidneys became stronger, the secretions natural and my bladder no longer pained me. I am glad to recommend Foley's Kidney Pills." In a yellow package. Koepfen Bros.

UNWELCOME GUEST CLUB.
Successor to Ananias Club Has Prominent Members.
Washington.—It used to be the Ananias Club. Now is the Association of Unwelcome Guests that has been called into being by the White House.

Nobody really realized how the Unwelcome Guest Club had been quietly growing until the late unpleasantness suffered by Representative Francis Burton Harrison. Since that time, statesmen with a thoughtful turn of mind have been cataloguing several citizens who came in as charter members, so to speak.

First of all, of course, there is Gifford Pinchot. He used to be the most welcome of the welcome visitors back in the Roosevelt regime, but times have changed since the former forester lined up against Secretary of the Interior Ballinger and the White House now sees him no more.

Representative John A. Martin, (Dem., Colo.), feels that he is persona non grata there too. Martin hasn't been on pleasant terms with the administration since he began fulminating against Attorney General Wickersham on the sale of the Philippine friar lands.

Representative Henry T. Rainey, (Dem., Ill.), is particularly under the presidential ban for his utterances along the same lines against not only Attorney General Wickersham, but Henry W. Taft, the president's brother, as well.

Delegate Wickersham, of Alaska, charged that the Gugenheims controlled the removal and appointment of federal officials in Alaska. Result: his relations with the White House are strained.

And, now comes Francis Burton Harrison (Dem., N. Y.), who drew a full fledged membership through his charge in connection with the pre-dating of the summary by the Attorney General of the Glavis charges.

What a Summer Cold May Do.
A summer cold if neglected is just as apt to develop into bronchitis or pneumonia as at any other season. Do not neglect it. Take Foley's Honey and Tar promptly. It loosens the cough, soothes and heals the inflamed air passages, and expels the cold from the system. Koepfen Bros.
